Julius Gradwohl is now making a specialty of crockery, fancy goods and silver ware, of which he carries a large and select stock. His silver ware is 1847 Roger Bros. his stock of crockery is the best in the market and his line of dolls and children's play things generally is complete. His prices are the lowest on the coast.

All through the autumn there has been an army of workmen in the Grants new house on Seventy-third street, which was purchased with the proceeds of the General's book, and cost complete, I am told, something like $200,000. It is a big house, with room enough for Mrs. Sartoris and her children, who will probably spend much of her time there in the future. The sons, too, will be there with their families from time to time, as Mrs. Grant means the house to be the home and centre of the entire family. The first guest in the new house will be the wife of President-elect Harrison, who is an old friend of Mrs. Grant, and even before her husband was nominated promised to come to the new house for a long visit as soon as it was done. Originally the intention was simply a reunion of two quiet elderly friends, but as matters now stand Mrs. Grant will probably throw open her doors and invite the great world to meet the new first lady of the land. Mrs. Levi P. Morton, who has a handsome house on Fifth avenue, three doors from the one that was occupied through the campaign by the Republican national committee, will try to induce Mrs. Harrison to be her guest during a portion of her stay. They have never met, but have been vigorously corresponding during the campaign and have exchanged photographs.

A dispatch from Troy New York says: There are already indications that the new year will usher in hard times for wage earners. The first notes of the storm come from the direction of Cohoes and the Mohawk valley, where the knittingmill owners have announced a reduction of 15 per cent in wages, beginning January 1st. There is very little doubt that other mill men and factory men, following the example of the knit-goods manufacturers, will soon cut wages. This, it will be noticed, comes in the face of the ante-election promises that the election of Harrison meant high wages. Thus does the campaign of education go right along. The protected manufacturers now propose to make back all the money they had to contribute to elect Harrison and they propose to take it out of the wages of the labor people.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

The Right Way.
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 25.—There were rare scenes at the exposition building to-day the occasion being the distribution of presents to the children of the poor from the Post Dispatch Christmas tree, for which a fund of nearly $10,000 had been subscribed by the general public. The subscriptions were started with 10 cent contributions with no idea of the magnitude the affair was going to assume and the results exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the projectors. Fully 15,000 children received presents and for hours the streets in the vicinity of the exposition building were blocked with humanity.

A Big Fire.
MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Dec. 25.—12:30 A. M.—Marblehead is on fire. The entire business portion is in ruins, and a dozens firms are burned out. Also the Boston & Maine depot and several other buildings. It is the largest fire that ever visited this city, and the people are panic-stricken. The telegraph office has been destroyed. This dispatch is sent with great difficulty, over a hastily improvised wire and communication is liable to be interrupted at any moment. It is estimated that seven acres have been burned over, and the entire loss will be at least $500,000.

A Terrible Accident.
NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 25.—The steamboat John H. Hanna, from the Ouachita river, with a large number of passengers, was burned last night at Plaquemine, La. It is stated that of 100 persons on board, only fourteen are known to have been saved. The John H. Hanna was built in Madison, Ind., in 1876, and hailed from Louisville, Ky.; she was of 377 tonnage, and was owned by the Ouachita River Consolidated line. She was valued at $18,000 and was insured for $12,000 in local and foreign companies.

Six Drowned.
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 25.—One of the saddest accidents of the year occurred this afternoon about 5 o'clock in which six persons lost their lives. A party of seven, consisting of Andrew Zeigel, his sister, Kate Zeigel, George Stump and wife, Matt Cox, Mary Morale and a boatman whose name could not be learned, were all drowned but the boatman while boating near the Six Mile house yesterday.

An Opium Smuggler Arrested.
SEATTLE, Dec. 25.—Alex Hansen, formerly of Snohomish, was arrested early this morning while trying to get into a China house. On his person were found packages of opium, which he confessed he had smuggled.

Bold Robbers.
TRUCKEE, Cal., Dec. 25.—The express car on the east-bound overland train was robbed last night two miles east of Clipper Gap. Bob Johnson, the express messenger, says he was sitting at his desk and his helper was sorting out packages to be left at Colfax, when suddenly the glass transoms over the two doors, one on each side of the car, were broken in simultaneously and two revolvers thrust through, covering both messengers. Johnson was compelled to open the door and let one robber in, being ordered to keep one hand held up. The other robber reached inside and unlatched the door, letting himself in. He then covered the messenger, while the first robber took from the safe all the coin packages, which he placed in a game pouch slung across his shoulder.
