"he was a member of the Catholic church, and was educated in the Sis-ters school, of this city, a young wo-man beloved for her many excellent traits of character, and her death has cansed sorrow in a large circle of friends.

friends. She leaves a husband, Harry Hal-kyer, a well known railroad brakeman, father, mother, five sisters and three brothers, and many other relatives and friends to mourn her death. A family reunion was recently held here with all of the family present, and all are here now. The funeral service will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, at the Catholic church, to which all friends are invited.

Water Street Wants Pavement.

Residents of Water street propose to be on the map. A meeting of east enders was held last night, and every person residing on East Water, be-tween the C. & E. railroad and Pen-nywinkle has signed a betition for paving the street. At that place a double track will be put in, and pave-ment is practically necessary in or-der to save the street. REACHING OUT

BUY NOT THE BOYS' CLOTHES THAT ARE CHEAPEST TODAY BUT THOSE THAT ARE CHEAPEST IN THE END

After all it's durabiliny and service that determines not only the superiority of boys' clothes but the economy as well. You'll find that our boys' clothes are "there for wear." It's the quality of the fabric, and the character of the tailoring that makes our boys' suits the cheapest in the end. Buy Wooly Boy or a Hercules; they are guaranteed all wool, every weave and thread.
