

DR. W. R. SHINN,
Physician and Surgeon,
Graduate Rush Medical College.
Post-graduate New York City.
Fifteen years' experience.
Prompt attention to calls in the country, night or day.
Office, over Cusick's Bank. Residence, corner Lyon and Seventh streets. Both Phones.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Linn County.
J. B. Corrie, Plaintiff, vs. Mary L. Smith, Ella Bachman, and Ray Bachman, her husband, Emma D. Lingo and Ira Lingo, her husband, Lizzie E. Lyndon and Ora Lyndon, her husband, Minnie Leaman and Archie Leaman, her husband, Lee Ellon Beach and Clara Beach, his wife, Clyde A. Beach and Grace Beach, his wife, and Grace Beach, guardian of Clyde A. Beach, Defendants.
To Ella Bachman, Ray Bachman, Lizzie E. Lyndon and Ora Lyndon, of the defendants above named:

In the name of the State of Oregon: You and each of you are hereby summoned and required to appear and answer the complaint of the plaintiff in the above entitled suit now on file with the Clerk of the above entitled Court on or before the 10th day of February, 1912; and each of you are hereby notified that if you fail so to appear and answer said complaint as herein required for want thereof the plaintiff will apply to the above entitled Court for the relief demanded in his said complaint, namely, for a decree that the defendants may be required to set forth the nature of their claims in and to the following described lands, to-wit:

Lots numbered four and five of Section thirty-one in Township eleven south of range four west of the Willamette Meridian, Oregon, saving and excepting therefrom twenty acres as conveyed by deed from Fred G. Blumhart and wife to Sarah Foster Hockett as appears of record at page 91 of Volume 73 Deed Records in and for Linn County, Oregon, containing 34.64 acres, more or less.

And that all adverse claims of the said defendants may be determined by the said decree, that the defendants be declared and adjudged to have no claim or interest whatsoever in the said property and that the plaintiff have title thereto in fee simple; that the defendants be forever barred and enjoined from asserting any claim therein adverse to the plaintiff and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem proper.

This summons is published in the Albany Democrat newspaper once a week for six successive and consecutive weeks beginning with the issue of the 29th day of December, 1911, and ending with the issue of the 9th day of February, 1912, under and in pursuance of the directions contained in an order made by the Honorable J. N. Duncan, Judge of the County Court of Linn County, State of Oregon, dated December 15th, 1911.

REGISTRATION OF TITLE.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Linn County, Department No. 2.

In the matter of the application of Lee Miller, Plaintiff, to register the title to the following described property, to-wit: Beginning at a point in the center of a county road which is N. 12 1/2 degrees E. 13.04 chains distant from the N. E. corner of the D. L. C. of Anderson Cox, and wife, Not. No. 696, and Cl. No. 49, in Tp. 11 S. R. 3 W. Will. Mer. Or., running thence N. 18 degrees E. 5.05 chains; thence N. 3 1/2 degrees E. 11.69 chains; thence N. 8 degrees E. 3.34 chs.; thence W. 15.83 chs.; thence S. 14 1/2 degrees W. 20.52 chs. to a point west of the beginning; thence E. 18.39 chs. to beginning, containing 34.70 acres, more or less, in Linn County, Oregon,

All whom it may concern, Defendants. TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Take Notice, that on the 23rd day of December, A. D. 1911, an application was filed by Lee Miller, in the Circuit Court of Linn County, Oregon, for initial registration of the title to the lands above described. Now unless you appear on or before the 29th day of January, 1912, and show cause why such application shall not be granted, the same will be taken as confessed and a decree will be entered according to the prayer of the application, and you will be forever barred from disputing the same.

(L. S.) W. L. MARKS, Clerk.
L. M. CURL, Applicant's Attorney.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned Executor of the last will and testament of John Haley, has filed his Final Account with the County Clerk of Linn County, Oregon, and the County Court of said County has fixed Tuesday, the 30th day of January, 1912, at the hour of one o'clock P. M. as the time for objections to said account and the Final Settlement of said estate.

