CROWDS ARE HERE TO ATTEND CIRCUS

ornari"

Streets in Business Section Packed When Big Parade Passed Today.

SHOW GROUNDS LOCATED AT 8TH AND JACKSON STS

Hotels, Restaurants, and Livery Stables Have Capacity Taxed Today.

A crowd of many thousand people ind the streets of the business sec-tion all morning waiting for the ap-pearance of the big parade of the Sells-Floto circus, which arrived in Many people from the country un-doubtedly were kept from coming to Albany this morning by the stormy weather, but when it showed signs of claring off, the rigs began to pour into the city by the hundreds, and be-fore noon all of the livery stables and feed sheds in the city were filled and it became necessary to use the side streets for the wagons and bugges. — The circus came to Albany with its own special trains and immediately af-ter the arrival of the first section, the circus came to Albany with its of the 'main top' which is located at the corner of Eighth and Jackson streets, in the castern section of the streets, in the main tent, there are at the corner of Eighth and Jackson streets, in the eastern section of the city. Besides, the main tent, there are several other large ones, including a menagerie tent, a cook tent, where the big crew of several hundred men who travel with the shows, are fed, and a tent which houses a score of sideshows. The parade took place at 11 o'clock, coming north on Lyon street to Second, west on Second to Washington, thence east on First to Lyon, and back to the show grounds. The parade itself was one of the longest and best seen in Albany for several years and the sleek, well-fed horses and animals, elicited much ap-plause from the people who thronged the streets along which the procession passed. A lady in a cart drawn by two baby elephants, the animals in the cages, and the unusually fine horses, were the principal features of the parade. After the parade, the side-shows were opened and a number of free open-air attractions given at the show grounds.

open-air attractions given at the save grounds. Restaurants and hotels were crowd-ed at noon and although nearly every place had secured an extra corps of assistants, the hungry were fed with

Decoration committees have all been appointed, invitations have been sent, or given verbally, and now let ready for our annual dinner, to listen to after dinner speeches, and to meet on the long bridge for final ceremon-ies, all these demand that we start on time-exactly at 10 a. m., and mem-bers of McPherson Post will mean 9 a. m. on the

New Altraction Insures a Record Breaking Attendance at Albany's Annual Chautauqua.

MADAME NORELLI BOOKED

Madame Jennie Norelli, one of the world's greatest singers, has been booked by the Chautauqua board for Saturday, June 13th. This is the an-nouncement made today by Manager Stewart of the Albany Commercial Club.

Club. Negotiations have been pending for some little time between the Chautau-qua board and Madame Norelli's man-ager and it was with great difficulty that the board was finally able to se-cure this excellent attraction for the Chautauqua. Not only will the people of Albany

Chautauqua. Not only will the people of Albany have the opportunity of hearing a 'singer of world-wide reputation, but included in the same number of the course Herbert Riley, 'cellist, former-ly of Berlin, Germany, but now of Spokane, Washington, and Edith Haines Kuester, accompanist, of Port-land and. Only a few days ago Madame Nor-Only a few days ago Madame Nor-elli gave a concert at the Heilig thea-tre at Portland which charmed and delighted the music lovers of that city. With Madame Norelli and the many other high class attractions already booked by the board, Albany will have the best Chautauqua on the Pa-cific coast. cific coast.

ROSS H. WHITNEY OF WATERLOO, 19, WEDS LILLIAN ELLIS, LEBANON, 16

Miss Lillian Ellis, aged 16 years, ac ompanied by her mother and Ross H. Whitney, aged 19, appeared before County Clerk Marks this afternoon and applied for a marriage license, which was granted them, after the parents of both had made affidavits to their ages and given their consent to the marriage.

the marriage. After securing the license, they were married at the office of and by County Judge Duncan, and left for Waterloo where they will make their home. The groom, who has not yet at-tained his majority, is the son of a prominent farmer near Waterloo, and the bride lives at Lebanon.

