HOW IT WAS DONE.
Touching the manner in which votes were bought by the wholesale in Indiana under the skillful management of Quay and Dudley, Professor Dabney of the Indiana University located at Bloomington in that state, writing to the New York Post says:
"In order to get a view of practical politics with his own eyes (no matter how disgusting the sight,) and to see how far, if at all, our actual political system agrees with the fine phrases of the orators who tell us that in this glorious land every citizen is a sovereign and every chair a throne, the writer spent the greater part of election day at the polls, and there witnessed a most instructive, if not edifying, spectacle. But it must not be supposed that the wily workers deferred till election day their struggle for possession of the floats. All day Monday, on the contrary, the battle raged; and when the shades of night settled down over Bloomington, probably more than a hundred of the voting cattle had been corralled in various buildings, with sentries to guard them against surprise by the foe. Among the places that served as pens for these drunken floaters may be mentioned the office of the leading republican paper of the county and the hall of the local G. A. R. Post. The use of this hall for such a purpose drove one of the veterans to hand in his resignation, and to declare that he would no longer be a member of such a body.
Thus far, however, I have heard of only one who took this stand. Wagon-loads of floaters had also been transported into the surrounding country, ready to be brought back with a rush to the polls at sunrise. As Harrison carried Indiana, and Monroe County showed heavy Republican gains, it is hardly necessary to state that the majority of these wretched creatures were captured by that Grand Old Party of Great Moral Ideas, which possesses a monopoly, not only of wool, wheat, pig-iron, etc., but also of virtue."
That Dudley and his crowd of bribers bought votes enough to turn a democratic majority of 6000 into a republican majority of 2000 in that state is not doubted by any intelligent man in that state.

NEW WASH HOUSE.
Lee Chisman, who lived in this town for many years and was so well liked by everybody has returned and will open up a new wash house the first of September, one door south of the Ravers House. Lee does good work and wants everybody to get their washing done by him.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS
Trouble Feared.
PARIS, Dec. 18.—Owing to fears that the canal company's difficulties may give rise to disorders on the Isthmus, the French government has decided to send a man-of-war to Colon to protect the French interests. It is expected the United States will send two.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—It is said at the navy department that a vessel will probably be sent to Colon to protect American interests in Panama. But steps have not yet been taken in that direction. It is customary to station a vessel in that neighborhood during the winter season. Nothing is known of any trouble on the isthmus.
They Certify.
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Dec. 18.—In spite of the injunction served on the county commissioners Saturday night, they certified to the governor the returns of the election as to congressman in this county.
Only $41,000.
SPOKANE FALLS, Dec. 18.—The price paid for the property bought by Rollin Hyde from Dr. Birch, on Riverside avenue, was $41,000 not $60,000 as at first reported, making the price per front foot $680, and not $1000. The high price first reported caused alarm among business people, who thought somebody was trying to inflate a boom. The price was not too high considering the location of the property in the business portion of the city. The real estate market is active. Most of the sales are in residence lots and dwellings, which are very reasonable.
A Monopoly.
SYRACUSE, N. Y., Dec. 18.—It transpires, that all the brewers of Syracuse will sell to an English syndicate for an estimated aggregate of $1,500,000.
A Furious Blizzard.
PORTLAND, Me., Dec. 18.—A furious blizzard is raging in this section. Steamers will not proceed until the storm abates. The Boston boat, arriving this morn, had one of the roughest times she has ever experienced.
They Fight.
JACKSON, Tenn., Dec. 18.—A desperate fight occurred between negroes and whites in a remote part of this county Friday. It grew out of a law suit. The fight occurred in court. Several persons were badly hurt.
The negroes sent to this city Sunday for ammunition, and armed with guns, pistols and knives. They swear they will not be arrested. Officers went from here to arrest them. The result is not known. Serious trouble is not feared.
Postal Notes.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The postoffice at Glenn, Malheur county, Oregon, will be discontinued from Dec. 20.
Postoffices have been established at Crescent, Crook county, Oregon, and at Sunnyside, Clackamas county, Oregon, and Leslie Powell and John R. Welch appointed postmasters of the respective offices.

tler will make a flash light picture of the masqueraders as well as of all present. If you are fond of sweet music come and listen to Crawford's orchestra.—Tickets, $1.50.

holiday presents do not fail to call at Will & Starks and examine their fine stock of goods, consisting of gold and silver watches, chains, fobs, earrings, breastpins and jewelry generally. Also silver plated ware, clocks, etc. There are no more suitable presents in the market.

shoes, 100 pairs, all different, No 7's, best in the city, at G. W. Simpson's. They bargains anywhere.

knife will be put to goods in this department as they must go. Call and see for tunity ever offered to buy a stylish wrap at
