LAFOLLETTE THE PROGRES-

Senator Lafollette yesterday afternoon made a good democratic speech, one that interested the audience that packed the armory to the door and to the back of the gallery.

He declared that the next four years will settle things for the people or will see the trusts and combinations legalized; that there are strong indications that the present supreme court will take the first excuse that offers to legalize the frust octopus, effering a menace the people need to watch and guard against at the ballot.

There is one state where justice is done the trusts, Wisconsin, of which the speaker was governor for six years, building up the best state government in the U. S.

He showed Roosevelt's insincerity on the tarift, and that he was really a standpatter, a good politician though. He selected Tait as his successor, and no president since Buchannan did the people a greater wrong, and it was he who taught Tait how to get the support of the office holders under him, he is now complaining about. He handed Taft the tariff question, and Tait before election agreed to a revision downward, but instead he signed the Payne-Aldrich bill revising the tariff UP, with 600 increases in it. What is needed now is for Congress by affirmative legication to denounce overcapitalization, taking the stater out of stock in a rotten busi-

(Paid Advertisement.) THE SOUL.

Some time ago there appeared in the Democrat four texts of Scripture for the purpose of proving the immeritality of the soul.

Is Luke 23:43. "Today shalt thou be with me in paradise."

Notice the request of the thief, "Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom," not when thou goest. The thief evidently understood that Jesus had taught that he would resure to earth to set up his kingdom. He has not yet returned so his paryer is not yet answered.

Parhilise was not then in existence. When describing the new earth and its capitol, the New Jerusalem, the Revelator says: "In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life." Rev. 29:2. And to him that overcometh will I give to cat of the tree of life which is in the midst of the Paradise of God." Rev. 27.

This locates paradise in the new earth. When Jesus comes then the thiel's prayer will be answered. The reading of the text with the comma placed after today, will make it easily understood, "Verily I say unto thee today, shalt thou be with me in paradise." Punctuation is not inspired, was not in use when the Bible was written. Christ said of himself that as "Jonns was three days and three nights in the whale's belly," so HE should be "three days and nights in the kearth" Matt, 12:40. So there is where he went that day instead of paradise.

2nd. 2 Cor. 5:1-9. "Proves the soul's absence from the body and at home with the Lord." Let us see if Pana meant just that. He says: "So WE being many are ONE BODY in Christ, and every one members of one another." Rom, 12:5. "Now YE are the BODY of Christ." I Cor. 12:

27. "And hat he he lad of the BODY the CHURCH." Col. 1:18.24. "Who now-rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fif lup that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his BODY'S sake, which is the CHURCH." Thus he repeats again and a second and the content of the church." Thus he repeats again the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his BODY'S sake, which is the CHURCH." Thus he repeats again and again.

With this view of the word body, all is plain. "Therefore we are always confident, knowing that whilst we are at home in the BODY," not our bodies as it should read if he meant our physical organisms. "We are absent from the Lord." Our head, the Lord is away; and "we are ronfident, Law, and willing rather to be absent from the BODY," not be absent from the BODY," not be absent from the BODY," not only with the little ones but the grown-ups too. in my body, whether it be by life or by death."

How could death be gain? He would be at rest from persecution, 2 Cor. 11:23:27. But he did not mean it would be gain to himself. He says "For me to live is Christ," (gain to Christ), "and to die is gain," (gain to Christ), "for he shall be magnihed in my BODY whether by life or by death." His thought was only to magnify Christ. Then he says: "I am in a strait betwist two," which to choose he did not know, but there was a third thing he did desire and that was to "denart and be with Christ which is far better." This can only be translated that he desired.

4th. John 14:1-3. Christ was completing his disciples, by his promise se come arain. He has gotte, as he said, to prepare a place for his faithful ones and will come again to raise the dead. Change the living and receive them unto himself, that where he is there they may be also. 1 Thess. 4:15—End.

