THURSDAY.

RUN OVER BY AN AUTOMOBILE.

Albany's first automobile accident of any consequence occurred this forenoon, and this is probably not serious.
Judd Ross, mail carrier, was on his way from the depot to the post office, and was running slowly along First street, near the McIlwain Block, when Francis Rorer, the seven year old son of J. J. Rorer, suddenly rushed out to cross the street, not seeing the auto, and went directly in front of the machine, Mr. Ross not seeing him until time, was knocked down and under the auto, it is thought the hind wheel going over him; though Dr. Ellis, who attended him, was unable to find any marks on his body. There was a cut in his forehead, which took two or three stitches. Mr. Ross was entirely blameless in the matter, as seen.

U. P. Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the United Presbyterian church was held last night.
The reports showed a total expenditure during the year $4567.98, being $3246.08 on general expenses, and $1321.90 for missions. Regular expense account was $2679.25. The present membership is 211.

Nutting president, C. H. Stewart secretary, I. E. Blain treasurer, O. E.
Sax, P. A. Young, J. C. Irvine, R. E.
Crawford and H. J. Jones trustees; J.
C. Irvine chorister; W. H. Gaston chorister prayermeeting; L. E. Hamilton superintendent of the S. S. C. E.
Sax assistant, F. P. Nutting secretary, Hattie Hamilton assistant, Mrs. Gaff treasurer, Miss Rhoda Stalnaker organist; Mrs. McCullough superintendent home department, Mrs. Marvin of the juniors, Mrs. Blain of the primaries.

N. D. Pratt left this noon on a westside trip.
Chester A. Moores, of Eugene, has been in the city.

M. A. Rickard, a leading Corvallis man, was in town.

Roosevelt spoke at Louisville, Ky., yesterday, declaring that Taft is not a progressive.

M. J. Beezer left last night on a trip to Medford. He will be back before returning to Seattle.

The damage by the immense flood in the Mississippi valley has reached millions, causing alarm.

San Diego, Calif., has barred all I.
W. W., the great disturbers, from their streets, a menace to peace.

Portland lost again yesterday, 5 to 7.
Sac beat Vern, and Oak. S. F. Portland has started at the bottom.

W. M. Hornbrook, a former Twin Falls newspaper man, has been in the city while on a trip through the valley.

Walter Patterson, the taxidermist, of Corvallis, formerly of Lebanon, was recently married in Missouri, at his former home town.

Geo. Ham, a bank wrecker, yesterday at Mexico City was sentenced to the penitentiary for twelve years. That ought to cure him.

Centralia has a commission form of government. Where formerly the engineering bill was $400 a month it is now about $20.

Eugene Chafin, the temperance orator, went to Harrisburg this afternoon.
Tomorrow he will have another meeting with Burke, this one at Eugene.

T. J. Kaniff, the popcorn man, will be out with his wagon again tomorrow, freshly painted. He appreciates the excellent patronage of the past and will be glad to see his many customers again.

A. M. Hammer, chairman of the manufacturing committee of the commercial club was at Lebanon last evening in the interest of the coming fair. The commercial club there will take it up, and arrange for an exhibit here.

Jas. McCartney, who died at Portland, was buried yesterday at that city.
He was 81 years of age. He was born in Indiana and came to Oregon in 1851. He resided near Halsey until nearly twenty years ago when he moved to Portland.

The Young Ladies Missionary Society of the Christian church last evening held an interesting meeting. Several good papers were read, there were songs and duets, and the company came down street and enjoyed an excellent program of refreshments.

The Knights Templars will hold special Easter Services at the M. E. church on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock, when Rev. Leech, a Knight Templar, will preach the sermon. Corvallis Knights Templars will attend in a body, coming over on a special train.

The O. E. will build its freight depot first, down on Water street, at Thurston, followed by the passenger depot at Lyon and Fifth street. There are many guesses about the time when they will be needed. Rail laying is in progress this side of Salem the machine now being in operation.

The new east end boosters club has elected J. H. Goins president, J. W.
Hammel vice president, C. E. Scott secretary and G. M. Missall treasurer.
One of the wants there is a place for a horse cart and chemical engine, and the council will be asked to furnish one.

