(MONDAY.)
PROF. HORNER'S GRECIAN ADDRESS
At the Presbyterian Church.

Prof. J. B. Horner, of the O. A. C., at the Presbyterian church last evening, presented his address on Athens and Grecian art, giving a splendid series of pictures taken by him on his recent trip through Europe. The church was packed, and many had to stand.

The address was comprehensive and gave one a good idea of the situation, past and present.

It was a strange fact that during fourteen years most of the great men of Greece were born, men whose names continue to stand for much in literature and art.

Prominent pictures shown in the course of the address in keeping with the narration were:

Socrates, philosopher, sentenced to death by poison.
The stadium, as rebuilt, where Forest Smithson, an Oregon boy, made himself famous.
The temple of Jupiter.
Dionegenes lantern, a monument.
The temple of Bacchus.

Many pieces of art, showing the gods Jupiter the greatest of all, their deities; Ceres, of the farm; Venus, society; Vesta, the old maid; Mercury, the fleet footed; Apollo, the musician; Aphrodite, love; Diana, the hunter; Neptune, of the seas; Mars, war; Vulcan, fire; Athena, art; Hercules, strength; Hebes, youth; Esculapius, health; etc.

The Parthenon temple.
Figures of Phidias.
The old Athenian cemetery.
Dr. J. R. N. Bell on Mt. Moriah.
Some views showing the present day work done in sculpture, by the greatest of this century, Donaros, with some of his pieces.

The Grecian idea is that all that is beautiful is good, and the good must be beautiful.
Socrates was first to reason out that man is immortal. Many have had visions, John Knox, Joan of Arc, Martin Luther, Paul, Homer and Socrates.

The genius of art is destined to survive the genius of war, it is said.
After the address many took occasion to express their appreciation.

SUNRISE'S SIDEWALK

By a Sunrise.
The new sidewalk from the Union depot out into the Sunrise and Goltra Park district is now completed. It is substantially built of plank, one and one half inches thick, spiked on 3 by 4 stringers, making a walk four feet wide, properly leveled up with regulation cross walks and is a credit to the citizens of that thriving suburb of that city. The cost of the walk in actual cash was approximately $500, the work being volunteered by those interested.

The walk is as far as originally contemplated, and for which the funds were raised by the promoters is done, and no funds were contributed by any persons whose names are not given in the list appearing below.

It is understood that some extension of a cheaper construction is being contemplated by some residents living farther out in the country, and that the merchants of the city are being asked to contribute to the building of such extension, and while the residents of Sunrise who have built their own walks without any outside assistance whatever have not the least objection, in fact, are glad to see any extension of the walks, they desire the merchants of the city of Albany and all others interested in the subject to know that the following is a full and complete list of the contributors to and builders of the Sunrise sidewalk as it now stands completed:

J. D. Ingram, S. D. Stephens, E. F. Seavers, P. J. Hanson, E. W. Stephens, J. E. Ross, R. N. Torbet, C. Trapp, P. P. Nutting, W. E. Baker, Jake Streitler, Roy E. Dowd, Geo. Webber, C. Christenson, T. M. Humphrey, M. E. Dowd, Jno Courtney, J. E. Warner, B. H. Poles, L. B. Weaver, Telly Telleson, Frank B. Hastings, Mrs. M. Brenner, T. Bison, W. S. Weaver, Ida Stellmacher, U. G. Hodgkins, Frank Pautmeier, A. J. Steel, Frank Palmer, I. R. Schultz.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

D. W. Rumbaugh, county fruit inspector, went to Millers to inspect the situation. He reports practically no damage from the frosts, the buds not being sufficiently developed. A good deal of spraying is being done, and fruit prospects are good.

L. E. Hamilton and C. W. Tebault were among those going to Portland on the early train.
S. M. Garland, Editor Kirkpatrick and Otho Temple were among the arrivals from Lebanon.
Doug Hamilton the celebrated conisseur of moving pictures, returned to Seio.
Cal. Thrasher arrived from Corvallis. Prof. Wood returned from Corvallis.
Proman spoke on cooperation, the home after being out to see his mother, seriously injured by falling down stairs last week from Portland.

