The Yaquina Bay will without doubt go to pieces, all efforts to get her off the rocks having proved unavailing. It is not safe to attempt to run large vessels into such a small unsafe harbor.—Telegram.

Yes, that kind of an attempt has been made several times at the mouth of the Columbia river and on more than one occasion was followed by disastrous consequences.

DRINKING A FARM.

My homeless friend with the chronic nose, while you are stirring up the sugar in the 10-cent glass of gin, let me give you a fact to wash down with it. You say you have longed for years for the free, independent life of the farmer, but have never been able to get enough money together to buy a farm. But this is just where you are mistaken. For several years you have been drinking a good improved farm at the rate of 100 square feet a gulp. If you doubt this statement figure it out yourself. An acre of land contains 43,460 square feet.
Estimating for convenience the land at $43.56 per acre, you will see that it brings the land to just 1 mill per square foot. Now pour down the fiery dose and imagine you are swallowing a strawberry patch. Call in five of your friends and have them help you gulp down that 500 foot garden. Get on a prolonged spree some day, and see how long a time it requires to swallow a pasture large enough to feed a cow. Put down that glass of gin; there's dirt in it—100 feet of good, rich dirt, worth $43.56 per acre.— Bob Burdette.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Fighting a R. R.

ABLINGTON, Or., Dec. 17.—Rasmus Larson was bound over by Justice Ebl's court in this city to-day in the sum of $500 for committing a depredation on the Heppner branch railroad. This is, in effect, a continuation of the trouble between Larson and the O. R. & N. Co. which some months ago resulted in Larson being sentenced to serve a term in the county jail here, and is an aggravated case on both sides. Larson and the company have been unable to come to terms for a right of way through the farmer's land, and as the road was built on the land anyway, he has at different times torn up the tracks and stopped the trains, and this last time stopped the mail, for which offence he will be taken to Portland for trial to-night by deputy U. S. Marshal Waite.

Quite Prosperous.

BOSTON, Dec. 17.—The Oregon Short Line Railway Company's statement for October shows the earnings to be $288,000 an increase of $117,000. The surplus deducting expenses, is $149,000 an increase of $74,000. For the months to October 31st the earnings were $2,184,000 an increase of $537,000. Surplus $999,000 an increase of $433,000.

Tried to Wreck a Train.

DIXON, Cal., Dec. 17.—A freight train running ahead of time ran into an abstrac-tion between Dixon and Tremont this morning, about 3 o'clock. The train was running slowly, and no damage resulted.
The obstruction consisted of five whistling posts which had been pulled up at the two stations, and the object evidently was to derail the Oregon express, of which Richard Moore is conductor. This is the third attempt to wreck the train of which he is conductor.

A Costly Lot.

SPOKANE FALLS, Dec. 17.—One of the largest real estates transfers made in Spokane for some time was the sale to-day of a lot on the southwest corner of Riverside avenue and Stevens street. The lot has a frontage of sixty feet on Riverside avenue, and extends 100 feet on Steven street. It was sold by Dr. B. F. Birch to Rollin Hyde for $60,000. At present the site is occupied by three little one story offices.

War Claims.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—In the Senate to-day the secretary of the treasury reported that $63,241.28 had been paid the state of Oregon in settlement of the Modoc Indian war expenses. Senator Stewart has reported favorably the bill to provide the Oregon militia with arms and munitions of war, and the bill throwing open abandoned military reservations in Nevada to homestead settlement.

A City Election.

PENDLETON, Dec. 17.—At the city election, held to-day, 598 votes were cast. Numerous candidates were in the field, politics cutting little figure in the strife. The result is as follows: Mayor, W F Mallock; councilmen, R G Thompson and L Liver-more; recorder, C R Carter; marshal, C O French; treasurer, James Howard.

CHRISTMAS COMING.—While hunting for holiday presents do not fail to call at Will & Starks and examine their fine stock of chains, fobs, earrings, breastpins and jewelry generally. Also silver plated ware, clocks, etc. There are no more suitable presents in the market.

WE WANT.—Your butter and eggs and will pay you either cash or trade for it.
