THE WORLD

Taft now has 562 votes figured out. Judge Dimick, J. A. Carson and Dan Malarky are candidates for president of the next state senate.

Chas. S. Bown, of this city, and his son Robert Bown, will be principals of the schools of Chehalis, Wash., a rare thing in schooldom.

By the breaking of a gang plank at Seattle yesterday, two, Mrs. Leonard and Carl Bruder, a boy of one year, were killed and fifty people injured. They were boarding the steamer Flyer.

Nipped in the Bud.

Speaking of the proposed oak tree chamois industry the Lebanon Advocate says:—
Unfortunately this great industry will have to be nipped in the bud for the reason that not all oak trees produce the stuff, in fact it is found only in decaying trees and only in a very small proportion of those. The growth is a fungus and we presume is closely related to the toad stool. However, the Democrat should be given due credit for making public such items, but when the Democrat man has cut as many cords of oak wood as the Advocate man he will realize the true condition of his infant industry. The writer found this stuff when a small boy and called it "buckskin."

ALBANY

On Friday, May 24, at 8 p. m., at the opera house a very interesting literary and musical entertainment will be given by the pupils of the Academy of Our Lady of Perpetual Help. All are cordially invited.

The Circus.

On Tuesday, May 28, the great Sells-Floto circus is billed to reach this city, and they promise to reach in every way the performances which they have given heretofore.

The Sells-Floto circus is an independent organization operating entirely outside the combination generally known as the "circus trust." For many years now they have had a strenuous fight on their hands in order that they might exist, but last season they inaugurated a policy of cutting the regular admission price in half, and if the reports of their tour go for anything, the departure has met with unqualified success and approval.

Mr. Lane Tonight.

After the regular session of the Albany Commercial Club tonight C. H. Lane, first assistant in agricultural education, department of agriculture, Washington, D. C., will speak on advanced industrial education. It deserves a large audience, and Albany people generally are requested to be present.

Mrs. Moe, residing on Lyon street, has been ill during the past two or three days.

M. at the front door of the court house in Linn County, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand the real property described in said Execution and Order of Sale as follows, to-wit: The West half of the following described lands: Beginning at the southeast corner of the Donation Land Claim of L. H. Matney.

D. S. SMITH, Sheriff,
Linn County, Oregon.

ALBANY'S 4TH TO BE AN O. E. OPENING.

That an invitation will be extended to the officials of the Oregon Electric Railway and to the business men of Portland to attend the festivities marking the formal entry of the Hill railroad to Albany on July 4th, was definitely decided at a meeting held in the Commercial Club rooms Saturday night.

The meeting was called to order by W. A. Eastburn, president of the Albany Commercial Club, and was organized by the selection of G. E. Sanders as temporary secretary.

Mayor P. D. Gilbert, P. A. Young, L. E. Hamilton, A. C. Schmitt, F. J. Fletcher, Dr. Shinn, Dr. Ellis, J. C. Hammel, C. C. Page, Wm. Eagles and others spoke in favor of the plan of making July 4th the date for the formal entry of the new railroad.

While the plans have not been worked out at this date, it seems to be the consensus of opinion that a big barbecue will be held in the Chautauque grounds, and the best attractions obtainable will be secured by the committee in charge of arrangements.

The following committees were selected: Executive Committee: F. J. Fletcher, Gale Hill, A. C. Schmitt, E. D. Cusick, Wm. Bain, J. N. Chambers, L. E. Hamilton, D. O. Woodworth, W. L. Marks, Mayor Gilbert and Wm. Eagles.

Committee on Invitations: Mayor P. D. Gilbert, P. A. Young, H. E. Morton, A. C. Schmitt, Gale S. Hill and E. D. Cusick.

Committee appointed to confer with owners of Park grounds: L. E. Hamilton, P. D. Gilbert and F. J. Fletcher.

The committee on investigation left today for Portland and upon their return to Albany a meeting will be called to complete the arrangements for the reception of the Portland business men.

The Coming Carnival.

The mere announcement that Albany is to have a big Spring Carnival and fun festival, during the week of May 26th, under the auspices of the Albany Fire Department, with a complete line of wholesome amusement features, will undoubtedly create widespread interest among our readers.

It has been said that Joy has no single abode; that it visits the mechanic at his work bench, the shop girl at her counter, and lightens alike the burdens of farm, factory and household. It is undoubtedly found in greatest abundance, however, and for the greatest number, in the modern carnival and fun fest, the greatest joy-maker in all the universe.

