EVERY DAY THAT GOES BY sees a visitor to our office with a proposition that means a little more profit to use for a little skimping of quality to you. It is amazing how many plausible schemes of this kind there are. WE HAVE WORKED TOO HARD to earn a reputation for selling toilet articles that can be depended upon to entertain any such schemes. Our reward lies in your confidence which we consider far better than a little extra profit. Buy here and see.

THIS MORNING.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Davis and the Misses Pratt went to Portland to hear the famous Mrs. Schumann-Heinek Etc., one of the world's best singers, having a voice of marvelous power; also eight children and a husband she doesn't want. Mrs. Heinek is one of the most popular vocalists in the world and always draws.

Mrs. David Link arrived from Eugene, called here by the critical illness of her mother Mrs. Chas. Wagner. Her brothers Will and Frank are also up from Portland Mrs. Wagner's many warm friends will regret knowing of the serious condition of her illness, a woman beloved by everybody knowing her.

Judge Lovelee arrived from Lebanon. Elza Rockwell, one of the Democrat's carriers, covering the east end of the city, went to Orenco for a short visit. J. R. Wyatt returned to Portland, after being here to look after a damage suit in the circuit court, in which he is one of the attorneys.
J. C. Holbrook went to Millers.

Wilder Child, a former Montana schoolmate of J. W. Reader, of the Hammond Lumber Co's yard, went to Mill City, where he will have a position with the Hammond Co.

R. S. Shaw, manager of the Hammond Co., left for Astoria to look after business there. He will be back in a few days and be at Mill City, when the Albany excursion party reaches there on the 21st, when the resources of that section will be shown.

HAZEL CHAPMAN WON CONTEST.

Narcotics were given a terrific blow at the high school building last night in the final essay contest, the last of four held, the winners in three former contests and entertainments, presenting their essays in this. There was a good audience and much interest.

Mrs. A. M. Hammer presided. The girls glee club were heard in a couple songs, followed by scripture reading and prayer by Rev. Mochel.

A trio by three high school girls was good.

Hazel Chapman, Opal Stephens and Nellie Nicewonder then gave their essays, in which the tobacco habit was well ventilated.

The judges, Messrs. Franklin, Geselbracht and Nutting gave first place to Miss Chapman, and she was afterwards presented with a $5 gold piece.

The boys glee club sang. Short addresses were given by A. C. Schmitt, Prof. Boetticher and Miss McCleary, covering the subject of narcotics with some excellent advice, the latter dealing principally with the W. C. T. U.

The profitable and well carried out entertainment closed with another song by the popular boys glee club.

Every effort to get boys started on the right road in the matter of good habits deserves the hearty support of everybody interested in their future welfare. The cigarette is the starter for a good deal of evil that comes into the lives of boys in after life.

BANQUET OF THE T. A. B. C.

The Thursday Afternoon Book Club held a banquet at the St. Francis last evening with thirty-two present, including the husbands of the members. The service was high-class and a delightful time was had. It was made a St. Patrick's event in honor of the approaching day, Irish wit prevailed, with a Yankee twinge to it.

Following was the menu:
Tomatoe Bouillion, Saltines, olives, pickles, cheese, brown and white bread, shrimp salad, chicken a la Maryland, potato cakes, corn fritters, stuffed tomatoes, asparagus tips, ice cream, cakes, coffee, mints.

After the fine spread toasts were enjoyed, with C. H. Weidner as toastmaster.

Responses were heard from Lawyer C. C. Bryant, Judge P. R. Kelley, Mrs. Whitlock and Miss Kate Barrett, full of snap. Then most of those present told an Irish story, and the men had to hustle to keep up with the wit of the ladies.

The New Elite

WILL OPEN
Saturday, 16th
A souvenir to every lady visiting the store on that day, Come.

Here Is a Chance.

I have associated with me one of the most expert plate-makers in the Northwest, and I am going to give people of Albany and surrounding country the benefit of his knowledge and experience for the next 31 days, beginning Friday, March 1st.

NOW LISTEN

Maybe you are wearing one and possibly two plates which are giving you satisfaction, but it is policy to have a set in reserve in case of an accident. Possibly you are wearing an ill-fitting plate, which drops down when you eat or try to laugh, or it might be that your mouth shrunk after you had your plate made. If so, you cannot afford to miss this offer.

Many persons have had their teeth extracted and gummed it ever since. If this is the case, it is time for you to get busy while this special offer is on.

During the 31 days beginning March 1st I will make the special price of $5.00 and $7.50, but this price does not include extracting. Here are the terms—One-half to be paid when the impression is taken, and the other half when the work is finished.

No credit to any one.

You can see a sample of the plates before you buy.

Friday morning.—Devotions. Report on old people's home. A do you know by Mrs. Canfield.

Afternoon.—Devotions. Paper on the W. H. M. S. Solo by Miss Twidwell. Election of officers. Report of enrollment and closing business.

Attempted Hold Up.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rooklidge last evening were returning home and had just crossed the steel bridge, when Mr. Rainwater, who resides above the bridge ways, ran up and said a man had attempted to hold him up, but he had run. The same fellow had been seen by Mr. and Mrs. Rooklidge, in crossing, evidently following them.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 57-39.
The river is 4.6 feet.
Prediction: fair tonight, with light frost, Thursday fair.

Cedar posts 8c each, or $7.50 a hundred, at the Hammond Lumber Co's yards.

LOST—A bunch of six keys. Return to A. Abraham, Cusick's Bank.

Reasons

WHY ALBANY SHOULD HAVE
ONE OF THE LARGEST FURNITURE FACTORIES
ON THE COAST.

We are located where we can save from three to four dollars per thousand on our lumber, where we can unload lumber and logs right at our factory, ship out our furniture without extra charges for switching.

We have four acres of ground. The buildings contain thirty thousand square feet of floor space. A plant that cost us one-third of what it would in Portland, Seattle or Tacoma. Our make of furniture is well established. We ship as far south as Los Angeles and north as far as Astoria.

Commencing March 4th we are selling stock at par, one hundred dollars a share, for sixty days.