Dated December 21, 1911.
HARRY HALEY,
Executor.

EXECUTOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been by the County Court of Linn County, Oregon, appointed Executor of the last will and Testament and Estate of James Freeman, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same to the undersigned at the office of L. M. Curl, in Albany, Oregon, with proper vouchers therefor, within six months of the date hereof.

Dated this 1st day of February, 1912.
ALONZO S. FREEMAN,
L. M. CURL, Executor.
Attorney for Executor.

THURSDAY.

TAXES COLLECTED.

Inasmuch as the collection of over $440,000 of the county taxes, a fine showing, in view of the fact that a good many half payments have been made.

Died in Eugene Today.

A private dispatch from Eugene today tells of the death there of Mrs. John O'Brien, a former popular Albany lady. Particulars are not known. Mrs. O'Brien is a former member of the Pythian Sisters of this city, and has many friends here who will regret her death. She leaves a husband and daughter, Mrs. Gerty Stapleton, of Roseburg.

Married.

Judge Duncan today, officiated at a wedding of juveniles, two nice young people from Waterloo precinct, this side of Sweet Home. Victor Barr, aged 17, and Virgie Morris, aged 18, son and daughter of prominent old residents of that section.

D. Anderson, of Oregon City has been in town.

W. C. Withers, of Pendleton, was in the city.

The base ball season opened in the east today.

Bev. Baker, of Florence, left for home this noon.

W. G. Bessner and H. G. Lytle were here from Eugene.

V. S. Barr, of near Sweet Home, was in the city today.

Lawyer A. A. Tussing and J. C. Neal, of Brownsville, were in the city today.

Rev. and Mrs. McDougall, of Portland, will be up tonight for an Albany visit.

S. and E. Peters, of Portland, are visiting at the home of E. E. Warford.

John F. Troutman and family left Portland yesterday on an eastern trip.

Roosevelt has captured another one, Maine. He is making Bill take notice anyway.

J. S. Copeland, a prominent pioneer resident of Yaquina Bay, died yesterday at Toledo.

The ladies of the Baptist church will give a dinner in the church parlors on the 25th, circus day.

A license issued this week showed the marriage of a girl of 18 to be the second one in her life.

Yesterday the Mexican rebels executed an American, Thomas Fountain, for breaking a big gun.

Judge J. W. Hamilton, of Roseburg, spent last night in Albany while on his way to Corvallis to hold court.

J. W. Hobbs, of Eugene, a former special agent of the internal revenue department, was in the city today.

Fred Lockley representing the new Sunset, for many years with the Pacific, has been in the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hopkins, of Eugene, were in the city yesterday on their way to Newport for an outing.

Rolla Ralston arrived last night from the U. O. for the spring vacation to last until the 21st, and the others came today.

Plans have been completed for the new sewer system at Lebanon, a gravity system. The depth will be from 6 to 12 feet.

George W. Taylor, of Glendora, went to Portland yesterday, where he is receiving special electric treatment for his rheumatism.

Lloyd E. Williams, recorder of Clackamas county, has been missing for ten days, and is thought to have been drowned while fishing.

Congressman Lafferty yesterday announced that he will not return to Oregon for a personal fight. If he is licked he is licked. Great head.

Nineteen Roosevelt men met in Corvallis and scored the Oregonian to the limit for its distortion of Roosevelt news, declaring it to be one sided and unfair.

Supt. Jackson has returned from a trip to Southern Linn in the interest of the industrial fair, and reports several hundred school children preparing for the contest.

The grand council of the Royal and Select Masters of Oregon, yesterday, at Portland elected S. R. Mosher grand master. W. R. Bilyeu of this city was elected grand steward.