OREGON ELECTRIC RAILWAY FILES CONDEMNATION SUIT HERE TODAY

A complaint was filed in the circuit court here this morning by the Oregon Electric Railway Company to court here this morning by the Ore-massistants, the hungry were led with difficulty. The doors of the circus opened at 2 o'clock this afternoon and the main tent was filled in spite of show-ers which fell this afternoon. The procession inside the tent was a good one, consisting of the bareback riders, clowns, chariots, etc. The herd of performing elephants, in charge of MIle. Zord, were much appreciated, as was Mazeppa, the posing horse. Kas and Mo, the twin baby elephants, in charge of Miss Roberts, were very interesting, es pecially to the children. The clowns, Indians, acrobats, and the military act in which a, human be ing is shot from . carnon, all zame in for their share of applause from the audence. The Stadium Trio, Delo mead Sisters, Kelly Brothers, and Maud Johnston were also good. The afternoon show closed with chariot races, etc. The doors will open for the evening performance al 7 o'clock and the circus will leave town tonight, going to McMinnville from here.

BY CHAUTAUQUA BOARD ALBANY MAY GET A STOVE FACTORY

> Proposition Was Submitted to Commercial Club Last Evening.

> BONUS OF $10,000 WOULD BE NECESSARY IN THE DEAL

> Senator Chamberlain Says Local Post Office Bill Is Continued.

Albany can secure the Lowenberg Stove Factory now located at Salem, provided a bonus of $10,000 is given. Such was the proposition brought to the attention of the Albany Commer-cial Club at its regular meeting last ugint. The stove works would re-quire two acres of graund and would employ many people, while it is said a payroll of $20,000 a year could be developed. The matter was discussed for a short time and referred to the club at length on the value of factories and encouraged the Lowenberg proposi-short time and referred to the com-mittee on factories for investigation. I. W. Rivers, of this city, a manu-facturer of wood novelties and other souvenirs, asked the club for a place to exhibit his products on either Lyon or First street. Referred to the com-mittee on eivic improvemet. Dr. M. H. Ellis, president of the ference to securing the assistance of the office force of the Commercial Club to assist the committees, pro-vided it did not interfere with the regular club work. A motion to this effect was made. The Commercial Club was given power to establish headquarters on the Chautauqua grounds. A letter from Senator George E.

BLOUNT & BABB GET

bany.

NEW BUILDING CONTRACT

OLMSTEAD HELD LAST NIGHT

A large crowd of music lovers of given last evening at the United Presbyterian church beginning at 8 o'clock.

local conservatory of music.

trude Young, soprano.

At the office of Architect W. R.

Hand, the bids were opened last night

for the erection of the Carter & Rob-

& Babb, a local firm of contractors, proved to be the lowest bidders and

MUSIC RECITAL OF MISS AMY

grounds.

headquarters on the Chautauqua grounds. A letter from Senator George E. Chamberlain to the club stated that the bill providing for an additional appropriation of $10,000 for the con-struction of the Albany postoffice had been continued a week. The management of the State Fan Association in a letter to the club want Albany and Linn county to have an exhibit at the fair this year in September. Henry Struckmier of Linn county was suggested as a good man to assemble an exhibit and W. A. Eastburn and F. M. French were ap-pointed to consult with the county court and select a man for the work. The following were in attendance at

The following were in attendance at the meeting last night: Messrs. East-burn, Stewart, Bain, Fortmiller, Van Winkle, Shinn, Crowell, Schmitt, Hammer, Nutting, Winn, and Col-burg lins.

George Dorr, of this city, went out to Lebanon this morning on a short business trip. YOUNG PEOPLE'S CHRISTIAN UNION MFFTS TANIGHT AT RAPTIST CH A. Armstrong, of Roseburg, is in the Hub City today looking after business interests.

Local traveling men leaving this morning were F. H. Stickley, Jerry Donovan and Jack Gardiner.

James Blackburn, of Brownsville, arrived this morning and will spend a few days in the Hub City.

Miss May Miller of Halsey arrived in Albany this morning on a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. Hattie Saylor.

