(MONDAY.)

FUNERAL OF MRS. WAGNER.

The funeral of Mrs. Chas. Wagner, at the Congregational church yesterday afternoon, was attended by a large number of friends, the building being packed, a number standing.
The display of flowers was one of the finest ever seen in Albany, coming spontaneously from all over the city, expressions of love.
Rev. F. H. Geselbracht, of the Presbyterian church, preached the sermon, a splendid tribute to one whose life had been so helpful, a benediction and blessing in so many homes in Albany, and particularly in her own home, where she was beloved for many sterling qualities of character.
The choir was composed of C. E. Sox, Recorder Van Tassel, Mrs. Flo and Mrs. Nutting, and the pall bearers were Judge Kelley, Judge Hewitt, Postmaster Van Winkle, Frank Skipton, W. B. Chance and Wm. Hand.
The services at the grave were conducted in an impressive and pretty manner by the Pythian Sisters, of which order the deceased had been a member for many years.
The Knights of Pythias, of which Mr. Wagner is a member, also attended in a body.

A Hen Record.

The hens that beat those of Mrs. I. D. Stephens, 1014 E. 5th street, will have to do more than cackle. For winter laying their record is remarkable. In December 24 hens lay 211 eggs, in Jan. 324 eggs and in Feb. 371 eggs, 901 in all. Besides using all wanted at home she sold over 22 worth. She has five varieties. Good care and treatment is what does it.

Mrs. Wilson's Lost Diamonds.

Mrs. Jas. W. Wilson, of Salem, reported the theft of diamonds amounting to $500, three fine rings. The police could get no clue, but Mrs. Wilson did that herself, finding the rings in a shoe, with a handkerchief, where she had evidently placed them for safe-keeping, though she can't remember anything about it.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 45-59.
Rainfall .18 inch.
The river has risen to 8.1 feet.
Prediction: fair tonight, with light frost, Tuesday fair.

Born, on Saturday, to Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Cox, a girl.
Mrs. S. C. Worrell this noon returned from a Salem visit.
Mrs. Will Roemer went to Halsey this afternoon for a visit with her folks.
The filter will be ready about April 1, a fine plant, and a big thing for Albany.
W. J. Woodford was drowned on Saturday in the Big Elk, Lincoln county.
L. E. Blain last week made a trip to Southern Oregon, where he spent several days.
The Home Telephone Co. at San Francisco has sold its plant there to the Pacific States Co.
Reported hold up, but nothing in it. Three shots fired last night in third ward. What for?
There is an orchestra at North Powder composed of a family of Olsons, seven, and not an Ole in it.
The Maine, after being dismantled, was sunk on Saturday in the gulf of Mexico, 600 fathoms deep, buried with ceremony.
Mrs. Hutchinson and Mrs. Horn, of Hornbrook, a mountain city in the Siskiyou, after spending the winter in Albany, left this morning for home.
In the city:—G. E. Wright, Portland; Morton Eddy, Portland; A. K. Irvin, Astoria; O. R. Williams, Camas Valley; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Baker, Corvallis.
W. A. Westfall, now a Newberg real estate dealer, as well as auctioneer, arrived this noon on a short Albany business trip.
A pamphlet just received is entitled: "The Religious Possibilities of the Motion Picture," by Rev. Herbert A. Jump, of the Congregational church, New Britain, Conn.
Prof. T. D. Beckwith, of the O. A. C., today spoke to the high school students on hygiene. A very important subject, he presented it with force and conviction.
Mrs. S. P. McSeeley has returned from Lebanon where she visited friends and relatives. She was accompanied home by Miss Violet Whitaker, daughter of Mrs. Geo. Warner.
W. M. Parker returned this noon from Newport, where he spent a week. Mrs. Parker went over to take his place, and stay with Miss Alzina for a week or two.
The I. W. W. at Portland declare that they will fight anybody who opposes their free soap box speeches. People who have heard these talks say they are decidedly anarchistic in tone.
Phil Metchan, of Portland, passed through the city on his way back to Portland from Southern Oregon, where he had been to recuperate. He earned $10 farming, as an experiment.
Paul Greenwood, window dresser at Hamilton's, spent Sunday in Salem with friends. While gone a street report made him the victim of a drowning accident, but there was of course nothing in it.
There were five fins by Recorder Van Tassel this morning for drunkenness. E. E. Mason, N. P. Hill, Thos. O'Neil, T. H. Green, and Walter Tibbitts, each $10, none paid yet, and W. C. Bingham not yet up, one from the county, the others itinerants.
Edwin Dennis, nephew of John Bray, and wife, left for home yesterday, after spending four months in Albany. They will go to their home near Newell, S. Dak., sell their property, if possible, and return to Albany to reside, being very much pleased with this country.