Rev. and Mrs. Geselbracht, Rev. and Mrs. Knotts, Wm. Fortmiller, Mrs. Flo, and Mrs. Pratt and others returned this noon from the meeting of the Presbytery at McMinnville, a good one.

The late George J. Pearce, of Salem, left property valued at $53,000, consisting of $46,000 personal property and $7000 in real estate. The property is all left to the widow and two daughters.

Today's express brought Chambers & McCune 5 dozen new Gage shapes in Milans, Hems and Chips, something new and different. You should see them to appreciate the exclusiveness of the styles.

Tomorrow will be arbor day in Oregon, one that deserves special consideration. Fine trees are a great thing for a city, as well as for those fortunate in having them in their yards, and we do well to make much of a day that is a booster for a community.

Corvallis G. T. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lilly were in Albany Monday to spend the day with friends. Mr. Lilly purchased a handsome driving horse of the Oregon Electric Co., while in the Hub City, to take the place of the valuable animal which he lost several weeks ago.

The Baptists have begun a campaign for $250,000 endowment for McMinnville College. The Presbyterians already have a campaign on for $250,000 for Albany College, and the Methodists are after $500,000 for Willamette, perhaps a million.

Ralph R. Earle, of N. Y. is in Portland getting material for the Pathe Weekly, and will remain until after the Elk's convention. He will accompany the excursion of the Business Men to Corvallis April 25, and here will be an opportunity for Albany people to get took.

THE PROGRAM FOR THE MFG. EX.

Practically all the space in the Armory is now taken up by exhibitors, and it is absolutely assured that the exhibitors of goods and articles made in Linn county will be one that none of us need be ashamed of.

The program will practically be about as follows:

The Exposition will open at 1:30 p. m. on Thursday April 18th, but there will be no addresses until evening.

There will then be ten or fifteen minute talks by the following persons:

Col. E. Hofer, of Salem, "The Made-in-Oregon Industries."

A. M. Hammer, of Albany, "Factories—What We Have—What We Want."

A. F. Miles, of Portland, "Existing Oregon Industries."

Chas. Cooney, of Portland, "New Industries for Linn County."

On Friday evening, April 19th, the subject will be "Industries and Education," with short talks as follows:

Prof. E. D. Reesler, Corvallis, "Industrial Education."

Prof. J. M. Powers, City School Supt., Salem, "Manual Training."

Dr. E. M. Sharp, of Albany, "Colleges and Industries."

On Saturday afternoon there will be a meeting of the fruit raisers and growers, which will be addressed by

O. Holt, Manager of the Eugene Fruit Association.

On Saturday evening the general subject will be "Industries and the Home," with short talks as follows:

Chas. Hueg, of Portland, "Oregon Manufacturers."

W. F. Scott, of Portland, "Factories and the Home."

L. Sammel, of Portland, "How the Home Can Help Industries."

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

Chief Engineer Wickersham and Right-of-way Daries, of the Oregon Electric, left on the early train, and Lawyer Harrison Allen on the 7:30 train, the latter going to Salem to try a right-of-way case, with a damage question up. Trains will be running to Albany by May 15, sure, said Mr. Allen. A fine depot will be built here, he said, at Lyon and Fifth, with temporary quarters until finished.

Commissioner Butler went up to Stayton again, and will be there a good deal now looking after the new bridge Marion and Linn are putting in.

Supervisor Macduff, of the forestry office, left for Detroit, to continue the good work he has been doing for conserving the interests of his boss, Uncle Sam, with his billions of feet of fine timber.

Henry Stoltenberg, Dr. Kavanaugh and Jas. Curran went to Portland on the early train.

Harry Shea was reported to have gotten off the train from Eugene arriving at 4:18.

Judge Hewitt went to Corvallis to look after business in the circuit court.

Lawyer Risley went down the road on campaign business.

Lawyer J. R. Wyatt returned to Portland after several days in Albany looking after interests here and legal business.