AN AWFUL OCEAN

An awful ocean disaster occurred yesterday when the big ateamship Titanic sank, and 1520 people were drawned. 675 are reported rescued. The steamer crashed into an iceberg down from the north, one of the greatest enemies of navigation.

Some of the passengers supposed to be lost are among the richest men of the world, John Jacob Astor, J. Bruce Ismay, Col. Robeling, Isadore Straus, Geo. Widener, Benj. Guggenheimer, J. B. Thayer, worth altogether $420, 000,090. With others, the wealth represented is a billion dollars.

The Titanic was said to be the finest steamer in the world.

Ameng those drowned is William T. Stead, the great London journalist.

On the boat were at least four Portland people, Herman Klaber, F. M. Warren, Mrs. Jas. R. Watt and Miss Bertha Watt. Mr. and Mrs. W. W Cotton had booked for the Titanic, but changed their minds just before the steamer sailed.

The east is frantic for news of those saved and particulars.

The Olympic and Anchor Liner are believed to be searching near the wreek. The Titanic drift of for more than 30 miles from the time struck to the time she sank. It is possible life bouts were lowered and drifted before the Carnathia arrived. Little hope is expressed of rescuing the survivors in boats, as it is foggy and a heavy thunderstorm is prevailing. Wireless operators today are unable to reach any vessels supposed to be in the vicinity.

It is expected stories of survivors will eclipse anything in fiction.

All the millionaires mentioned are thought to have been drowned, Astor, Guggenheimer, Widener, Straus, etc.

Tangent.

Tangent is putting on citified airs. The electric light company have recently put up poles and is stringing wires and soon the town will be lighted up.

Mr. Olmstead, of Philomath, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Scofield over Sunday.

W. E. Parker, of Albany, has moved with his family to Tangent, where he has taken charge of his store, lately purchased of R. J. Moses.

Ab Humphrey and his sister, Mrs. Moses Parker, have moved to Tangent where they expect to make their future

Mrs. Munn who has lived in Tangent for a long time will soon leave for Port-land where she will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Langdon. R. J. Moses has retired from his store and will hereafter reside on the form.

Rev. Mowry, presiding elder of the South Methodist church, preached an excellent sermon last Sunday.

Wilson's Chances.

Washingto , April 10 —The count in Pennsylvania shows at least 74 delegates for Wison, if not the entire 76 delegates, a far more sweeping victory than has been anticipated. The big diseatanted vote, cast for Roesevell, ilso indicates that if Taft is nominated. Wilson, by cirtue of a tremenduous popular vote is the only candidate that will have a chance to carry the rock-ribbed state.

In Michigan it looks gold for Wilson, where he has several delegates sure, and none instructed against him. South Carolina is pretty sure for Wilson also.

MARRIED.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Harrington srrived yes erday evening from Portland. Here is the rest about it:

Married in Portland on Sunday, April 14. by Rev. Ghormley, A. S. Harrington, publicity man of the Oregon Power Co., and Mrs. Berle Dickinson, recently of Lincoln, Neb., also Mr. Harrington's former home. They were former school mates.

Mr. Harrington is a young man of splendid character and attainments and has many friends here whose best wishes he will have, and the bride is highly spoken of.

They will reside in furnished rooms on West Seventh street.

THE TITANIC

The Titanic was going about 18 miles an hour when see struck the iceberg, which amashed her decks, sides and bulkheads so great was the impact. The bottom is supposed to have been torn out oy submerged icebergs. The effort to launch the life bosts was fierce. Some were smashed to pieces in the davits and some awamped, while others made it into the open sea.

There were 3423 sacks of mail on the boat, including probably 1,600,000 registered letters.

Among those who went down was Among those who went down was Maj, Butt, aid to President Taft, Karl Behr, tennis champion, and Francis Millet, artist.

It is known that Henry S. Harper, the publisher, is saved, also Mrs. John Jacob Astor and Mrs. Geo. Widener.

Capt, Smith, of the Titanic, it is said, had been warned of the icebergs.