C. P. Rodgers, the aviator who flew from the Atlantic to the Pacific, yesterday had his last fly. He fell into the ocean at Long Beach and his neck and back were broken by the engine. He was showing off by diving among the sea gulls, playing with death and it came.

Here is the straight of it. Mr.
Kruttschnitt wrote to President Sprule a letter complimentary of the good record of the S. P. in reference to absence of accidents, and circular letters were sent to all employees covering the compliments.

Register:—The report, which has gained general circulation, to the effect that the Portland, Eugene & Eastern Railway company is affiliated with the Southern Pacific company is entirely without foundations in fact, the S. P. has not one dollar invested in the enterprise.

DEATH OF PIONEER OF '47

Was in Portland When There Were only two Houses

Edward Roland Abbott was born in Nashville, Cumberland County, Tennessee on January 1st, 1827, died at his home at Scio, March 31st, 1912, at the age of 85 years and 3 months. From Tennessee he moved to Indiana, Indiana to Illinois and crossed the plains in 1847 with an ox team, arriving in Portland when there were but two houses. In the spring of 1849 he drove an ox team for the U. S. Government to Fort Hall; in the winter of 1849 he run a boat between Portland and Oregon City, then moved near Albany in 1850. In the years of 1851 and 1855 he was in the gold fields of Eureka, California and Southern Oregon. He resided in Linn County for 52 years, except 4 years in Jackson County and in Oregon 64 years. Was married to Sarah Jane Striethoff in Linn county on October 14th, 1851. Eleven children were born, five girls and six boys.
There are surviving Sarah Jane Abbott of Scio, Oregon, and five children, William and James Abbott of Scio, Mrs. Florence Caldwell of Jefferson, Mrs. Jennie McClure of Sweet Home and Ira M. Abbott of Myrtle Point. He was a member of the Presbyterian church.

The funeral was held from the home of his son, William Abbott and conducted by Rev. McLain of Scio.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

W. A. Ledbetter went up to Mill City on tree business. A good deal of interest is being taken up that way.
Several prune orchards have been started. The foot hills are well adapted to fruit of all kinds. Just now the best sellers are prunes, walnuts and cherries. The last year has been one of great progress in fruit culture.

Harold Dalsell, in charge of the work among boys, in the Y.M.C.A. of Oregon and Idaho, going from Ashland to Pocatello, returned to Portland from Lebanon, where the boys are organizing under favorable conditions, an adjunct to the work of the S. S.

An old lady after doing the town begging, under the representation that she was getting money to get to the old woman's home at Salem, left for the West Side. She is said to make several dollars a day at the trade.

W. A. Bodine, the expert grafter, went down to Millers, where he will look after the orchard of S. N. Steele, of Portland. Mr. Bodine grafts and prunes trees, and is busy these days.

W. C. Morgan returned from a night at Leblon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Gilbert returned to Portland after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Bussard and Judge and Mrs. Duncan.

Hon. M. A. Miller went to Salem to see his daughter and grandchild.

W. P. Smith and W. W. Pollak were among commercial men leaving.

A family arrived from Minn., the man about bent double with rheumatism. He said he felt better already and believes the change is going to do him good. They had a hard winter of it, snow and cold more than usual.

Ramp Spoke.

Floyd Ramp and W. A. Diebold, the socialists, spoke last evening on First street quite a number hearing them.
The affair was a very peaceable one.
At Corvallis it was evidently different. The G. T. altogether devoted our columns to the visit of the young methods. The G. T. sums it up like this:

Ramp is a young man of considerable nerve, but a little discretion or judgment. He has a ready tongue and is capable of making a fair address. Had he chosen to speak only of the principle of Socialism he would have met with a proper hearing on the streets Monday evening. Egg throwing can never be countenanced by civilized people, and this must be condemned. Such is even an outrage of justice and decency. On the other hand, officials have discretionary power and may properly arrest any speaker saying anything calculated to arouse the public to unlawful action. Socialist speakers who desire to appeal to the intelligence and reason of their auditors will ever have a respectful hearing on Corvallis streets or in public building, and will not need police protection.

Bitulithic Proves Satisfactory.

Ten years of heavy wear has failed to make an impression on the bitulithic paving laid at Rome, N. Y. by Warren Brothers. This paving has had no repairs in that time, and shows not single crack, though the concrete pavements have been often repaired and the brick pavements relaid during that time, according to a dispatch from that city to the Utica Press.