The Lena Rivers company left for Jefferson to play tonight.

Killed by an Elevator

Corvallis last evening had its first elevator fatality. Walter Corbett, a clerk in the Corvallis post office, attempted to jump into the elevator of the St. Julian Hotel as it was leaving the floor, missed it and was caught between the elevator and wall and crushed to death before the elevator could be stopped. He was a popular young man only 23 years of age.

The Albany post office men speak in high terms of young Corbett, one of the finest fellows they have known, and as many as can get away will attend the funeral in a body tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

C. H. Walker's Work in E. O.

The Deschutes Valley Tribune, of Culver, Crook County, contains a picture of Cyrus H. Walker and tells of the work he has been doing there in organizing granges, three in that part of the county, one at Culver, one at Lamonta and one at Grandview. No man in Oregon is doing greater work for the grange than Mr. Walker, and that means a big work for the farmer himself.

Millinery Notice.

Chambers & McCune announce the arrival of dozens of new "Gage" shapes in white, Imperial tan, black and burr colors. They are the prettiest, noblest and most reasonable styles for all women to wear shown this season—Don't fail to see the new Gage shapes, also the new French flowers, bands, laces and popular "tick ups." Visit our Millinery Dept. see the new styles "Gage" the best Millinery house of America.

Died.

Mrs. Hiram Young died yesterday at her home at 717 E. 4th. Her maiden name was Hattie Anderson, and she was born in Sweden Dec. 22 1852, coming to America in 1877, and to Oregon seven years ago from Burlington, Iowa. She was married to Mr. Young July 14, 1906.

The funeral will be tomorrow at 10 a. m. at the residence.

The Weather.

Range of temperature 60-37. The river is 4 feet.

Prediction: showers tonight and Friday.

MAY 15 E. O. TRAINS WILL RUN TO ALBANY.

But Franchise Extended to July 1.

The regular meeting of the city council was held last night with all officers and councilmen present.

Bills were allowed:

Or. Power Co., $381.50; Hammon Lumber Co., $41.96; Murphy, 95c; Hulbert-Olling Co., $5.78; Albany Sand and Gravel Co., $5.00; Albany Hardware Co., $7.92; Peter Riley, $15; H. Neely, $5.50; Mayberry & McKinney, $4.00; Albany Transfer Co., $2.00; Warren Co., $25; C. G. Rawlings, $39; Cameron $11; $1.90; F. K. Churchill, $3.50; Albany Stables, $1.50; T. S. Terrill, $18; F. E. Van Tassel, $155.05.

The bid of the Warren Construction Co. for paving 7th St., Calapooia to Jackson at $1.55 was ordered accepted, unanimously.

The reports of the recorder and treasurer for quarter, were read, showing:

Receipts, including $34,780.99 improvement bonds, $61,511.72.

Disbursements: $14,769.18. Balance, $16,752.57.

Paid city officers $1460.65; fire department $678.33; streets $181.20; sundries $3210.45.

Warrants outstanding, $81,267.89. Total, $214,048.88.

Bonds—$129,780.99.

Due city from property owners $63,241.37.

Net indebtedness, $133,495.11.

A wooden walk was ordered along block 17, Denver St, upon recommendation of the street superintendent.

The chief of police reported for the quarter: arrested for intoxication and convicted 41, runaway boys 3, tramps 81, meals furnished 134.

The Civic Improvement Club asked for cleanup day April 20, requesting that all garbage be placed at S. W. corner of all blocks. The street superintendent was directed to have the garbage hauled away as requested, endorsing cleanup day.

A petition for paving First street Montgomery to Main with gravel bitulithic, with 1751 feet represented, 1645 feet being for concrete, was presented. Referred to council as a whole.

Petition asked for grading and graveling First street, Pennywinkle to city limits. Further time given committee.

An ordinance was read twice providing for the probable cost of paving 4th street from Washington street to Main street, at a probable cost of $34,141.72 to be read third time Friday night.

