THURSDAY.

EAST END MEETING A SUCCESS.

The east end meeting, in the hall at 5th and Hill streets, last night, was a great success, the hall being filled.

Councilman Henry Lyons was elected chairman, and all the members of the council, Mayor Gilbert, Street Superintendent Kies and City Attorney Swan were present and took part in various ways.

Prominent speakers were D. J.
Hackleman, Mr. Fish, Jack Hammel, G. M. Knox, J. H. Goins and E. L.
Umphrey.

Matters discussed specially were:
The grading of the streets with drainage, and this morning several petitions for such improvements were started.

A good bridge over Pennywinkle, which will undoubtedly be built.
A sewer system, now under way, which will be pushed as soon as bonds can be sold.

A splendid feeling prevailed, putting the city officials and citizens on good terms, with a close understanding of the situation and mutual interests.

A Eugene Couple's Eventful Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chambers, of Eugene, have just returned from a trip to Panama. They left Eugene Jan. 9 in sunshine, struck snow up in Washington, 12 degrees below in Mon., survived the Windy City, visited relatives in Quincy, Ill., rushed through the pork city on to Washington, went up to New York, sailed from there to Havana, saw the wreck of the Maine, stopped at San Juan, Jamaica, Kingston, then on to Colon, Panama, where they inspected the development work on the canal. Then they went to Martinique and saw the desolation caused by the eruption of Mt. Pelee, went to St. Thomas and saw Blue Beard's castle, then back to the U. S., up to Boston and other places, coming home.

LOUD STOCKING DAY.

This is loud stocking day at the high school, and the boys will be seen in the most extravagant colors it is possible to secure. They will be seen at their best in the street parade beginning at 7:30 tonight, and those witnessing the spectacle will need to have on colored glasses to protect their eyes. This parade is to be the most spectacular of any school parade ever given in Albany, a prelude to the game of basket ball to be played at the gym tomorrow night with the freshman class of the U. O., a team that has beaten Washington, champions of Portland, and the Eugene high. Be there at 8 o'clock.

Tonight there will be all kinds of novelties, a streets of Cairo band, goats, cows and numerous stunts along the paved ways of the city. There will be some noise by special permission, including that of the loud stockings.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Chas. M. Redfield, of Deschutes, chief engineer and manager of the big Deschutes Irrigation Co., came up on the early train and was here long enough to see his new nephew, returning at 7:30. His company this year will spend $150,000, as required by the state, in extending the ditches of the project. He reports the Bend country prospering.

O. C. Cardwell, another prosperous resident of the Bend country, left for home after a short visit here. He was recently elected master of the first grange organized in that country.

Prof. C. A. Park, horticultural commissioner, returned home after a trip through Benton county. He reports excellent fruit prospects, with the buds back enough not to be injured by the recent frosts. Prof. Lewis, the O. A.
C. fruit expert, was also with him, going to Salem.

D. W. Merrill went to Eugene on the early train.

Ex-Sheriff Burnett, of Corvallis, arrived and went north.

Frank Stacey, of North Albany, went to Salem to pay some Marion county taxes.

of one of the finest short horn herds in the valley, went to Portland.

after their Albany engagement at Dreamland, good ones in their line.

R. K. Ohling, a director of the Bankers and Merchants Insurance Co. of Forest Grove, left for that city to attend a meeting of the directors. The Co. is doing a good business and establishing a good reputation.

A Spelling Bee.
An old fashioned spelling bee between the Sunday school classes of Mrs. C. V.
Littler and A. M. Hammer was held in the basement of the Methodist church last evening, and was a great success.
The young men of Mr. Hammer's class made the challenge, promptly accepted.
The young ladies were present in large numbers and were the winners.

Later in the evening elaborate refreshments were served by the young men. There were over sixty in attendance.

In Favor of the Saloon.
The supreme court has decided that Springfield can run saloons itself, regardless of the fact of Lane county being dry, or of its precincts being part in and part outside the city limits, putting a new phase on the situation.

STUDENTS WON.

For fun the game of basket ball last evening between the faculty and students of Albany college has not been surpassed. On this occasion the students did the instructing. The score was: students 32, faculty 11. The students made 22 in the first two quarters and the faculty none. In the last half the students made only 10 and the faculty 11.

For the students Kropp played a star game. He is a former Mt. Angel man and knows the game. Prof. Flo threw four of the five baskets made by the faculty. Prof. White getting the other one, and Prof. Flo one on a foul.

Dr. Geselbracht did star work as a guard, the boys having their hands full getting around him.

An audience of seventy-five, the gate receipts being $7.50, appreciated the contest, one of individuality rather than team work.

The lineups were:
Faculty—Flo and Franklin forwards, Sharp, Geselbracht and White guards.
Students—Hodge and Bass forwards, Kropp, Jones and Henderson guards.
Referee—Nutting. Time keeper—Minor Gray.

O. E. AT ALBANY BY JULY 1

Is Now the Official Statement.

This morning's Salem Statesman—It was officially stated yesterday that the Oregon Electric Railroad company will have its new line running into Albany by July 1. There has been some delay recently with condemnation suits at Albany, but these are being settled and by the last of next week the last of the suits will be disposed of.

The road from Salem to Albany will be one of the best stretches of track from a technical point of view in America. The grade of the entire distance is less than 1 per cent, and the average is less than three degrees. The construction is of the standard modern type and trains will easily be able to make 75 miles per hour on the run. There is one straight tangent of 23 miles without a curve. The bridges across the Willamette and the Santiam are the most heavily constructed bridges in the United States.

When this line is completed and the line from Portland to Banks by the United Railways Co., the Hill system, including the Oregon Electric and the United Railways, will be the biggest interurban system in the United States.

More Candidates.
The following notices of candidacy were filed:
H. M. Palmer, one of Linn county's former efficient county judges, for the same office.

L. G. Lowelling, rep., for representative. He promises to oppose all measures designed to retard power of the people, is in favor of progression without radicalism, will work to reduce taxation.

After name provision—I stand for strict economy and am opposed to exorbitant appropriations. Endorses statement number one.

Eik's Election.
Albany Lodge No. 859 B. P. O. E.

the ensuing year:

J. N. Chambers, E-Leading Knight.
Harry Schlosser, E-Loyal Knight.
F. J. Davine, Tyler.
W. V. Merrill, Secretary.
H. B. Cusick, Treasurer.

Hamiltons' Silk Week.
One whole week will be devoted to Silks at The Hamilton Store, commencing tomorrow, March 9th and closing March 16th. This is a sale out of the ordinary for Albany in which hundreds of yards of beautiful silks will be shown. The collection of silken fabrics for spring is large—and the silk loving buyers will find their ideal at this showing. Special purchases by our New York buyer make it possible for us to offer some very good inducements—to buy during the week.

Meeting With Favor.
There will probably be a petition asking for the location of the city hall on site of the central school building.
Close to the court house, new post office, and all business sections that may be developed, including Lyon street, it is a good one, a fact being appreciated by Albany people generally.

Fell Down Stairs.
Mrs. J. H. Yoder, residing east of town, met with a serious accident about 2 o'clock yesterday morning. She started down stairs to fix the Leubator, when she fell the entire distance to the bottom, cutting a gash in her temple and cheek. Dr. Davis was sent for and attended her.