The first summer excursion of the C. & E. will run from Albany next Sunday, and then every week.

The Weather.

Range of temperature, 70-50. Rainfall, .24 inch. The river is 4.6 feet. Prediction: Showers tonight and Tuesday.

CORVALLIS' NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH.

The new Catholic church at Corvallis was dedicated yesterday, with imposing ceremonies. The church at Corvallis is about fifty years old, and the fine new building comes after service in a small edifice for many years. The new building is stucco finished, a neat affair. It has practically all been made in Corvallis, including the pews.

Bi-hop Christy was present and had charge of the services, while Father Lane, of this city, conducted the high mass.

Mrs. Mary Thompson has the distinction of being the oldest member of the church, and Baby Gerhard the youngest.

Following is a list of the priests in charge since its organization: Rev. A. L. Paulin, who built the first church, 1861.

THIS MORNING

News from Albany's Six Early Trains.

J. R. Metzgar, for twenty-three years a driver of logs for the Spaulding Co., returned up the Santiam by way of Jefferson, to keep the logs going. He has about eight million feet up near Dayton, which he and a large crew of men are kicking along towards Salem, a strenuous job, until they get down by Jefferson, when the wonagons are brought into play. He was accompanied by his son Archie, who will do some fishing.

Hon. J. M. Philpot and others arrived to attend the big Burkhardt sale, the biggest cow event in the history of Linn county.

Mrs. W. W. Davis left for Alsea, after a visit with her sister, Mrs. L. L. Vierck. The trip is now a rough one. From Philomath a stage ride of 25 miles is required. They have a fine place on the river. In a few years Alsea will be reached by electric line.

Dr. J. L. Hill and son G. S., left on a Portland trip. The Dr. reports good reports from the Mexican mines, with prospects of plenty of gold in time.

Obituary.

Lulu Egan Halkyer, who died May 17, 1912, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Egan, in Albany, was born in Gervais, June 30, 1888, and at the age of four years, removed with her parents to Albany, where she received her education at the public and Sisters' schools of this place.

She was married to Harry Halkyer on Feb. 20, 1908, her husband being in the employ of the S. P. railroad. They have resided at Silverton, Roseburg and Springfield, but recently at Portland, from which place she returned on Saturday to attend a family reunion at the home of her parents, where she was taken suddenly ill on Monday morning, the 13th.

She leaves a husband, father, mother, five sisters and three brothers and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

O'er the dark river the bright angel sped,
And Lulu has gone to the bright shining shore,
Where time has no ending, forever,
He said,
And sorrow and sadness will visit no more.

O'er the dark river you are gone and forever,
In sorrow your friends all bade thee farewell;
'Tis hard for the ties of relation to sever,
The friendship for Lulu, we love her so well.

Dr. W. H. Davis, president of the Linnhaven Orchard Company, returned yesterday from Linnhaven where he inspected the work being done on the company's property near that place. Twenty-two hundred acres are being cleared and will be planted to fruit.

BOX CAR FIRE OF OIL AND GASOLINE.

One of the fiercest fires ever at Albany occurred Saturday evening at 9 o'clock, when a box car of coal oil and gasoline was entirely consumed, leaving nothing but the scorched wheels and axle.

The car was standing near the depot, when an S. P. man went in with a lantern. Some gasoline was leaking from a case, forming a gas, which ignited from the lantern, and there was something doing. The employee escaped, secured the yard engine and had the car hauled south even with Washington street, where it burned with raging fury. Two big explosions occurred, scattering the contents. Some of the oil was in tanks. The heads were blown out.

The fire bell rang, and a large crowd gathered at the scene.

Neither the Southern Pacific nor John D. Rockefeller will be crippled financially by the blaze.

BURKHART'S JERSEY SALE.

The big Jersey sale of R. L. Burkhardt began this forenoon, at Maple Lawn, the beautiful home place of Mr. Burkhardt, with a large crowd present from all parts of the state, and even out of it. The sale has been extensively advertised all over the coast. The stock being entirely registered it has attracted wide attention.

A big tent has been gotten ready, for rainy weather, if it should come, and it has, and the sale is being conducted under it.

Though advertised for 10 o'clock it was some time after before it began.

Col. L. D. Perry, of Columbus, Ohio, one of the best known cow auctioneers in the world, started the crying, first delivering his celebrated Jersey oration, covering the cow up to date, including the uses of every part of it. He is certainly a genius. He is assisted by Lee Francis, of Shelbina, Mo., another big auctioneer, who knows his business. L. L. Swan, of this city, is head clerk.

