BLAIN STORE ROBBED.

The store of the Blain Clothing Co. was robbed last night in a daring manner.
The robbers pried open the iron shutters of a small window in the rear, then cried up the window and went inside, where they helped themselves.

Special Nightwatch Saylor in passing through the alley in the rear of the store at 9:30 o'clock discovered the iron shutter back, and notified Mr. Hamber, who arrived and discovered the robbery.
The police were notified and Webb and McClung rushed to the depot, where they found two of the men. One, after wards giving his name as Johnson was captured by Webb, the other got behind a brakeman of the 10:57 train, then in, and disappeared, either on the train or in the dark, dropping a suit case. Two suit cases of things were recovered, consisting of five suits of clothes, selected and evidently tried on, pair of pants, 52 5/8 neckties, 7 7/8 ties, 25 stick pins, 4 pairs cuff buttons, shirt, hat, and collars, $150 worth.

Four other suit cases are gone, and things are disturbed, indicating others in the robbery, getting away with their booty, perhaps six in all.

He was taken before Justice Swan, and gave the name of Harry Johnson.
In his hat band is the name Coleman & Co., San Francisco, probably coming from there. He is fairly well dressed, a shrewd, good looking man of about 35, one who has seen the world. He waived examination, by his attorney, L. G. Lewelling, and was held for the grand jury under $500 bonds.

THE ANTI-SALOON MASS MEETING A BIG ONE.

The Anti-Saloon mass meeting at the opera house last night, under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon League of the state, was a live affair. The auditorium was packed.

Rev. E. F. Zimmerman, of Portland, presided.

The first speaker was Billy Eastman, an ex convict, in stripes. He told his story. He began drinking and cigarette smoking when a boy thirty years ago, leading to crimes of different kinds, theft, counterfeiting, forger, etc., and he was sent to the penitentiary five times in all, in Montana, Washington, Nevada, Arizona, Alaska, serving fifteen years in all, getting out a convicted man, a year ago, never able to resist evil until by the grace of God.

J. F. Burke, state superintendent, recently from New Jersey, then spoke for about two hours, with helping mankind as his text. The saloon works after the church is tired. He handled the saloon without gloves. Rents are cheapest where the saloon is thickest.
A big work has been done in the U. S., and 40,000,000 people are without saloons, and in every state but three, Nevada, Penn., and N. J., there has been a change. But it takes MEN to enforce the law.

A law needed is the taking of the granting of county licenses from the county court, and in this county he found J. R. Springer, M. J. Simpson and Chas. Childs interviewed, on the Republican ticket, in favor of it. There are no democratic candidates.

He advised a vote for W. C. Winslow, in the republican primaries, for district attorney and Dr. Hill, father of Mr.
Winslow's opponent, at once took issue with him in a live bout of five or ten minutes.

Ray Zimmerman then gave a series of temperance pictures of a striking character, and it was about 11 o'clock when the meeting adjourned.

N. Y., coming from there to Portland, child, a daughter, Mrs. Eva Jagger, of Portland.

He was a member of the A. O. U. W.

credible show of Albany made things, wheelbarrow, s'p ladders, gates, etc.

together it is great.

and Chas. Cooney speaking. Tomorrow night more.

THE MATTER OF PAVEMENT.

To the Citizens of Albany:—

It has occurred to the writer that so many petitions have been presented to the City Council for the pavement of streets that we hardly know just where we stand. Might it not be well for us, as a city to enquire as to how we are going to pay for all these improvements.

It would be nice to have all the streets of our city paved, if we could see our way clear to pay for the pavement without laying too heavy a burden upon the individual citizens or without straining the credit of our city. Some one has got to pay for these improvements. When the people are saying to meet their annual street assessments, business conditions of a necessity must become more or less stagnant. Say, we pave, this year, the intervening streets between Washington and Lyon streets, and Fifth street clear thru and possibly one other street, would not that be ample? I know that we are all interested in our city and none of us would willingly do anything that would work a hardship on our people or that would cause business stagnation. Albany so far has been pretty sane and has not burdened itself with a heavy debt when there was only a comparatively small population to bear the obligation. We will want to do some paving in the years to come, we do not want to do it all in two years. We should pave and make improvements commensurate with our strength as a city. For a city to be burdened with a debt so that the property owners are struggling to meet the annual interest-payments, is not an enviable position to be in, and it does not help the city's credit, neither does it help business or attract newcomers.

The writer does not want to put himself forward as a kicker, neither is he going to argue the case with anyone holding an opposite opinion, nor is he going to make a predicament of what is going to be our condition if we do all the paving this season that has been outlined, altho he has a presentiment of what may be in store.

"Moderation is the part of wisdom."
ALFRED C. SCHMITT.

The Carpathia's Coming.

The Carpathia is not due to reach New York until Friday evening. The arrival will probably be the most stirring event in the history of the city.
The excitement is so great that only friends or relatives with passes, will be admitted on the pier. Reports from the vessel confirm the lists of drowned and saved, and there is no more hope for those reported lost. It is stated positively that neither Astor, Butt, Guggenheim or Straus are on board.

Under the law of the sea J. Bruce Ismay, one of the owners, is saved.
