MISFITS.

Just enough snow to mention it.

The curfew law is a good one to enforce.

Parents have a right to know what their children are doing.

There is nothing like getting off on the right foot and right note.

February, though short, was a long one on business in Albany, which was good.

March is here, the time when rail-laying was to begin on the O. E. at S. towards A.

That skating rink evidently needs looking after by the city fathers and Albany fathers generally.

It is to be hoped the fight on corsets wins out; but of corset won't. The factories want the business.

The cartoonists have now turned their attention to T. R. good and har I, and he is getting it in the neck and all over his anatomy.

The servself grocery is a new concern. Goods are marked down and people help themselves, no clerks, no delivery wagons, all cash, no books. Smith tried it at Cleveland, O., and it sounds big, but it is doubtful if it will pan out everywhere.

A man in Chicago was fined $5 for writing the following poem:
Out on a farm
Under a big round moon,
It ain't no harm to snuggle and spoon,
Spoon, spoon.
The example set by the judge is a good one.

Albany College.

The last regular number of Albany College Lecture Course will be given on Wednesday, March 29, by the Edwin H. Weeks Company.

Harry S. Garner, of Chicago, for twelve years Secretary of the Inter-collegiate Association, and editor of the Intercollegiate Statesman, addressed the students Friday morning.

An important meeting, full of promise for the future of Albany College, was held in the Chapel last night. The students practiced two Albany College songs and some yells, both old and new. Then they adopted a constitution for a Takenah Club, the purpose of which is to boost for Albany College. The executive committee are Miss Amy Olmsted, president; Miss Dama Cushman, vice-president; Miss Ruth Knowles, secretary and treasurer; and Alexander McLain and H. H. Fuller. By invitation of the students, the College Ladies' Party sang and talked as they did on their recent Southern trip.

"I Am Very Much Pleased With My Investment."

Mr. Louis Schlessinger is the proprietor of a prosperous men's furnishing store in San Diego, California. The quotation above is what he thinks of electric advertising.

"I purchased a double-faced electric sign about a year ago," writes this merchant. "I wish to say that I have never spent a sum of money for advertising which has brought me the business that this sign has."

"It not only serves as a sign, and a source of illumination of the entire front of my store at night, but is a clear and readable sign by day."

"I am very much pleased with my investment and the publicity I have received through it. I would certainly advise anyone looking for a live means of advertising to invest in an electric sign."