HICKS AT COLLEGE.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Mayor and Editor F. M. Brown, of Brownsville, returned home after a trip with ten other Brownsville men, to Portland to examine pavement. They saw the whole thing, and the committee are undoubtedly in favor of bit-lithic, and decidedly opposed to concrete. Brownsville will pave about 12 blocks according to the present outlook.

Doug Hamilton returned to Seio after taking in four sets of moving pictures. Looking at the sign, No Smoking, Doug spit out: "There, if smoking isn't an evil what's that sure up there for. That proves it." Sure enough.

Commissioner Butler went up to Stayton to look after the steel arriving for the new bridge, which has to be taken care of until spring.

J. A. Compton, of Independence, went to Seio for a visit.
Mrs. Maggie Stetter returned from a Brownsville trip.
Mr. Crandall, of Brownsville, went to Portland.
F. H. Colpitta, after his Los Angeles trip, returned to his home at Gates. He will go back to Los Angeles later, to complete his work as mining expert.
Misses Minnie Scott and Georgie Blevens, returned from Tangent.
Hugh Cummings, of the Union Stock Co., arrived from Halsey.

Robert Sims, of Marcola, arrived with a fine bear head and skin, which he wishes to sell for $30. It was killed by him several months ago near Marcola, an extra specimen of the rulers of the mts.

The White Sister.

Plays dramatized from popular novels seldom achieve any great or lasting success, chiefly from the reason that there is usually so much incident of interest in the book that cannot possibly be compressed in a play. A notable exception to this fact is Viola Allen's greatest success "The White Sister," which the fascinating actress Jeanne Towler, supported by a capable company, will present at Albany next Friday. This dramatization was taken from F. Marion Crawford's novel of the same name and nothing has been lost in its transfer to the stage. The dramatists have adhered closely to the story.

Some U. O. Items.

Eugene, March 17.—
Two interesting games of basket ball were played, resulting in the girls of the freshmen class beating both the juniors and seniors. Gerty Taylor and Elsie Bain were guards for the freshmen and Melissa Martin, of this city, was a guard for the seniors.
The U. O. basket ball team is champion of the N. W., having won eight games out of 10, while the U. A. C. won 7 out of 9, and W. U. 7 out of 11.

An Auto Record at Portland.

W. T. and W. J. Edwards, of Portland, run a Ford automobile 7 days without stopping, making the rounds of a certain course 797 times, traveling 2301 miles, an average of about 14 miles an hour. This is said to be the record. It took 109 gallons of gasoline, showing 21 miles to the gallon. It is up to the other makes to beat it.

Took Carbohc Acid.

Mrs. Anna Vaughn, of Jefferson last Saturday by mistake took some carbohc acid, and had a close call to death. Drs. W. B. Morse and Roy D. Byrd, of Salem, were sent for and assisted Dr. Pemberty, of J. H. Mason. After a critical time it of Mrs. Vaughn is improving, with prospects of recovery.

BIG DEAL

Chas. Pfeiffer Buys Young Brick and Will Move it to Chinatown.

Saturday evening Chas. Pfeiffer closed a deal for the fine brick block, completed by S. E. Young & Son, as a department store. It will be moved by Mr. Pfeiffer to the corner of Lyon and Second street, the first brick building to be moved to the present site of Chinatown. It is one of the best constructed bricks in the city, and an expert from Portland declares it will move all right, and the price is said to have been agreed upon. R. D. Moody, of Portland, the leading building mover of that city, will do the work.
Mr. Pfeiffer will excavate for a full concrete basement, and will remodel the entire building, making it one of the best as well as handsome structures in the city, and with his long experience knows how to do it.
The first floor will be for business houses, while the second floor, with its truss roof and many windows, will make one of the finest lodge rooms in the state.
The new location is a good one for any kind of business.
Mr. Pfeiffer is the owner of some of the best property on First street, but he predicts the time is not far distant when Second street property will be equally valuable.
Mr. Pfeiffer has done much to help build up Albany, and this move goes to show his confidence in the future of Albany, which he continues to declare is the favored location in the valley, and with the coming of the O. E., he says, "watch Albany grow and grow. Albany's day is at hand."
Mr. Pfeiffer has also been strong in favor of street paving, though it has struck him in every hand, several thousand dollars in all, money well spent, he declares.
Another thing, he wants our people to pull together and do something, instead of waiting for others. Now is the time for action, not sit on boxes, whitring sticks and chewing rags.
Mr. Pfeiffer in telling of the improvement remarked that Albany is destined to be the second largest city in the state. "We have been a little slow," he said, "but it is a long lane that has no turn, and our turn is coming."