The sale opened lowly, but with good prices prevailing, gaining in speed. $200 to $350 was paid during the first session.

Among prominent men present are H. West, state president of the Jersey Association, Thos. Withycombe, of Portland, secretary, Wm. Schulmerick, who ran for state food commissioner, etc.

MISFITS.

An intoxicated man easily gets lost.

The Socialists have now repudiated the L. W. W.

It isn't every town that can have a bonfire of coal oil and gasoline.

Some philosophers these modern days are not very philosophic.

Albany's 4th will draw the whole valley. It will be an Electric affair.

Smoking thirty cigars a day will keep Rev. Richeson in practice for what he is about to experience.

Roosevelt says Taft whitewashed, Ballinger, and raps it in with his big stick.

The Nebraska cyclone is not in it with the political cyclone now raging in Ohio.

A baseball strike in a new form is taking place back east. Liable to be some home runs.

One of the most intensely interesting votes in the history of Oregon will be that on the union of the U. O. and the O. A. C.

Lebanon Advocate: The Albany Democrat says: "Myxomecetes of the Willamette Valley is the title of a lecture delivered at Corvallis. Hope there are none in Albany." That's nothing; here in Lebanon we have numerous specimens of the genus coprolitus and still there was little attention paid to the mayor's clean up order.

The Grey-Young Reception.

Mayor Gilbert, Bankers A. C. Schmitt and E. D. Cusick, A. M. Hamner, F. W. Weatherford, P. A. Young and H. E. Morton, of this city, Editor Moore and Mr. McGibbon of Corvallis, went to Portland this afternoon to attend the big reception to President Grey, coming of the Oregon Electric lines. G. S. Hill went on the early morning train, and President Kerr and others of Corvallis, will also attend. The event is a big one, not merely because of the men concerned, but because of the wide interests involved, and what the O. E. is doing for the valley.

Card of Thanks.

The relatives of the deceased, Mrs. Harry Halkyer, wish to extend their heartfelt thanks to their many friends who so kindly assisted them in her last illness and death and for the many beautiful floral offerings.
HARRY HALKYER,
Mr. and Mrs. JOHN T. EGAN, and FAMILY.

J. G. O'Neill of Omaha, Nebraska, purchased a five acre tract in North Albany and will erect a model house on the property.

WATER STREET ONE OF ACTIVITY.

Not many appreciate the fact that Water street is about the most important street in Albany from an industrial standpoint.

owned by the biggest concerns in the mills in the valley, one of the biggest iron works, three big lumber yards, owned by the biggest concerns in the valley, the Hammond Co., C. K. Spaulding & Co., and the Albany Lumber Co., two big seed and feed warehouses, a furniture warehouse, wholesale grocery and produce house, three feed stables, implement house, sand and gravel factory, river steamer station, automobile garage, bitulithic factory, Oregon Electric freight depot, two of the best flour mills in the valley, the best single mill around, a tannery, some fine gardens and many neat residences.

On account of the freight line of the Oregon Electric going through it it is attracting attention just now. It is also to be in the paving district if a move started is successful. Keep your eyes on Water street.

MORE SLUGGING BY THE ATHLETICS.

The Albany Athletics yesterday continued their slugging tactics, following up the 19 to 1 game against Corvallis, with a 11 to 0 victory from the Portland Cubs. It was a remarkable game.

Dave Patterson, the Albany catcher, was the star, making three home runs, in the first, third and eighth innings; but there were other sluggers. Monson made three hits out of four trials, and Carson Bigbee four hits out of five times at the bat. Altogether Albany made 14 hits, while Portland was able to attach only three to its stick, from the effects of Bill Patterson's twisters.

Albany's field work was also of a high order, particularly spectacular catches by Carson Bigbee and Carter Lee.

Martin, the commercial traveler, again umpired satisfactorily.

C. H. NEWS.

New suit: Ellen C. Griffith, admr., agt. Geo. F. Griffith, to establish a trust. W. T. Slater and M. E. Pogue, attorneys. The defendant is charged with conspiring with her husband, now deceased, against the plaintiff, with whom the deceased husband was having trouble, and against whom a suit for divorce was begun, and having a 10% acre tract deeded to the defendant instead of to the deceased husband, to whom it belonged. The court is asked to require the defendant to transfer the property to plaintiff, holding it a trust.