Royal Shaw and family returned to Mill City after an Albany visit.
John Barrett went up to Mill City.
Miss Georgie Blvens, of the Young Store, and Miss Minnie Scott, of the Sheriff's office, returned from a Sunday visit with their folks at Tangent.
Fred Burkhardt came down from his Harrisburg farm.

Judge Bryan, one of Idaho's best known men, passed through on his way home from Springfield, where he had been called by the serious illness of his father. Judge Bryan, a former Benton county man, is making good as a judicial officer.

W. M. Davidson, a Hood River man, went out to Peterson's Butte, where he owns a large fruit tract, which he expects to cut up and sell.
A. H. Sandstrom and E. F. Anderson, of the Union Furniture factory, went to Brownsville, in the interest of the factory, whose capacity is to be enlarged to meet the big demand for Albany furniture.
Ben Clelen went to Salem, called there by a friend being injured in an automobile accident.

ESCAPED TWICE.

A Harrisburg Giant Causes Some Trouble.
Constable Hawk, of Harrisburg had a time of it getting E. D. Henry, under indictment for violation of the local option law, arrested by Sheriff Smith during the potato fair at Harrisburg last fall, to Albany to appear before Judge Kelley and answer the charge against him.

Constable Hawk started for the train Saturday evening, when Henry asked to go into the hotel just a moment. Instead of returning he skipped. He was finally arrested, and Sunday again made his escape. In arresting him several shots were fired principally in the air, as none hit anything. He was finally gotten to the train and down to Albany, spending last evening at the county jail.

Henry is a giant in build, a fine looking man physically.

DIED.

Mrs. Kroeschel. — In Albany, on Sunday, March 10, Mrs. August Kroeschel, at the age of 73 years and 7 months. She was born in Germany and came to the U. S. 51 years ago, to Oregon 22 years ago, residing in Benton county a few years, then coming to Albany, a woman of excellent character. She was the mother of twelve children, of whom nine survive, as follows:

Mrs. Louis Krueger of near here; Chas. and Louis and Mrs. Amelia Essig, of Albany; Martha Marcell, Oakland, Calif.; Ida Czarke, Eugene; August, of Los Angeles; Mrs. Berta Morrison, of Minneapolis; Samuel, of Medford.
Funeral Wednesday at 2 p. m., at the German Lutheran church.

Mr. Leveridge. — Monday, March 11, in Albany, F. D. Leveridge. He was born June 12, 1842, at Gaylord, Mich., and came to Oregon in 1882, coming to Linn county thirty years ago, after being in business, a wheelwright, at Independence. He was a member of the Christian church. He leaves a wife and the following children: A. W. and P. E., of and near Albany; P. J., of Nevada; Turf, of Fall City; Mrs. Long, of Clackamas; Mrs. Cardwell, of Elma, Wash.

The funeral will be at the residence of A. W. Leveridge, at 2 p. m. tomorrow.

No. 10 Grange.

Grand Prairie Grange met Saturday and conferred the 1st and 3d degrees. Six applications were received.
F. M. Mitchell spoke on how the Grange can best help the public school. Amy Payne gave a reading, Thomas Amman spoke on cooperation, the Grange sang, Geo. Pennington gave a reading, Mrs. Mitchell spoke on Sunday dinners without cooking Sunday, Bertha Kitten gave a reading, A. C. Miller spoke on the good of the order, also Bertha Beck.

There will be a masquerade ball and oyster supper next Friday night.

A Lebanon Blind Pig.

Lebanon also has a big liquor case. 248 quarts of beer and 24 quarts of whiskey were captured in the house of Dick Turpin by the marshal of the city, and placed in the city jail for safe keeping. It was said that a special guard had to be kept at the jail to keep the young men of the city from breaking in and capturing the liquid. Turpin was arrested on two charges, and will be tried on Wednesday. He was also indicted by the grand jury on five charges and was brought to Albany Saturday evening, under $2,000 bonds, which he could not furnish.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 45-59.
The river is 5.2 feet.
Sunday was an ideal March day.
Prediction: fair tonight, with heavy frost.

TUESDAY.

The S. M. Won.

