POPULAR PRICE MILLINERY THE GAGE KIND

The next three days will be one grand rush in our Millinery Department. This week we received a new lot of Gage shapes and sailors, the character of which you will admit when we tell you they are from Gage.

We don't believe in knocking. Every knock's a boost. We're too busy selling Hats of a class and kind only made possible by the use of Gage shapes and novelty trimmings, the kind and price that seems to take in Albany as we are getting business as never before. Visit the Department and see!

Buy by Comparison

We leave it to you, if you do not find our price is less, style and quality considered.—We want you to tell us about it.

DREAMLAND

VAUDEVILLE TONIGHT

1. The Poor Relation.—This is a modern Cinderella story, not a fairy tale, but the realism of today with a moral that turns the laugh on the too ambitious and selfish. A fine Lubin.

2. A Timely Rescue.—A story of the far East by the Vitagraph Co., portrayed in their excellent style with close attention to details. A very fine and intensely interesting drama.

3. The Misses Lee and Rutli.—Singers and dancers, singing late and popular songs.

4. The Gorge of the De Rupp.—A beautiful scenic film of the north of France.

5. Over the Precipice.—A thrilling western story full of action, pretty scenes and an exceedingly interesting plot.

6. The Grip Snatcher.—An episode in the life of Jimmie, the grip snatcher, a laugh from beginning to end, produced by the Essany Co.

7. Cahler and Wadsworth in special music.

Next Monday—"Vitagraph Night." Admission 10 cents.