A. W. Docksteader, a local dealer in fuel, went out to Lebanon this morning to look after business matters.

James Curry, of Nashville, Oregon, visiting friends in Albany for a few ays. He is a former resident of this

T. Schroeder, of Oakland, and n Schroeder, of Lyons, are look-after business matter in Albany

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Cramer, of Stayton, arrived in Albany last night and will spend a few days here visit-ing friends.

VIRGIL PARKER OF JUNIOR CLASS WAS TOASTMASTER

Graduation Exercises and Alumni Banquet Are Next on Program.

Twenty girls and nineteen boys, composing the graduating class of Al-bany High School, were guests of honor last night at a banquet given them by the Junior class, at the St. Francis hotel grilfroom. Wirgil Parker, 'I3, president of the Junior class, officiated in a capable manner as toastimascer and the fol-lowing students responded with toasts appropriate to the occasion: Miss Pearl Baker, 'I3, Ralph Kenton, 'I2; Prof. L. A. Marquam; Dean Crowell, 'I2; Miss Clara Morgan, 'I2, and Miss Frances Rannalls, 'I3. The tables in the grilfroom had been arranged in the shape of a horse-shoe and were artistically decorated with Albany roses and carnations, presenting a most attractive appear-ance. The banquet which had been prepared by the clef of the St. Fran-cis, consisted of seven courses and was thoroughly enjoyed by the students. The lanquet began at 9 o'clock and continued until nearly midnight, the girls and boys singing their favorat songs and giving their class yells. The lance at the St. Francus last, nyit will always be a pleasert mean ory to the who vere present, and is one of the principal feautres of Commencement were. Tomorrow night at the First Meth-odist church, the graduation exercises will be held, an entertaining program having been prepared for the evening when the biggest class to leave the local high school in its history will be awarded their "sheep-skins." Tollowing the graduation exercises, will be held, an entertaining program having been prepared for the evening when the biggest class to leave the local high school in its history will be held, and on Friday the entire class will be held, an entertaining program having been prepared for the evening when the biggest class to leave the local high school in its history will be held, and on Friday the entire class will be held, an entertaining program having been prepared for the evening when the biggest class to leave the bed, and on Friday the entire class will be held, and on friday the entire class will be held. The following members of son building on First street. Blount the contract was let to that firm. The plans for the heating system are incomplete, but as soon as they are finished the contract will be let for that portion of the work. All work and labor on the new building will be performed by residents of Al-bany.

this city attended the piano recital of Miss Amy Olmstead which was relock. 1912!" At the banquet at the St. Francis (reatly last night the following members of the high school faculty were in at-tendance: Prof and Mrs. Boetticher, Principal Lloyd A. Marquam, Prof. Wood, and the Misses Nelson, Black-s Ger-well, Miller, Galloway, B. Ireland, Dunston, and A. Ireland. Miss Olmstead charmed her hearers with her playing which was greatly appreciated and her work clearly dem-onstrated the value of a course in the Olmstead was assisted by Miss Ger-

MUSIC TEACHERS DECLARE

MEETS TONIGHT AT BAPTIST CHURCH

San Francisco, May 28 .--- Music San Francisco, May 28.—Music teachers of the state must secure a license to ply their trade in Califor-nia if the objects of an association started in Chico today are fulfilled. Plans already are being outlineds to draw up a bill to be presented to the state legislature which will call for the licensing of music teachers. The object is to do away with the "rag-ging pianist" and the person who "plays by ear" as music teachers. The regular meeting of the Y. P.

WAR ON RAGTIME

SOCIETY WOMEN FIGHT FOR BULL PUP

WOULD ABOLISH CAPITAL
 PUNISHMENT IN OREGON
 PUNISHMENT IN OREGON
 Philip E, Bauer, superintendent of the Oregon Prisoners' Aid Society, with headquarters at Salem, is in Alband tive bill, having for its purpose the abolishment of oregon.
 When seen by the Democrat

THE JAIL YAWNS FOR MORE BOARDERS

No Cases of Improper Conduct Reported at Police Quarters and Daughtry Anxious.