The married men and single men had a bowling contest on the Alco alleys last evening, full of life and good spirit. The S. M. won two out of three games, and also were ahead on pins, though the highest single score was made by a married man, Chas. H. Stewart, and also the lowest score.

The lineups were:
Married men—G. A. Flood, J. B. Flynn, Chas. H. Cusick, H. A. Nelson first half, P. P. Nutting second half, and Chas. H. Stewart.
Single men—Jack Berry, Chas. Fox, F. C. Stellmacher, Jack Stevens and Dave Patterson.

MOVING.

Elite and Flower Store in F. S. B. Building.
R. C. Churchill is moving into his new store, one of the finest confectionery stores in Oregon, where beginning Thursday morning the Elite will be located, next door to the First Savings Bank, opposite S. E. Young & Son, close to the new P. O., just down the street from the Democrat office. The opening will be then. The store is an elegant one, splendidly arranged for patrons, service and selling. Beneath is the factory, with the long table just under the sidewalk. The first candy was made there last evening, some log cabins. Call and see things at the opening.

The Albany Floral Store will then open in its fine room next door, with Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, the popular proprietors, in charge. They are making a great success of the business and deserve their new quarters.

Final Contest.

The final contest in the series of essays on Narcotics, will be held in the High school building on THIS evening, March 12, at 8 o'clock, when the following program will be given:
Singing, by the Girls Glee Club, of High School.
Prayer.
Musical trio, by three High school girls.
Reading of the essays.
Singing by the Boy's Glee Club.
Address by A. C. Schmitt and Prof. Boetticher.
Remarks, and presentation of the prize by Miss McCleary.
The Boy's Glee Club.
Everybody invited to be present.

Construction Work Completed.

The construction work on the new Young building was completed last night. Under the superintendence of H. T. Wentworth a first-class job has been done. The building is a credit to the city, as well as the owners. There are some finishing touches to be put on, when the building will be occupied, practically a department store, about the first of April being opened for business.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 55-56.
The river is 4.8 feet.
Prediction: probably fair tonight and Wednesday.

R. R. Com. Miller arrived this noon.
Mrs. J. W. Ellison this noon returned from Newberg.
R. v. Maraden this noon returned from Portland.
Another big storm has been sweeping over the east, snow galore.
Rev. Abbot was in the city this noon on his way home from the west side.
H. A. Canfield, Seattle, Wash., has been in the city.
Fred Lockley, of the Sunset P. M., arrived this noon.
Conrad Olson, a Portland lawyer, was in the city today on legal business.

Henry Beard, who escaped from the penitentiary some time ago, has been captured at Bend.
The Sunrise walk cost $710 just for material, instead of $500, as stated by a correspondent.
Frank Jenkins, of the Eugene Register, and Miss Ray Woodruff, of Salem, were married at Salem today.
A. W. Dockstader's new street sprinkler, a fine one, has arrived and will be ready for service any time.
L. W. Lang, district deputy head consul, M. W. A., will meet with the Albany lodge tomorrow night. Be present.

Dr. Harry Lane, of Portland, may be a fourth candidate on the democratic ticket for U. S. senator. It is said petitions will be out.
Pete Ruetner went to Halsey, and thence out to the Wilson farm to figure on moving a barn the O. E. will cut in two if not out of the way.
Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Nolan and J. H. Harris, of Corvallis, arrived this noon, and joined the San Francisco excursion party at 2:25.
Mrs. J. A. Compton and Mrs. W. N. Alexander of Polk Co. are in the city visiting their mother Mrs. R. J. McEloury.

Frank Patterson, a government inspector at Panama for several years, is here on a visit with his wife and two children, while on a leave of absence.
It was reported a saloon was to be opened at Springfield today, under a $1200 license, no screens, and a $3,000 bond. Several will apply for licenses.
Mr. and Mrs. Gale Sanders this noon arrived from the Hay, where they visited Mrs. Sanders' folks, and stopped for a visit at the home of Miss Hazel Pfeiffer.

