POKES FUN AT Us .- We always like a joke, even if it pinches, particularly from a paper like the Astoria Piencer, which every week or two has a column article filled with dust worn patent medicine cuts thrown out by Noah when he passed over Oregon. Here it is: "The Albany papers Oregon. Here it is: "The Albany papers are publishing wood cuts purporting to be sketches of Yaquian bay, showing the wrecked ateamship. The cut in Tuesday's DEMOCRAT looked like the impression left in the mud by an old gum boot heel with the corners wore off, and the Herald's sketch looked like the picture of a section of diseased liver, as is shown in the before taking' cut in a patent medicine almanac."

STOLE THE TEAM, -Recently Mr. Frady brother-in-law of Fritz Huffman, sent a team over to the farm of R. D. Murray, in charge of a man going by the name of Smith. A Surious Joke. On the evening of the battle among the Chinese highlanders at Portand Mrs. Molife Harris stood at the front gate of her home, awaiting the arrival of her hip-hend to supper.