With the doors of the city bastile wide open and not a single case of drunkenness or larceny reported to police headquarters to four o'clock this afternoon. Chief of Police Ellis Daugufry is wondering if the exceed ingly quiet day is but the calm before the storm which will break out in the residence and business section this evenine. evening.

"Never before," says Daughtry, "have I witnessed such an orderly crowd on circus day. Not a single arrest has been made and not a single case of improper conduct has been re-ported at headquarters. With the usual crowd which usually follows in the train of the average circus, it would not surprise me in the least if a number of cases of burglary are re-ported this evening."

LEBANON RESIDENTS ARE RAPIDLY COMPLETING BERRY FAIR PLANS

Lebanon, Or., May, 28,—The prospects were never brighter for the strawberry fair and rose and horse show than they are in Lebanon this year. The soliciting committee called everyone responded liberally. Everyon the business men last week and body seems enthused and working harmoniously for one purpose and that is to make a grand success of this year's show. The program for the three days follows: —The day June 5.—Livestock day, 10:30 parade of fine stock and judging and awarding of prizes for the same; 1:30 p. m., addresses on good roads by several prominent speakers; to a support of the stock and judging and awarding of prizes for the same; 1:30 p. m., addresses on good roads by several prominent speakers; bay 10:30 parade of fine stock and judging and awarding of prizes for the same; 1:30 p. m., addresses on good roads by several prominent speakers; bay 10:30 awarding prizes for berries and societies and awarding prizes for berries and societies and awarding prizes for the best decorated automobile. —Saturday, June 8—Grange Day, 10:30, Governor West will address the grange. The afternoon will be taken up with athletic sports, under the direction of Professor Ford, who will have several teams from different parts of the valley. —The strawberry and flower exhibiting the surpass any ever made during the far.

TACOMA MAN BUYS INTEREST IN COMPANY

Charles Hulen, formerly of Ta-coma, Washington, has purchased the interest of Mr. Cline in the Multa Machine Company which is located at the corner of Calapooia and Sec-at the corner of Catapoon and Steeds, ond streets, Mr. Hulen is a son-in-law of Geo. C. Hamilton of this city and expects to move his family to Albany within the next ten days

Mrs. F. L. Sanborn, of Wasco, was visiting friends here yesterday, while here stopping at the St. Charles hotel. Hutchinson brothers, living a few miles south of Albany, are bringing in some fine home-grown strawber-ries which they have been placing in various stores. Rev. S. A. Douglas, for several various stores.

Rev. S. A. Douglas, for several years pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, left at noon today for Ashland, where he will make his future home, having accepted the pastorate of the Baptist church there.
F. P. Devaney, a pioneer of Linn county, returned to his home in Lebanon this afternoon after a short business trip to Albany.
Mr. Kate Devalue of Mill City is at the First Baptist church to which members of all young people's societies are invited to attend and bring their friends. A prayer and son, service will be held and the lesson will be on the subject of "Faith, Hope and Love," three essentials in the life of a true Christian. The evening's

C. U. will be held tonight at 8 o'clock program includes both vocal and in on time-exactly at 10 a.m. and mem-bers of McPherson Post will meet at 9 a.m. on the morning of May 30th. Preparations for the day are properly understood, so that nothing may mar the exercises.

JOHN CATLIN, Adjutant.

Civic Improvement Club.

This club will give one of its popu-In social teas on next Friday after-noon at the home of Mrs. Fred Daw-son. An artistic program will be ren-dered and refreshments served, for which 25 cents will be asked. Every penny of the money given at these gatherings is to be applied to city improvements and will be judiciously expended. A broad and cordial invitation is extended to the ladies of the city and gentlemen also, to be present.

Final examinations are making many a youngster scratch his head.

The Oregon jewelers, a fine lot of fellows, are now having a sparkling time in the metropolis.

Church prayers will be more effec-tive when they are made more to the Creator than the andience.

