THE WORLD

Down in Mexico yesterday the rebels scattered like rats before Robago's army.

Jos. H. Young will succeed Carl Gray as president of the Hill lines in Oregon.

An effort is being made in Washington to have a law passed requiring safety devices.

The O. A. C. basketball team cleaned up over $700 during the past season, a remarkable record for that game.

Geo. M. Hyland and C. T. Prall, two Portland farmers, went to Corvallis last night and spoke on the Portland good roads bills.

The Oregon State Academy of Sciences, which met in Albany last year, convened in Corvallis today with an elaborate program on hand. It is of a high order.

Carl Boeckel, a Portland structural worker, fell 80 feet and will live, though having several broken bones. He says he will now become a farmer. No more such experiences for him.

The Linn County Oil Co. is preparing to bore near Berlin as soon as the machinery is installed, giving a practical test to the question of oil at this point, about which there is such a divergence of opinion.

L. M. Curl, one of the pioneer abstractors of Albany, is getting out a new set of ownership place maps and generally revising his abstract business. Increased business and a desire to conduct one of the best equipped abstract companies in the state are assigned by Mr. Curl as the reason for the innovation.

Comic Supplement Party.

Mrs. E. H. McCune, 517 W. Second street, otherwise Mrs. Howson Lott, was the gracious hostess to the employees of Chambers & McCune's store Thursday evening at a comic supplement party. Any one entering Mrs. Lott's home that evening would have thought the characters of the famous funny papers had come to life. It was difficult to decide which character was best represented. A vote was taken and the prize awarded to Gloomy Gus, otherwise Mrs. Ristine. In the clever name guessing contest the prize was captured by Jimmie's Mother, otherwise Mrs. Paradise "Snookums," the Newly Wed's Baby, better known as Edna Gentry, won two prizes. The first one consisted of an animal hunt and the second a memory contest. A delicious lunch was served, the dining room looked beautiful in its artistic decorations and too much credit cannot be given the hostess for the clever manner in which she managed the whole affair.

Those who enjoyed Mrs. Lott's hospitality were: Dad in Kidland, Gloomy Gus, Si Howson Lott's Aunt, Jimmie, Jimmie's Mother, the Katzenjammer family, Pinkey, Gussie, Foxy Grandpa, Mr. and Mrs. Newly Wed, Snookums, Happy Hooligan, Suzanne, Mr. and Mrs. Howson Lott, Mike, Buster Brown and Tige.

THE EMPIRE TONIGHT

"The Romance of a Dry Town."—(Kalem.) An out-door picture, full of good comedy. A feature.

"Hair Apparent."—Edison.—An elaborate picture, full of romance and action. Mr. Mark McDermott is featured.

"Cardinal Wolsey." (Vitagraph).—A beautiful historical drama showing the true character of the Cardinal, well portrayed by Hal Reid, and the part of Henry VIII, taken by Tefft Johnson, to perfection. Julia Swayne Gordon, as Queen Catherine of Assyria, who is always a queen, and Clara Kimball Young, a new Vitagraph player, in the part of Anne Boleyn, the lady-in-waiting, are delightful. One of the best pictures of the sort ever shown in the city.

"Fishing in Florida." (Lubin).—Showing a 350 lb. fish being caught. A very interesting educational picture.

"The Baby Tramp." (Lubin comedy).—The usual comedy spirit runs entirely through this picture. You can't help but laugh!

Miss Croso, singing, "Back to the Old Town."

Complete change tomorrow. "Diamond S. Ranch" May 21st, 22nd and 23rd.

DOWN AT JEFFERSON

Review:—
Mayor Allen has designated Saturday, May 18, as cleanup day for Jefferson.

Miss Jessie Fox, of Albany, has been a guest at the home of J. W. Parrish during the week.

The Jefferson base ball team will meet its old time enemy, Scio, on our home grounds next Sunday afternoon.

A. Skaar came down from Albany Sunday after his wife and daughter, who had been here for some time assisting in caring for Mr. Skaar's mother, Mrs. Seehale, who has been quite ill, but is reported much improved.

The woman's club met at the country home of Mrs. S. H. Goin Wednesday, and at the meeting loaned $10 toward the school children's exhibit to be held in this city in August. The club is to be commended for its generosity in this matter. Over $100 has been subscribed by the people of our city to buy prizes for the children making the best exhibit in the different lines.

Editor Hornbrook, the new owner of the Albany Democrat, Frank Whiteaker, cigar and confectionery dealer, F. K. Churchill, the business printer, and Mr. Stoltenberg, the shoe man, came down from Albany yesterday in Mr. Churchill's auto and paid the Review a fraternal visit. It was a mighty genial crowd, and we hope they will come again.

A Paying Dairy.

Hon. C. L. Shaw, of this city, certainly has a fine dairy, run by his son-in-law Ed. Holloway. Today he received a check from the creamery for $390.42 for cream sold the Albany Creamery during the month of April, the product of 32 cows. This is an average of over $12 per cow, a remarkable record. Three families were also supplied.

Mr. Shaw's cows are mostly Jerseys. This shows what can be done by running a business in a modern way. Mr. Shaw certainly has the milk proposition by the horns.

Go and do likewise. The dairy business can't be overdone here. The cry all the time is for more butter to meet the demand.

Will Attend the State Grange.

Hon. C. L. Shaw will leave tomorrow for Roseburg to attend an executive session of the state grange. Others going later will be Mr. and Mrs. A. Hulbert, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bond, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller, Mr. Tom Froman, who has not missed a session for many years, C. H. Walker, J. H. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Freerksen.

DROWNSVILLE BOY FIRST

In Western Prohibition Oratorical Contest.

At Salem last night Harry G. McCain, of Willamette University, whose home was formerly Brownsville, won first place in the western inter-state prohibition oratorical contest, after a contest full of snap.

The title of Mr. McCain's oration was "Liquor vs. Liberty." The other contestants and their subjects were: Theo. Smith of the University of Puget Sound, Tacoma, "Liberty vs. the Liquor Traffic;" Roy A. Murray of the University of Southern California, Los Angeles, "The Convicted Assassin;" and Paul A. Dupertius, Washington State College, Pullman, "Is Prohibition a Success?" Roy A. Murray of Los Angeles took second place. Dupertius of Washington State College represented Washington and Idaho jointly.

Judges were, on thought and composition, Prof. E. R. Moses, Westminster college, New Wilmington, Pa.; Leigh Colvin, Columbia university, New York; Prof. Walter R. Miles, professor of philosophy, University of Iowa, Iowa City, Ia.; on delivery, President Levi Pennington, Pacific college, Newberg; Dr. J. F. Ghormley, pastor First Christian church, Portland; Loial H. McCarthy, attorney, Portland.

Good Roads' Day.

This is good roads day, one that deserves the attention it is receiving. The people of Oregon are united on good roads, but they are not united on good roads, but they are opposed to promiscuous bonding, with attendant large interest account, and the truth is, they are suspicious of road bills emanating from Portland.

The general movement for good roads will undoubtedly produce great results.