Mr. Pfeiffer arrived last night from Portland on a couple week's visit at the home of E. E. Warford.
H. N. Cockerline went to Eugene this afternoon to pay A. E. Wheeler $1000 just maturing in the N. W.
C. W. Tebault left last evening on a business trip to Los Angeles, and then over into Arizona.
Mrs. Stevens, of Gervais, arrived this noon, called here by the illness of her sister, Mrs. Jos. Goshong.
Mr. Maxwell, brother of Mrs. W. H. Curry, and Mrs. Bell, here from the east, were the guests of the Currys today.
The Benton county jury list shows over half, eighteen in all, from Corvallis. North Albany has one, T. J. Risley.
A sky rocket set of this morning at Second and Ferry streets, made a bee line for Martin Ludwig's window, going through.
Miss Irene Flynn, one of Portland's leading vocalists, arrived last evening on a visit with her brother, J. R. Flynn and family.
About 25 were killed yesterday in an explosion of a locomotive at San Antonio, Texas. A round house and car shops were wrecked.
A canvas shows that Woodrow Wilson is in the lead for the nomination on the democratic ticket, while Taft is ahead on the republican ticket.
Superintendent Campbell, of the S. P., and party, were in the city today looking over the field here, seeing the Hub and its improvements.
W. W. Rowell has taken charge of the Scott Hotel, at Dallas, said to be the best there, and will hereafter make that place his home, moving up from Portland.
J. D. Bowers, a school clerk, charged with absconding with $300 from district 40 Jackson county, was arrested at Harrisburg last Saturday, running a store in that city.
W. H. Marshall has returned to his former business, commercial travelling, and is in the city today for the Johns Manville Co., dealers in asbestos goods, electrical supplies, etc.
Miss Evelyn Marshall, who she visited at her former home several months, getting some real winter, and as well on her way home, being three or four days late.
Ladies Home Journal and Saturday Evening Post will both be out tomorrow. Get them of Riley Lobaugh. Good numbers. Over a hundred pages in the Journal. He is also taking subscriptions for the Country Gentleman.
Lewis' on, Idaho, sent a train load of 223 people down to Portland to attend the stock show beginning yesterday, among the crowd being Wallace R. Struble, manager of the commercial club there, formerly of this city.
About two hundred new volumes were received at the Albany Public Library on Saturday. On Monday afternoon the adult fiction was in circulation. The new children's books will be ready Wednesday afternoon.
A notable event in Corvallis was a surprise party on John Goodwin, in honor of his 73rd birthday, run by his son, Jos. Yates, 78 years and 17 days old. Among the distinguished speakers were: Dr. Boll, Judge McFadden, Prof. Horner and Dr. Cathay.
Hon. M. A. Miller returned this noon from Portland. He is making a good fight for the nomination for U. S. senator, backed by a splendid record in the state legislature in the interest of the people. That ought to count if people really want a representative.
Dr. Lowe, the well known optician and optometrist, who is to be at Revere house next Friday and Saturday has been coming to Albany almost 20 years. Think of visiting a town almost 100 times. He can come back whether Teddy can or not. There is a reason.
Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Gibson, of Redwood Falls, Minn., are in the city the guests of old friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. Knapp. They are much pleased with Albany and may decide to locate here.
The Dr. and Mrs. Gibson are among Redwood's best citizens and Albany people will be glad to have them become permanent citizens.

DROWNED IN MILK CREEK.

A Hobo Found Dead. Was It Suicide or Accident?

One of the Goins' boys and some others, yesterday about 3 p. m., while walking near the Jewish cemetery found the body of a hobo lying on his side in Milk Creek, not far from Hoboville. Coroner Fortmiller was notified and went down and brought the body to his undertaking parlors, where it was taken care of. Indications were it had been in the creek over night. There were no marks of violence or bruises of consequence, and an inquest was not thought necessary.
The face was that of a typical hobo, and easily recognized as that of a man who had been at the hobo camp for a couple of weeks, frequently up street. Saturday he had been driven out of town, and declared he didn't know what to do or where to go. He was again seen down in the east end about 4 o'clock.
Whether he committed suicide or it was an accident, is speculation. All he had on his person were a jackknife, some keys, including a skeleton, and a broken small looking glass. Not a paper of any kind.

OR. FIRST RETURNED.

