

was paid at a banquet to Henry Clay, in New Orleans in 1842. Mighty costly for those with stomach trouble or indigestion. Today people everywhere use Dr. King's New Life Pills for these troubles as well as liver, kidney and bowel disorders. Easy, safe, sure. Out at Fred Dawson.

FOR ASSESSOR.

I wish to announce myself a candidate for the Republican nomination for County Assessor. I have had nine years' experience in the Assessor's office which I believe has thoroughly qualified me to take up this important work.

E. L. FISHER.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been by the County Court of Linn county, Oregon, duly appointed executor of the last will and testament of Mathew Ahleson, late of said county, deceased. All persons having claims against the estate of said deceased are hereby required to present the same, with the proper vouchers, to the undersigned, at the office of Hewitt & Sox, in the City of Albany, Oregon, within six months from the date of this notice.

Dated April 12, 1912. I. R. ACHESON, Executor. HEWITT & SOX, Attorneys for Executor.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Linn, Department No. 2. Mary A. Booth, Plaintiff, vs. John W. Booth, Defendant. To John W. Booth, the above named defendant:

In the Name of the State of Oregon, You are hereby notified and required to be and appear in said court in said suit, and answer the complaint of the plaintiff on file therein, on or before the 11th day of May, 1912, and you are hereby further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint as aforesaid, for want thereof, the plaintiff will take a Decree against you for the relief prayed for in said complaint, to-wit:

A Decree of said Court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between you and said plaintiff.

This summons is served upon you by publication for six consecutive weeks prior to the said 11th day of May, 1912, in the Albany Democrat, a newspaper published in the City of Albany, Linn county, Oregon, and of general circulation weekly in said county, by order of the Honorable J. N. Duncan, judge of the County Court of Linn county, Oregon, which said order was made on the 23rd day of March, 1912. And the said County Judge, in said order for publication of this summons upon you, has prescribed said 11th day of May, 1912, as the time on or before which you shall appear and answer the said complaint in said suit.

The date of the first publication of this summons in this said newspaper is March 29th, 1912.

WM. S. RISLEY, Attorney for Plaintiff.

CITATION.

In the County Court of Linn County, Oregon. In the matter of Anna Dunn, deceased.

To Alexander Dunn, Margaret J. Parsons, Alice M. Rogers, Maud A. Rogers, Ella Hand, George Hand, Lida Hand, Grace Hand, Sarah A. Pierce, William Dunn, Lizzie Morgan, Marcus Dunn and all other persons interested in said estate:

Whereas, application having been made in due form to the above-named court on the 1st day of March, 1912, by Marcus Dunn, administrator of said estate, for an order and license directing, authorizing and empowering him to sell the Real Estate belonging to the estate of said decedent, and described as follows, to-wit:

Lots numbered Forty-one (41), Forty-two (42), Forty-three (43), and Forty-four (44) in Block Twelve (12), in Bryant's Addition to the city of Albany, in Linn county, Oregon.

And whereas, said court fixed on the 22nd day of April, 1912, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the court room of this court in the court house in Linn county, state of Oregon, as the time and place for hearing any and all objections to said Petition and the granting of said order and license of sale.

Therefore, in the name of the State of Oregon, You and each of you are hereby cited, directed and required to be and appear at said time and place then and there to show cause, if any you have or if any exist, why an order of sale should not be made, as in the Petition prayed for, and why said Petition should not be granted and said order and license should not issue.

Witness, The Hon. J. N. Duncan, Judge of said court with the seal of said court affixed this 1st day of March, A. D. 1912. (L. S.) W. L. MARKS, Clerk.

By R. M. RUSSELL, Deputy. C. C. BRYANT, Attorney.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed by the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Linn County, administrator of the estate of Anna Dunn, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same to me properly verified as by law required, at my residence in Albany, Oregon, within six months from the date hereof.

First publication February 16, 1912. Last, March 15, 1912.

MARCUS DUNN, Administrator. C. C. BRYANT, Attorney.

LAFOLLETTE IN ALBANY.

Senator Lafollette, of Wis., the only real progressive for president on the republican ticket, arrived this afternoon about 2:35 and began speaking to an army full of people as soon as an auto could get him to the armory, paying his respects to both President Taft, always omitted by the Oregonian, and Roosevelt, the man with the Club, giving the position plainly of the progressives, seeking a government in the interest of the people.

Charles Ohing and

Irvine Ahleson, who won the debate at North Bend, and Professor Marquam, arrived home last evening, coming out on the Breakwater, and report fine treatment and an interesting time. The debate was a big event there, witnessed by a large crowd.