Secretary Nagle, of the President's cabinet, yesterday in a speech at Indianapolis, lauded the president and said he had kept his promise. But he has not.
After a correspondence with the Commercial Club, D. S. P. Dagit, wife of an ear childer arrived this morning to stay, and are all delighted with our city and country, better than was reported.
Eleanor Sears, a Boston millionairess, who assays male roles numerously, courting a relay of sensations, is at San Diego cutting a wide swath. Yesterday she rode a polo pony to victory in a quarter mile dash.
Corvallis G. T. Riley Loughugh, Albany's "post boy" is in Corvallis today and two circulating among friends. Riley now finds it possible to forsake his wheel chair occasionally and walk on crutches. He says his paralysis condition grows better each week and he is jubilant. The boy has many friends around here always glad to see him.

Athletic Entertainment.

Next Friday evening in the armory, by 15 live boys of the U. B. Athletic Club, Portland. All kinds of contests and stunts. Great music all the time. Admission 25 cents. Tickets on sale Thursday and Friday at Woodworth's.

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING.

The regular meeting of the Albany Commercial Club was held last night, with the following present: President Eastburn, Manager Stewart, Directors Van Winkle, Nutting, Hammer, Collins, Sox, Crowell, Winn, Schmitt, Stainn, French.

Letters were received from Senator Bourne and Chamberlain and Congressman LaFarty, assuring the club that they will do everything possible to establish the title of innocent purchasers to land secured of the Oregon & California R. R. Co.
The report of Manager Stewart showed the following:

Received:
Dues to March 8	$3173.06
Linn county	350.00
Total	$3523.06
Paid out:

A manufacturers meeting was suggested, showing the products of Linn county factories. An exposition of our home made things was endorsed by all. Upon motion of C. E. Sox it was voted the sense of the meeting that such an exposition be held. Referred to the manufacturers committee. This created much enthusiasm. The proposed plan covers an exhibit for the entire county. The manufacturers committee met at once, with Messrs. Veal Brothers, Sandstrom, Malfait, E. A. Thompson and others to consider the proposed exposition.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Henry Sheak and seven other prominent Philomath men, went to Portland to attend the state prohibition convention, enthusiastic for the cause. Philomath is quite a prohibition center. A coming feature in the state is to be a joint discussion between two Portland men at different places including Albany, on the question of anti-saloon and prohibition.
D. W. Rumbaugh, county fruit inspector and C. A. Park, of Salem, district horticultural commissioner, went to Plainview to inspect a car of fruit trees just received for the Davidson place, formerly the Payne farm. Mr. Davidson is preparing to plant a large number of trees and sell small tracts of orchard. He is a Hood River man and knows the business thoroughly.

R. Rozowaty went to Portland.
Mrs. Christensen, christian science healer, went to Portland.
W. B. Gilson returned to Salem. His brother, R. L., of Lebanon is a member of the present jury.
Mack Monticelli left again.
President Crooks left on a Portland trip.
Roy McKee, of Crosswell, once an Albany minister, went to Portland.
An Albany teacher went to Salem to visit the schools. Under the arrangement each of the high school teachers is to have a day off for visiting other schools, keeping in touch with the other schools of the valley, an excellent idea in the interest of progress.

Last of College Course.

The last regular number of Albany College Lecture Course will be the Edwin R. Weeks Company on Wednesday night, March 20. Undoubtedly this will be the most thoroughly popular number. The Company made a great hit recently at Corvallis, and are very strongly praised for their work at McMinnville. Mr. Weeks sings every part from bass to soprano, and impersonates all the important characters of the world, Teddy, Taft, Bryan, Mark Twain, Henry Irving, and Padarewaki, and many others. Mrs. Weeks assists him skillfully in operetta, medleys, comedies, parodies, and sketches. Miss Gula Sinclair is a most gifted violinist.

A Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crocker, of Orleans precinct, celebrated the twentieth anniversary of their marriage, March 9, in a very pleasant manner. The evening was spent in listening to some excellent music after which a dainty and delicious lunch was served. A number of presents were received. Those present were Messrs. Crocker, W. H. Hubbard, Park, B. A. Hubbard and Edie Montgomery; Messrs. Crocker, W. H. Hubbard, Park, B. A. Hubbard, Bertha, Chas. Austin Hubbard, Judd Hubbard, L. N. Smith, Herbert Park, Hermann Park, Glenn Olin, Bennie Olin, Harry and Wayne Olin, and Truman Crocker and family.