A contract was ordered made with the Warren Co. for paving 7th street to begin within 30 days and completed by July 1.

A new Oregon Electric franchise was passed, extending time for completion to July 1, and permitting freight on the street until Oct. 1. The track is to be paved if the street is and vitrified brick used along rails. Speed 12 miles an hour, fare in limits 5c. A double Y from 4 to 6 street was ordered after discussion.

Lawyer Harrison Allen thanked the council for the passage of the franchise, and stated that the road will be into Albany and be operated by May 15. The road has been built from Salem to Albany in 150 operating days at a cost of $1,600,000, a record in railroad building.

Adjourned to Friday night.

A Linn Co. Boy.

G. T.

Max A. McCall, of Scio, now instructor in agronomy at O.A.C., has just received appointment to take charge of the agricultural instruction and the experimental farm of the Klamath County High school at Klamath Falls. Mr. McCall spent a year as instructor in agriculture and manual training in the high school at Bavenport, Wash., previous to his appointment at his alma mater last fall. He will not only teach agriculture in the high school, but will supervise the work done by the teachers in the seventh and eighth grades in the city schools, and manage the experimental farm.

Eugene's New Pavement.

A contract was let at Eugene last night for paving East Eighth street and a portion of Fairmont boulevard, to the Clark & Henry Construction Co., who will put down asphalt. This Company paved about ten miles of street for Medford and has done some for Eugene. There were several other bids, one from the Warren Co., one from the E. W. Geiger Co. of Salem, for asphalt, and one from a concrete company. The concrete bid was lowest, but the property owners preferred the asphalt, next higher.

Tickles Corvallis.

G. T.

President John F. Allen, of the Commercial Club, has received word from Judge Stewart, Albany booster, that the Hub City will be deserted on April 26th in favor of Corvallis. He says every auto in that city will bring a load of Albany business men to Corvallis to join the excursionists from Portland in their inspection of O.A.C. They will get here about 9 o'clock and spend the day—all of which is welcome news to Corvallisites.

Ex County Clerk B. M. Payne has been appointed Albany agent for the American Surety Co.

In referring to an arrest for assault the Democrat gave the name of Weeks. It should have been Fields.

All members of Albany Camp 103, W. O. W. and visiting Neighbors are requested to be present tonight, initiation and refreshments. H. Austin, C. C.

ROYAL Baking Powder Absolutely Pure

Where the finest biscuit, cake, hot-breads, crusts or puddings are required Royal is indispensable.

Royal is equally valuable in the preparation of plain, substantial, every-day foods, for all occasions.

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar

No Alum—No Lime Phosphates

Hon. O. P. Coshow.

Whose candidacy for the nomination of U. S. Senator for Oregon, on the democratic ticket is of special interest to Linn county people, where Mr. Coshow was born. He has made a splendid record as a lawyer and citizen, standing high. A large vote will undoubtedly be cast for him in this county.

FRIDAY.

Bert Moe arrived from Portland this noon.

Fax Thayer, of Scio, was in the city today.

W. A. Clement, of Salem, has been in the city.

R. U. Steinquist, of Eugene, was in the city today.

Albany and Roadsters will play base ball this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Robert Torbet and daughter went to Corvallis this afternoon.

Mrs. Pitman arrived this noon from Newport for a visit with her son.

W. B. Chance, mill inspector, went to Harrisburg this afternoon.

G. W. Rohrbaugh went up to Stayton this morning, where he is doing special work.

Otto Moore arrived from Corvallis this noon to play with the Roadsters, and Haman Bilyeu with the Colts.

Claud Swan, the world's best basketball player, arrived this noon on his way to Portland to the track meet tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jordan and baby, of Corvallis, were in the City yesterday seeing the Hub, their former home, except the baby, born in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Train arrived this noon from their Newport outing, and report glorious weather and a fine time. Newport is growing rapidly and big things are in sight.