The judges were Prof. Johnson of the U. O., Rev. H. I. Rutledge and D. C. Green, formerly manager of the Oregon Power Co. here.

A local paper before hand said the North Bend team, a good one, stood a good show to win and little to lose. But they lost unanimously.

The Albany team will now debate Klamath Falls, at this city, on May 3. The winner will then debate The Dalles for the championship of the state.

J. Fred Yates, of Corvallis, was in town today.

The Mason house party returned this noon from the Bay.

Taft has Roosevelt going for the nomination 347 to 174.

The weather prediction is: fair tonight and Tuesday, with light frost tonight.

Francis Albino, the pianist, lost the end of a finger through a razor accident.

Mrs. Cecil Rampey Wilhelm, of Harrisburg, was an Albany visitor yesterday.

Miss Mattie Swan, a former Albany teacher, was in the city yesterday visiting friends.

A fire alarm Saturday evening from box 37 was a mystery, probably put in without cause.

The Home Phone people report a pleasant ride and picnic party at Waterloo yesterday.

Miss L. Mathew, the milliner, went to attend the mid-summer millinery opening, and get all the new ideas going in millinery.

The Young Men's Base Ball Club defeated Tangent Saturday 11 to 3 in a good game. Next Sunday they will play a Scio boy's club.

Bill Schmitt and his best girl, of Portland, were in the city this noon on their way home from a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Prof. Sam Doan of Corvallis.

Mr. Carl Power, of Pendleton, was in the city again today to see if his shipment of Pendleton blankets was all right, also. He was down to Portland on auto business.

Elkins Bros. are arranging to open an electric supply store at 220 Lyon street the first day of May, with a full stock of fixtures, etc. They recently wired the St. Francis, experienced electricians.

Saturday Pennsylvania went for Roosevelt decisively, though Taft gets a few delegates, showing strong sentiment against the reelection of President Taft. The state also went strongly for Woodrow Wilson.

Oliver M. Hickey, a graduate of Albany College, is running for justice of peace at Portland, a big paying office there, with the following platform: Not on the slate; schooled by an active law practice; believes that justice should not be overruled by technicalities.

U. O. won the field meet at Portland Saturday with 25 points. Multnomah second, with 20 1/2, and O. A. C. third. The features were a mile by Hopkins, U. O. in 4:32 2/3 and a pole vault by Dallas, Multnomah, 12 ft. 1 1/2 inches.

WILSON WILL BE NOMINATED.

Washington, April 15.—Woodrow Wilson's sweeping victory in Penn., probably insuring him all of the 76 delegates, means his nomination, without a doubt. It was a great victory in the face of the fight by the special interests and machine politicians, with their triple alliance. Wilson now has 142, Clark 107, Gov. Marshall 39 and Harmon 3. The Wilson lead will increase.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Commissioner Butler and daughter Agnes, who is officiating as timekeeper, returned to Stayton, where work is being pushed on the new bridge, with 28 men now in the force, to be increased perhaps to forty.

Rev. W. P. White went to Portland to preach the funeral sermon of Rev. Norton, at the old folk's home, this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. B. R. Wallace left for Baraboo, Wis., her former home, and as well the home of the famous Ringlings, where she will visit with her folks several weeks.

Miss Helen Crawford arrived from Lebanon to hear the great La. Follotte. Mrs. John Neeley returned from Lebanon.

Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Stewart and youngest daughter of Lebanon, went to Portland for a few days' visit at the home of Fred Brandschagen. Mr. Stewart will also attend an electrical convention.

Claud Ellison went to Portland. Lawyer W. S. Risley went to Salem. Doug. Hamilton returned to Scio, full of moving pictures.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilson and daughter, of North Plains, left for home after a Corvallis visit.

J. R. Metzgar returned to his wagon at Jefferson.

Miss Gretchen Colvin, of Portland, returned home after a visit at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. George.

Judge Kelley went to Portland to hold court.

Dr. Withycombe, of the O. A. C., went to Portland.

F. M. Mitchell went up the C. & E., on candidacy business.

Miss Florence Ralston returned to her school in the country.

J. B. Dickover returned to Portland after a visit with his son.

Miss Carolin Cannon left for home after a visit at the home of her grandfather, D. P. Mason.

Funeral of Chas. Keifer.

A large number attended the funeral of Chas. Keifer yesterday, at the family home at Water and Main streets. The services were conducted by the Odd Fellows, of which Mr. Keifer had been a member 43 years. Hon. J. K. Weatherford delivered the funeral oration, and C. W. Seers, J. W. Ellison, Henry Kirsch, Al Gordon, Andrew Johnson and John Reeves officiated as pall bearers.

