Can you imagine any ailment that will make a good natured person so peevish, dissatisfied, ill tempered and cranky as biliousness? There is no reason, whatever, why any one should suffer from indigestion, dyspepsia, torpid liver and loss of appetite, when Dr. Henley's Dandelion Tonic, which every one knows is a certain cure, can be so easily obtained. Ladies, do not ruin your complexion by the use of poisonous cosmetics and face powders. If your face is red or sunburned, if you are so unfortunate as to have pimples or blotches on the neck and face, Dardard's Specific will not cover them like a coat of paint but will most effectively remove all blemishes from the skin and restore them to its natural youthful bloom. I'm jolly and fat, though I needn't say that; for a glance at my size and a look in my eyes, and you plainly can see there's no flies upon me. I'm a little bit short both of breath and of hair, but from shoulders to knees you can see I'm all there. I smile and I laugh, I joke and I chaff; I refuse to be sad and I never get mad. But you'd never surmise where my happiness lies, so I'll up and confess what you never could guess. A good thing to eat is always a treat, which will make you as sweet as our sugar cured meat, makes you feel so content with the money spent that you're bound to feel glad; and you couldn't get mad though a man just as thin as a rail or a pin was to pull at your nose or tread on your toes. If you're fat or your'e lean, if you're pleasant or mean, just give W. & T. a show to sell you right low, you will feel such a thrill of contentment until you'll wish you were fat. For the feeling's sake your good groceries, pro crockery

The Champion Oarsman.
 WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—O'Connor, the oarsman, who defeated Teemer yesterday, will leave here about the middle of the week for San Francisco, where he expects to sail for Australia to meet the crack rowers of that country.

Going Abroad.
 CHICAGO, Nov. 24.—A Washington special says: The President has told a friend that Mrs. Cleveland and himself will sail for Europe early in May, and through a friend in New York have already engaged their state rooms. They will spend some time in England and reach Paris to attend the opening of the great exposition. The President has not decided how long he will stay abroad.

The Next House.
 WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—While not claiming a majority in the next House, the Democrats still insist that the chances are favorable to their having a majority of one or three. Neither party will give up until the official count is declared in every district.

Their Winters.
 NEW YORK, Nov. 25.—The first snow storm of the winter, which has been raging in this city along the seaboard of New England and the Middle states to-day, has been of blizzard vigor. In the harbor several ships dragged their anchors under the force of the storm, and were towed to a safe anchorage with great difficulty.

Alaska Fisheries.
 SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—Oliver Smith, superintendent and one of the owners of the Kodiak Packing Company, has returned from the island of Kodiak, Alaska, by the bark Lizzie Williams. He says: "There were four canneries running during the season which has just closed there. My company put out 25,000 cases, the Aleutian Island Trading & Fishing Company 33,000 the Karluk Company 101,000 the Arctic Company 37,000 making in all 197,000 cases."

Remarkable Coincidence.
 WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 22.—A marked feature of the election returns of this state is the fact that on the face of the returns in the first district, Atkinson, rep., has 13 majority for congress, in the third, McGines rep., has 13 majority, and in the fourth, C. B. Smith, rep., has 13 official majority.

HOES, SHOES, SHOES.—In this line we have always shown the very best goods to be found in the markets of America, the knife will be put to goods in this department as they must go. Call and see for yourself.
