The Boy Scout Movement.

Editor Democrat:
The Socialists of Albany have exaggerated the boy scout movement a great deal. There is not a bit of truth in what they say. I have carefully investigated the subject. The socialists are getting free advertisement to bring their party into view, a bad advertisement, as it shows a spirit of revenge against society. Some men in the world get to lazy to work, and then begin a fight on capital. S. C.

The White Sister.

Scenery for "The White Sister" in which Miss Towler comes to Albany Friday night was executed by the firm of Bates & Morage, who have finished the embellishment for the most famous production of the time. The three scenes revealed during the course of this powerful story faithfully present in turn, the Reception Hall of the Convent Hospital near the Porta Portese, Rome; The Cloistered Garden of the Convent, and Capt. Severi's room near the Power Magazine.

I have a fine assortment of Alarm clocks to select from, all warranted.
L. W. ROSS, Jeweler.