All of the children of the deceased, Mrs. Harry Noel and Mrs. Stephen Riley of Portland, and Mrs. W. H. Warner of this city, and the step children, were present.

There was a beautiful display of flowers, which the deceased loved so much. The burial was in the family lot in the city cemetery.

Portland Hotel People.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Dickinson of Wright & Dickinson, proprietors of the Hotel Oregon, Portland, R. J. Linden, father of Mrs. Wright, and Miss Dickinson, spent Sunday the guests of the Hotel St. Francis, going to Corvallis this morning, accompanied by Miss Block on a short trip. They were greatly pleased with the hotel and the fine business being done, by the former clerk of the Hotel Oregon, and his partner. They had a Pope Hartford car, a good one.

May Robson's Success.

The extraordinary success of May Robson in depicting the humor and characteristics of eccentric old women, for which she is unequalled, encourage several writers to submit their plays, but those received were not adaptable to the requirements, therefore she determined to write down her views and ideas of the plot action and collaborate with some experienced dramatist. The result was entitled "A Night Out." At Albany next Friday night.

Was 11 Years Old.

At the pleasant home of Chas. Kroeschel Saturday afternoon, there was a birthday party in honor of the eleventh birthday of Viola Kroeschel, with seventeen girls present. They had a fine time in games, with tasty refreshments, and each little guest received a basket of confectionary upon leaving for home.

More Space Secured.

All of the floor space having been taken for some time, part of the exposition will be displayed elsewhere. The Ladies of the Christian Church will serve Boneless Chicken Pie Dinner in the basement of the church from 11 till 1:30 Friday April 19th. The chicken pie will be made in Albany and are sure to be first-class. 35c.

Card of Thanks.

Mrs. Chas. Keifer and children desire to express their heartfelt thanks for kindness and sympathy during the illness and after the death of their husband and father, and particularly to the Odd Fellows.

NO. 14. Born.

On Sunday, April 14, to Mr. and Mrs. Cook, of Denver street, a boy, their fourteenth child.

In Portland on April 10, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walling, formerly of this city, a girl. This makes Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kaufman, of this city, grandparents.

On Sunday, April 14, at the home of the grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Swank, to Mr. and Mrs. Victor Yates, a girl. All doing well.

The Civic Improvement Reception

The reception of the Civic Improvement Club Saturday afternoon and evening, at the home of Dr. Davis, was a fine affair, with a large attendance, about one hundred fifty. The refreshments were dainty and choice, nicely served by some fine young ladies.

During the evening the following program was presented, greatly appreciated:

Piano solo by Miss Nan Stewart. Vocal solo Yellow Roses, by Mrs. Nutting. Vocal solo Because God Gave Me Thine, Ina Hanson.

Vocal solo from Opera of Verde, by Mrs. Geselbracht. Piano solo by Mrs. C. H. Palmer, Scottish Poems. Piano solo by Miss Houck, Wedding Day.

Vocal Solo by Miss Blanche Hammell, Four Leaf Clover. Vocal solo by Mrs. Watson, Isle of Dreams.

The Club desire to express their thanks for the large attendance, those on the program and those helping to serve so well.

Fifty Years a Minister.

The Oregonian tells of the long ministry of the father of A. W. Bowersox of this city, as follows:

Rev. J. Bowersox, who was returned to the Oakley Green United Evangelical church, North East Side, today will enter on the duties of his 50th year as an active minister of that denomination.

Rev. Mr. Bowersox was given a license to preach in 1861 and received an appointment in 1863 in Pennsylvania in the Evangelical Association. He came to Oregon 42 years ago. He served the church of Salem longer than other charges, and was also pastor of the churches of Albany, Corvallis and also of Yamhill county. He was elected presiding elder in the Willamette valley.

When the split in the Evangelical Association came, Mr. Bowersox went with the United Evangelical branch, but is now an active advocate for organic union of the two branches. He has received a warm welcome back to the church he has served for five years.

Back to the R-form School.

Louie Daniels and Harold Rhoades, committed to the reform school in Dec. 1910, recently allowed to come home on parole during good behavior, were ordered sent back by Judge Duncan, and are again at the school.

Last week they robbed the store of Missal & Knapp of about $150 worth of things, and a few weeks ago the store of Miss Alexander of about $50 worth of things. The goods of Missal & Knapp were all found where they had been hidden. The boys confessed to the thefts. They will now be kept in the school until of age.

The boys also confessed to breaking into the house of the Albany Gun Club and destroying the shells.

