Madeline Force Astor got fooled to the limit. Old Astor left a will giving his wife only $5,000,000 in trust, contingent on her remaining his widow, which she will never do, being merely a girl. It is to be hoped she fools the Astors and does stay a widow.

A Dry Town Story.

A Dry Town is the name of a live story at the Empire. After the saloons had closed a young man who went west to make his fortune started an ice cream store, doing a land office business. His girl east had rejected him because he couldn't make a living. When she heard of his prosperity she also went west, and he snubbed her. Then she opened a soda fountain and was getting all the business when a partnership was proposed and formed for life.