The Oregon Fly train this noon passed through Albany on its way back from San Francisco. George M. Hyland, chairman, was in charge of the party.
Among the prominent men on board was E. B. Piper, managing editor of the Oregonian, brother of Mrs. E. D. Cusick, of this city. He reported a great time, splendid treatment from the arrival of the train until its departure, beyond the expectations of the large party. There were banquets, feasts and side excursions at every turn, and all San Francisco seemed interested in the Oregonians.
Gov. West waited for the next train, and will go north later in the day.

The Mill City Ex.

The indications are for good weather and the Mill City excursion will take place as advertised.
Phone Manager Stewart at once if going.

TUESDAY.

Pendleton Man in town.

Mr. Carl Power, of Pendleton, arrived last night on a short trip here and at Lebanon, both his former homes. He has charge of a line of the famous Pendleton blankets, which he is placing while on the trip. There is said to be a greater attraction here than business. Mr. Power reports arrangements begun for another big round-up next fall, the best yet, in some respects the greatest outdoor event of the Northwest, and the greatest round-up show in the world.

Business Change.

The Klock Produce Co., successor to the Albany Butter and Produce Co., has bought the business of the Albany Cash Produce Co., and G. J. Cook of the latter has been made manager of the Klock's, combining both businesses, butter and ice cream making, eggs and produce dealing.

OUR MADE IN LINN SHOW.

The coming manufacturers' exposition at this city, is developing the fact that Albany alone will have the goods for a big and very interesting display. Here are some of the things that will be seen: 70 different kinds of furniture by the Union Furniture Factory.
Many kinds of chairs by Veal & Son. Boxes and perhaps furniture by the Rorer factory.
Displays by the two planing mills and lumber mills.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Judge Victor P. Moses, of Benton county, went to Salem, with his list of names on his petition for delegate to the national democratic convention at Baltimore, over 800 in all. Linn county will take pleasure in giving him a big vote. He will also go to Portland, talking with him the Corvado boy, who has lived for some time at the Bainwater home in North Albany, sent to the boys and girls home of Portland.
Hugh Fisher and E. C. Roberts left on the 4:18 train for Marlin, in Southern Oregon, to look after the orchard of Fred Fisher, U. S. consul to Manchuria, putting it in shape for the coming season.

The White Sister Friday.

The three greatest and most successful church or religious plays of the past twenty years are "The Christian," "The Rosary," and "The White Sister," and of the three the largest individual money maker is Viola Allen's latest success "The White Sister" in which Miss Jennie Taylor is announced to appear at Albany next Friday night. Although "The White Sister" has a religious setting and uplifting theme it is not essentially a religious play but partakes more of the nature and spirit of the romantic.

COMMERCIAL CLUBS WEEKLY MEETING.

The regular meeting of the Albany Commercial Club was held with the following present: President Eastburn, Manager Stewart, Treasurer Bain, and Directors French, Stewart, Crowell, Winn Marvin, Hammer, Nutting, A. C. Schmitt, Fortmiller.

Communications were read: From Senator Chamberlain in reference to P. O.
From Congressman Hawley in reference to O. C. & R. R. deeds to innocent purchasers.
From Lebanon Commercial Club in reference to securing Clear Lake for a national park, and protesting against the water being used for irrigation schemes.

A motion was unanimously carried providing that the Albany Commercial Club cooperate in every way possible with the Lebanon Club in the movement.
From the Medford Traffic Bureau in reference to the freight initiative being inaugurated by that club.
From E. Hofer in reference to the made in Oregon Exposition to be held in April, asking for privilege of outside exhibits not in competition. Referred to manufacturers committee.

C. W. Tebault tendered his resignation as vice-president and member of the club. Referred to committee on membership.

Mr. Hammer of the manufacturers committee, reported excellent prospect of a fine exposition of Linn county made products, favoring confining it to this county, followed by Judge Stewart. All matters in reference to the exhibit was left to the committee.

The Mill City excursion committee reported 70 or 80 pledges, to go. Train will leave at 8 a. m. and return by 6 p. m. It is desired to have 150 if possible, on the excursion.

Mr. Crowell reported Mr. T. E. Andrews, a newspaper man from the east, arriving on the S. F. excursion, and missing Albany people on the trip. He likes Albany and suggests more yelting.

Mr. Eastburn reported a 20 per cent reduction on jobbing freight rates out of Eugene, not enjoyed here. Why?
D. W. Kumbaugh, as chairman of committee of Apple Growers Association asked co-operation of commercial club, and a committee of three was ordered appointed.

There are said to be 6000 acres of orchard as a result of the apple far at Albany, Manager Stewart reported the co-operation of other county clubs was suggested.