An Obscene Young Man.

Upon instructions from Portland Sheriff Smith last evening arrested Frank Murphy wanted there on a sentence of six months in jail for using obscene language on the Home telephone. While here Manager Middleton of the Home Tel. Co., saw Murphy, and his arrest was secured. On representation that he would appeal the case, he was allowed some freedom and skipped here. Murphy was first captured upon the second or third offense by the girl in the office holding him in conversation while a policeman got the proper place.

A Pioneer of 1846.

W. W. Collins died near Suver, Polk county, Saturday evening at the age of 69 years, after residing there almost his entire life. He was born in Missouri March 2, 1843 and crossed the plains with his folks when three years of age, reaching Oregon in 1846, among the first settlers of the valley. He was a man of excellent character and good habits, a prosperous resident of his section.

He leaves a wife and two children, Mrs. Ed. F. Wiles, of this city, and Ralph Collins, of the home place. The funeral took place at 2 p. m. today.

Former Albany People.

Oregonian:—Since the return of Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Templeton from their European trip they have been the recipients of much attention in a social way. On Thursday evening they were honor guests at a dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Langdon in their beautiful new home in Irvington. On Wednesday they were guests of Mrs. H. W. Hogue at an informal reception, and again on Friday evening Captain and Mrs. James Gray entertained with a dinner party at their country home in honor of the Templetons.

Observed

The vitrified brick is now going down along the P.E. & E. track. It doesn't seem to fit very well, but when cemented in will probably be just the thing.

New potatoes have arrived, and like wise peas, from elsewhere.

The O. P. Co. has a force of men at work getting Seventh and Fourth streets ready for pavement, by getting their sidewalks down permanently. Then east Third and Fifth will be next.

Some new houses in all parts of the city, but nowhere near enough. A cry is heard here is good houses of five to seven rooms for rental.

In about two weeks the moval of the Young brick to the Pfeiffer corner will begin, and many are anxious to see how it is done.

An Assault Case.

Hale Gould, and the Chinese cook of the Revere had a small bout, yesterday afternoon on First, in which another young man figured, trying to part them, and the cook at the Revere also was interested. The case was tried before Justice Swan this afternoon.

The defendant was found guilty and fined $10.

Advertising 1915 Ex.

A big car was in the city yesterday, run by three men in uniform, covered with Panama exposition pennants and flaring letters. The men are on a trip over the United States advertising the exposition, going from here north to Portland and the Sound cities before going east.

H. R. Jones, of Salem, was in the city.

Geo. Campbell, of Corvallis, was in the city last evening.

Frank Davis, of Portland, a former Lebanon man, was in the city today.

13 new members were received into the M. E. church last Sunday by Rev. Leach.

Mr. Bob Chambers, of Eugene, is in the city on a visit with his mother and sisters.

Miss Crane, dean of women, of the O. A. C., arrived this noon on an Albany visit.

Fred Sloan was recently drowned while at work on a log drive above Lebanon.

Mrs. John Fisher went to Corvallis today, called there by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Smith.

OBSERVED

By the Man About Town,

The vitrified brick is now going down along the P.E. & E. track. It doesn't seem to fit very well, but when cemented in will probably be just the thing.

New potatoes have arrived, and like wise peas, from elsewhere.

The O. P. Co. has a force of men at work getting Seventh and Fourth streets ready for pavement, by getting their sidewalks down permanently. Then east Third and Fifth will be next.

Some new houses in all parts of the city, but nowhere near enough. A cry is heard here is good houses of five to seven rooms for rental.

In about two weeks the moval of the Young brick to the Pfeiffer corner will begin, and many are anxious to see how it is done.

An Assault Case.

Hale Gould, and the Chinese cook of the Revere had a small bout, yesterday afternoon on First, in which another young man figured, trying to part them, and the cook at the Revere also was interested. The case was tried before Justice Swan this afternoon.

The defendant was found guilty and fined $10.

Advertising 1915 Ex.

A big car was in the city yesterday, run by three men in uniform, covered with Panama exposition pennants and flaring letters. The men are on a trip over the United States advertising the exposition, going from here north to Portland and the Sound cities before going east.

H. R. Jones, of Salem, was in the city.

Geo. Campbell, of Corvallis, was in the city last evening.

Frank Davis, of Portland, a former Lebanon man, was in the city today.

13 new members were received into the M. E. church last Sunday by Rev. Leach.

Mr. Bob Chambers, of Eugene, is in the city on a visit with his mother and sisters.

Miss Crane, dean of women, of the O. A. C., arrived this noon on an Albany visit.

