That learning which thou gettest by thy own observation and experience is far beyond that which thou gettest by precept; as the knowledge of a traveler exceeds that which is got by reading.

Knowledge and wisdom, far from being one, have oftentimes no connection. Knowledge dwells in heads replete with thoughts of other men; wisdom in minds attentive to their own.

Doctor Jack: "How's this—on the sick list?" Algy: "Ya-as. Weally, I can't stand this wild life! Thwee cigawettes and a glass of wine lawst night, and had to get up this morning before 9. I must weform."

A Morphine Fiend's Death.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—About two weeks ago James Holey and two other young men were arrested in a back room on Clay street as being addicted to excessive use of morphine. All three were in a terrible condition, their bodies being covered with sores from injections of the drug. They were sent to the house of correction but Holey's condition becoming worse he was transferred to the city and county hospital. He escaped from there, and was found to-day in the Chinese quarter, hobbling along in search of a haunt where he could satisfy his craving for the drug. He was so far gone, however, that he fell to the ground, shortly after being discovered, and died soon after he was taken to the receiving hospital.

Wants to Cliché the People.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Now that the proposed railroad trust has fallen through, it is stated that a scheme is on foot to unite all roads west of Chicago under one management, by the lease of a great railroad syndicate, the stockholders to be guaranteed 5 per cent.

A Big Leap.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The Chinese question, it seems, will again demand the attention of congress this session. Representative Morrow of California said last night upward of 500 Chinamen had arrived at Victoria, B. C., since last August. It is his belief that nearly all of this number have gradually worked their way across the frontier to the United States. At a meeting of the immigration committee this week Morrow will urge upon his fellow members the advisability of proceeding to British Columbia and investigating the matter from that standpoint.

For a Life Saving Station.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—Among the bills introduced in the house to-day was one by Hermann, appropriating $18,000 for the construction of a life-saving station and light-house at the mouth of the Coquille river, Or.

An Old Man.

ASTORIA, Or., Dec. 5.—Judge J. W. Moffett died this morning at St. Mary's hospital, aged 83 years. The funeral will be from the hospital at 1:30 to-morrow afternoon and the interment will be at Clatsop cemetery. The funeral will be under the auspices of Temple.

An Easy Job.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 5.—The stage from Mendocino to Ingrams, the terminus of the North Pacific Coast railroad, was stopped by a robber last night six miles north of Ingrams. The driver was compelled to throw off the express-box and two mail sacks, which the highwayman secured and then allowed the stage to proceed on its way. The loss is not known.

Its Limit.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The river and harbor committee spent several hours to-day in the work on the details of the bill for the next fiscal year. The committee has fixed $10,000,000 as the aggregate amount of appropriations to be carried by the bill.

Dandruff is probably one of the most difficult diseases of the scalp to cure, but Dandruff's Specific never fails to remove it permanently. Soreness after shaving is instantly relieved by its use.

For weak and delicate women nothing builds up the entire system more thoroughly and effectively than Oregon Kidney Tea. It is especially adapted to diseases peculiar to the sex, is pleasant to take and in every instance proves of great value. Oregon Kidney Tea is composed of herbs found in Oregon, is put up in neat tin boxes, and can be prepared fresh by simply steeping in hot water. It contains no mineral substance what ever, is pleasant to take and never fails to cure kidney or urinary troubles.

Highland, Clackamas county, Or., March 20. I have suffered with a disease of the kidneys for 6 or 7 years and for the last two months have been laid up with a pain in my back. A friend sent me a sample of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and having used it one week I can do a good day's work. I have derived more benefit from it than from all the medicines I have ever taken.