The Poultry Demonstration.

The Southern Pacific's poultry demonstration car, in charge of O. A. C. experts, will be in Albany all day next Saturday, the beginning of a 34 day trip. Returning from Southern Oregon it will be in Albany the evening of the 19th, going to Lebanon in the morning.
There will be a lecture on poultry demonstration specially for children, there one for the public generally on poultry feeding, followed by demonstration and inspection of the car, completely equipped, with some fine fowls and poultry devices.

Mr. Ramp Explains.

Editor Democrat:
Another long article appears in the Gazette Times in regard to my meeting there. The Corvallis papers have denied me their columns in which to answer, but the "Democrat Man" has been so liberal in giving me space.

I wish to say however, that I have spoken in practically every town in the state and have never been treated worse than in Corvallis and never treated any better anywhere than in Albany.

One instance happened which I thought might have been done on purpose, but I learned after that I was mistaken. I announced that I would read a poem written by Wilson Blain, which I think very good, indeed, and just as I began to read the large electric light in front of the picture show, which furnished me the light, went out and I thought that probably it had been done on purpose; but I was very glad when Mr. Rolfe came to me and told me differently. Mr. Rolfe was very square in coming to me and letting me know that the light was damaged. He invited us to attend the theatre which I enjoyed very much. I saw there a picture illustrating what can be done with a man who is considered a hopeless criminal by giving him a favorable environment in which to live. It was a joy to see one of the very ideas which I was advocating on the street, worked out in a measure on the screen.

The picture show can be made the source of a great deal of good if properly conducted and I hope that such will be its mission.

Mr. Rolfe had nothing whatever to do with the writing of this article, I only wrote it in justice to him and to clear up any impressions which you may have in regard to what I said on the street.

FLOYD C. RAMP.

Ten Years of Age.

The Portland Journal last evening issued a tenth anniversary number. It is a splendid specimen of the modern newspaper. In ten years the Journal has grown into a great periodical. It began when it was needed, and actually filled a want. Not that Portland did not have a couple good papers, but that it had none like the Journal, representative of the people.

Died.

William Meyer died last evening at the home of Peter Ruetner, where he has resided for some time. He has resided in Oregon a number of years, and is well spoken of. He had never been married.

The funeral will take place at the Lutheran church at 10 a.m. Saturday.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 60 37.
The river is 4.2 feet.
Rainfall .36 inch.
Prediction: fair tonight and Friday, light frost tonight.

FRIDAY.

Maggie Stevens returned this noon from her school work in Portland.
L. H. Fish and Mr. Gipe this noon returned from a land trip to Lincoln county.
Miss J. H. Yantis arrived this noon from Summit, for a visit with her daughter, Mrs. W. A. McCullough.

Carson Bigbee, captain of the Colts, went to Eugene this afternoon to arrange for the game Sunday with Eugene.

Rev. John Acheson, of Portland, arrived last night, called here by the dangerous illness of his father, gradually falling.

Scott Hart and Murry Marvin this noon passed through the city for Corvallis, where they will work with a surveying crew on the extension of the west side road to Eugene.

O. L. Tucker is here from Woonsock, Dak., looking at the country. His son, Golden, an Albany carpenter, has been here three years, and his good reports of the country have brought his father.

Jack Hammell has the contract for the brick work on the new Hess building, at Lyon and Third streets. Last year was a busy one for him and he expects another one this season. Several bricks speak for his workmanship.

SUDDEN DEATH. WON FAIRLY.

Mrs. Mary F. Rhoades was found dead in bed this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. W. Myers, dying during the night, after being ill for some time.

She was born March 7, 1838 in Illinois, and came here about 40 years ago. Mr.
Rhoades died about twenty years ago.
She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Myers, of this city, and Mrs. Phoebe Wood, of Siletz, at whose home Mr. Rhoades is now visiting, and a step son T. H. Rhoades, of this city. She was a member of the Christian church, a nurse by profession and a woman of sterling character.

The funeral will be announced after hearing from the daughter at Siletz.

Ed Hogue Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hogue and daughter arrived last night from Chicago, where Mr. Hogue has been on the American for a year or two. He was also in the publicity department of the recent big clay exposition. He has been transferred to Hearst's newspaper at Los