Fred Sloan was recently drowned while at work on a log drive above Lebanon.

Mrs. John Fisher went to Corvallis today, called there by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Smith.

A new story, The Jingo, will appear in the Saturday Evening Post tomorrow. See Riley Lobaugh about it.

Mrs. Keith arrived this noon from Summit, on a visit with her son, E. A. Keith of the Hamilton Store.

G. W. Kohrbrough has returned from Gates, where he spent Sunday and established a fine Sunday school.

Mrs. Price, a niece of Mrs. Snelling, and son, arrived this noon from Rickreall, Polk county, on an Albany visit.

Dr. Hill from the east is to speak in Albany tonight in the interest of President Taft, for whom he would die if necessary.

Rev. and Mrs. D. V. Poling, of The Dalles, spent last night in Albany, while on their way home from Corvallis. Former Albany people.

The address by Miss Rawlings, sister of U. G. Rawlings, at the Baptist church, on her six years experience as a missionary in China, is highly spoken of.

The new ball ground just south of the depot is nearly ready for use, a good one. A fine grand stand is being built by McGilvrey and the diamond will be a fine one.

L. R. Waters, with the J. I. Case Thrashing Co., and headquarters at Albany, came up last night in a new Case, a fine appearing machine, which he will use in his travels.

W. A. Cox, of Thomas, was in the city yesterday in the interest of his wool pile, which he wishes to sell to Albany people, a fine grade of fir.

J. V. Dixon, grand recorder of the A. O. U. W. of Oregon, is in the city, and will be here a few days in the interest of this pioneer and prosperous order.

J. W. Circle of near The Dalles, is in the city. He is a pioneer of Oregon, in early days residing in Linn county for a good many years. He sees a good many striking changes.

This body of Rev. Smith Norton, who recently died in Portland, and whose funeral sermon Rev. White preached yesterday, was cremated, and the ashes will be sent back to Churchville, N. Y., once his home.

W. A. Eastburn and part of family, returned last evening from an automobile trip to Portland, where they visited the Douglas family, at Arleta. The roads were in fine shape, and the trip was made easily and pleasantly.

The 55th anniversary of the Central Baptist Association will be celebrated at Lebanon this week beginning Wednesday. Rev. Elmore will deliver the annual sermon in opening, and Rev. Hinson, of Portland the closing sermon Friday night.

La Follotte ended a strenuous day last night, when he spoke to an immense crowd at Salem. In one day, he spoke at Eugene, Albany, Corvallis and Salem, made possible by the automobile and good roads. It was estimated his total audience for the day was 13,000.

The bids for paving submitted at Eugene are interesting. Asphalt varied from $1.00 to $1.81. Dolerite from $1.15 to $1.33. Portland cement from $1.15 to $1.25. T. H. Ellis, of Eugene bid $1.65 for concrete pavement. No 9c pavement in sight. The Warren Co. bid $2 for the crushed rock bitum.

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

The regular meeting of Commercial Club was held last night with the following present. Manager Stewart, Directors Van Winkle, elected chairman, Hammer, Stewart, Fortmiller, Shinn, French, Nutting.

The Rose Fair management asked Albany to have a float in the fair June 10 to 15. Referred to publicity committee.

A letter from President C. R. Grey, stated that the station called Farlow on the road in Syracuse precinct had been changed to Conser, as per request.

The manager was directed to take the matter of a station on the O. E. at Oakville up with Mr. Graywood, district engineer, endorsing the movement.

The times of illustrated lectures of L. D. Malone and Sam Hill was ordered changed, the latter to Tuesday night April 23, and the former to Monday night April 22.

The Portland Automobile Club asked about route over mountains. Referred to manager.

The International Dry Farming Congress at Lethbridge, Canada, asked for some hop vines, and the manager reported $2 worth sent.

A letter courteous from C. C. Chapman in reference to the coming business men's excursion to the O. A. C.

An invitation was ordered sent the State Grange to meet here in 1913, through Hon. C. L. Shaw.

Fred Lockley spoke in reference to a new advertising arrangement with a number of features, at $750 a year, much less than formerly. Referred to committee on publicity.

The manufacturing committee reported 34 spaces taken and only one left, with prospects of a fine exhibit, Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Geo. Rolfe, John Shultz, W. H. Warner, Ernest Howard, Ed. and Earl Fortmiller went to Portland to see the base ball season open, hoping Portland would win.

W. W. Crawford made his regular trip in from his country home. On the way he and another man counted 75 Chinese pheasants, 38 on one side and 37 on the other, indicating a good crop of Celestials.