He will be absent all week He will be absent all week. Miss Aileen Leech, daughter off Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Leech of the Methodist Church, returned home to-day from Harrisburg, where she has been spending a few days at the Leech farm, "Brookfield."

Charles Wand, of the circulation department of the Portland Oregon-ian, is looking after business for his paper in Albany today.

Mrs. Lucille Minto and daughter, of Stayton, are visiting friends in Al-bany for a few days, while here stopping at the Van Dran hotel.

James R. Thompson, an electrical expert of note, who had charge of in-stalling the electric lights at the Lewis and Clark and Seattle Expositions, is in the city the guest of W. A. Barrett.

Robert S. Shaw, the well-known manager of the Hammond Lumber Company's Mill City properties, re-turned to Mill City this morning after a business trip to Portland and Al-

Mis+ Adela Vollstedt, who has been visiting at her home near Leba-nom for several days, returned to Cor-vallis today to resume her studies at the Q. A. C.

the Q. A. C. Miss Waneta Riley, of Newberg, is visiting in Albany for a few days, the guest of Miss Louise Pirtle of the St. Charles hotel. Miss Riley formerly resided in this city where she has many friends. The Misses Ruby and Flo Winkley, prominent Juniors at the local high school, went to Millersburg this morning, where they will visit for a few days with their parents, who re-side in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene La Forest of Fortland arrived in Albany today and will spend Memorial Day here with friends and relatives

Born, at noon today, May 27, to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkins, a boy. All doing well. This is their second child. Congratulations.

Oregon. When seen by the Democrat rep-resentative Mr. Bauer stated that he is making good progress with the pe-titions and finds that the sentiment of the people throughout the state is favorable to the proposed legislation.

Senator Chamberlain last week in a speech in the Senate on forestry con-when he declared: "Pinchot has been denounced as a despoiler. Instead he servation made a striking statement, should have a monument, and his name engraved upon it as the man who originated the idea of placing the resources of the government, tim-ber, coal, oil and iron, beyond the reach of monopolistic control."

A. F. Bodeker, a resident of Hoover, arrived in the city last night and is looking after business here today.

George King, a well-known resident of Portland, is in the city today, stopping at the Van Dran hotel.

Mrs. J. B. Thompson, of Dallas, was visiting friends in this city yester-day afternoon. She returned home to-day.

Orville Monteith, a popular student and athlete of the local bigh school, went to Portland this afternoon where he will spend the summer. Irely England is the name of a nam who registered last evening at the St Charles hotel, from Beaver Creek reach of monopolistic control."

Some one has figured out the evolution, of popular songs. Here it is:
Between 1860 and 1870 Battle Hymn of the Republic, Dixie and Silver a day.
 E. L. Shepkerd, of Mill City, was in the city today looking after busi-house.
 C. G. Boggs returned last night from a trip to Salem and other points in Marion county.
 Mrs. E. V. Preston, of Seattle, mother of Mrs. J. M. Ralaton of this city, died Susday at Fresno, Califor nia. The remains will be taken to Seattle for burni, Mrs. Kuhn, a sister of Mrs. Ralaton of this city, accom-manying the body from Fresno.
 The express from Lebanon the past tonight.

Prof. C. O. Hargrave, of Portland, passed through Albany at noon today to Lebanon where he has a music class. He also has several pupils

Charley Baldwin, a former Albany young man who has been located at Portland for several months, passed through Albany today to Roseburg

Portland for several months, passed through Albany today to Roseburg where he has accepted a position. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams, of Philomath, are visiting friends in Al-bany this afternoon. F. P. Lane, of Philomath, is in Al-bany this afternoon attending the cir-

CUS

X. W. Boom, of this city, went over to Corvallis this afternoon to look after affairs on his ranch near that city. Mr. Boom expects to move with his family to the ranch this fall.

A J. McCabe, a well-known residence of the season of the year.
 Moving a brick building is not the job it is cracked up to be.
 It takes a soher man to walk a tight rope or do anything clse well.

INTERNAL DRAFT