The correct shoes for spring

These illustrations show you what will be worn this spring.

They give you some idea of the many new styles which we are carrying in the Red Cross shoe.

They include an endless variety of Red Cross colonial pumps; tan boots with the new full rounded toe, for early spring wear; graceful Red Cross pumps; smart Oxfords in button and lace for street wear; white buck boots and pumps for summer wear.

No matter what style shoe you want, no matter what material, you will find the best models in the Red Cross shoe. There is some new touch, something original that makes every Red Cross style distinctive. In the Red Cross shoe, you can find this season, advance styles which you should select now, before they are copied and become common.

To get this style, you don't have to sacrifice comfort. In the Red Cross shoe you get both.

The sole of the Red Cross shoe is tanned by the special Red Cross Tanning Process which preserves all the natural elasticity of the leather, makes it so supple that you can bend it almost double when new. The Red Cross shoe moves with your foot just as a glove moves with your hand, allowing you to wear a smaller size with a comfort you wouldn't believe possible.

Come in today and let us fit you.

Oxfords $3.50 and $4. High Shoes $4, $4.50 and $5.

ALBANY WON.

Albany College won a splendid victory last night in defeating Newberg, on the difficult side of the compulsory arbitration question, the affirmative. The judges Prof. Peterson, O. A. C., Prof. Decou, U. O., and Prof. Barnes, Harrisburg, decided 2 to 1 for Albany. Albany took the con-iliatyn line of argument, but urged the necessity of a court of last resort, with adequate powers.

The Albany team were showered with congratulations:—Miss Telford, and Messrs. Hodge and McClain.

Musical number was a piano duet by Misses Hansen and Irvine.

A social session followed with fruit juice and sweet meats for refreshments.

THE WORLD

Big Bill Hanley, who owns eastern Oregon, more or less, was in Corvallis yesterday.

Ralph Earle took some moving pictures of the O. A. C. students for Father's weekly.

A big pool of mohair at Lebanon sold for 30 cents a pound, the total being about $7200 received for it.

Halsey has the prospect of a newspaper, B. E. Adams being there with a view of making the venture.

A neat feature of the Business Men's trip to Corvallis was a breakfast of Benton county products, Benton water, prunes, peaches, germes, bacon, ham and eggs, rolls, French fried potatoes, butter, and buckwheat cakes. But the coffee had to be borrowed.

Nine of the ten delegates to the national democratic convention at Baltimore are known as follows: A. S. Bennett, W. R. King, T. S. Burke, Herman Wise, Mark Holmes, Victor F. Moses, J. W. Maloney, D. W. Sheehan, and Frederick V. Holman. J. E. Godfrey, John H. Stevenson and A. A. Kaderly have almost the same vote for the tenth place.

A Fine Affair.

A. C. Schmitt, E. D. Cusick, J. S. Van Winkle and H. E. Morton, last evening went to Corvallis in the Morton auto, and attended the big business men's banquet, an elegant affair. Hon. J. K. Weatherford was toastmaster, and some big speeches were made. Corvallis did itself proud.

6. The Ordeal.—Here is the best comedy of all.

7. Cahler and Wadsworth—New music.

This is an all-star program with four extra good comedies, a scenic and drama, including two Biographs and a Vitagraph.

Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, "The Musical Coppalias," an electrical musical act.

day—The Passion Play.

DROWNED IN THE WILLAMETTE.

An unfortunate drowning occurred in the Willamette, on the north side last evening. The little two year old son of Al. S. Gorham, an Albany carpenter, who resides in the Pearce house, near the river in North Albany, strayed down to the river with another child, where they were playing, when the little fellow fell into the river. His companion was too small to help, and rushed to the house for help. Boats were secured from Albany, but it was about an hour before the body could be found, the location not being certain. Then it was brought to the office of Dr. Wallace, but it was too late. A large crowd had gathered on this side of the river during the hunt, and everybody was willing to help if given the opportunity.

The parents have the sympathy of all in their misfortune.

A PIONEER OF '50.

H. W. Sattlemier, of Tangeut, died early this morning, after an illness of five years, prominent and prosperous, a worthy citizen.

He was born Dec. 9, 1835, one of 18 children, came to California during the gold excitement, and to Oregon in 1850, taking up a claim at Tangeut, of which 230 acres remain, including the valuable nursery property. His wife, to whom he was married in 1878, died about a year ago.

Two children survive, Mrs. M. L. Foster of Tangeut, and Mrs. A. W. McDonald of Toppemsh, Wash., and 8 grand children.

He was a member of the Masons and M. E. church.

The funeral will be held at the M. E. church, Tangeut, at 12 m. Monday, with burial at the Masonic cemetery, Albany at 2 o'clock, under the auspices of the Masons.

The New Democrat People.

Senator and Mrs. W. H. Hornbrook and son, John, a three year old native of Idaho, arrived last evening, to make their home in Albany. The deal for the Democrat is being completed so Mr. Hornbrook may take charge of affairs the first of May. It will be in the shape of a company with Mrs. Hornbrook as president, Mr. Hornbrook secretary and manager, and the present owner vice president, retaining a minority interest in the business. The Hornbrooks come here highly recommended in business and socially.

President Campbell's Vote.

Instead of President Campbell voting for a union of the O. A. C. and U. O., as stated by the Oregonian, it transpires that he simply voted for an impartial board to investigate the claims of the two schools. Certainly some difference.

A Tough Captured.

Policeman J. W. Webb had a live experience this morning. Four toughs got off the 4:18 train, and at once started to run. Webb followed and captured one of them, who knicked him down, but in turn was himself done up and brought down to the city jail, a bad looking fellow. He claimed to be an English sailor, and showed the tattoos. He threatened to get Webb when out. Nightwatch Munkers followed the others but they escaped.

He gave the name of Baker, and was sent up for ten days.