Fred Gunning, carrier of R. F. D. one out of Turner, has been carrying the route since it started in October, 1897, nearly 15 years, and it is declared has the record in Oregon.

John Burkhart is up from Portland on a visit. He recently returned from New York. Mr. Burkhart a couple years ago made the first fly at Albany, a short one, but a good effort. He continues to be interested in aviation.

Mrs. P. A. Young, Mrs. E. D. Cusick, Mrs. R. E. Mason and Miss Flora Mason went to the Bay today for a week-end party to be followed tomorrow by Messrs. Young, Cusick and Mason and H. E. Morton.

Mrs. Roy Parker yesterday afternoon entertained the Thursday Afternoon Club in a pleasant session. The contest was hunting eggs, won by Mrs. J. W. Swank, who knows how, and delicious refreshments were served.

The Shakespeare Club held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Franklin, full of interest. The Merchant of Venice is now being dissected. The Club considers not only the literary side of the play, but as well goes into moral issues, with opinions emphatic.

Capt. F. M. Powell, W. H. Worrell, Robert Torbet, Wm. Myer, J. H. Goins and E. H. Cornett, of the P. O. force, went to Corvallis this afternoon to attend the funeral of Walter Corbett, who was one of the best fellows in the world, all declare. They took along an elegant floral offering.

WILL LOOK AFTER CEMETERY.

R. C. Phelps has been secured by the Albany Cemetery Association to take complete charge of the cemetery. He has been at the Salem cemetery for a couple of years, and has the reputation of knowing the business thoroughly. He will not only look after the cemetery generally, but will be glad to take special contracts for the care of lots, cement work, etc. The Association desires all subscribers of last year to liquidate. The money is needed.

Mr. Phelps is a former Albany boy, son of the late E. C. Phelps, editor of the Newport News for a number of years, then an Albany printer, going from here to Medford, where R. C. was born, in 1887, the youngest of five sons and two daughters. Mr. Phelps was himself a printer. His mother and brother Ira, a former newspaper man, now a carpenter, reside at Lebanon, and two brothers at Astoria.

Mr. Huntley, who has had charge of the cemetery will now look after the Masonic cemetery exclusively.

Albany does well to keep these places up properly.

News From Albany's Six Early Trains.

Dr. Stuart and his bunch of athletes, of the O.A.C., and Prof. Moses and a live bunch of high school students, of Corvallis, arrived and went to Portland to attend the big Columbia track meet. Among the men is a son of Mr. Moses, who does the broad jump, sprints and hurdles. Fred Weatherford, a nephew of J. K. Weatherford is a prominent O. A. C. sprinter.

Alfred C. Schmitt returned from Eugene, where last night he delivered an address before the U. O. students.

Merrill Hammel, the chicken fancier, returned from a trip to Bend, near which place he is interested in some valuable desert land.

Prof. Crow flew in on the Lebanon local.

Wm. Egles left on a flight to Stayton by Oestle Dannels train.

H. A. Ellis left for Portland to close a deal for some trees for the Santiam Orchard Co.

Harrington, the Corvallis washer, arrived.

H. A. Stoltenberg returned on the early train from a Portland trip.

E. C. Roberts, the fruit expert, left for Portland.

Mrs. Marks, mother of Mrs. C. M. Westbrook, returned to her home at Shelburn.

Mrs. Dora Flood left on a Portland visit.

Miss Ella Dunlap returned to Jefferson.

Mrs. Martin Meiser went out to the Meiser farm.

Mrs. O. Mitchell went to Salem on a short trip. Mr. Mitchell, who is up in Montana on his claim, reports fine weather and is enjoying his new life.

Phil Hickey and J. H. Webber arrived on the early train from Iowa, by way of California, and went to Lebanon, where Mr. Webber has relatives. They reported a rough old winter, with ice 36 inches thick and much snow.