TIN WARE AND HARDWARE OF ALL KINDS AT DEYOE & ROBSON

PAINTS, OILS AND BRUSHES AT DEYOE & ROBSON'S.

HINTS TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

Neither colored goods nor flannels should be boiled.

All goods in barrels—apples, beef, potatoes, etc.—keep better when laid down on their side.

Soda should never be used for flannels, and if they are to be kept in good condition they should be neither mangled nor ironed.

Mattings should be washed with strong salt water and a clean cloth, and do it, if possible, at midday, to insure quick drying, which prevents discoloration.

To remove rust from steel forks and knives cover with sweet oil, well rubbed on, and let it remain forty-eight hours; then rub with unslacked lime, powdered very fine, until the rust disappears.

To remove stains from marble, mix a quantity of the strongest soap lyes with quicklime to the consistency of milk; lay it on the marble and let it be for twenty-four hours, then clean with soap and water.

If butter is covered tight when put in the ice chest it will not absorb the odor of any food lying near. There is nothing so sensitive as butter, and you may see it at any time placed near to meat or vegetables.

To clean and tighten cane-seat chairs turn up the chair bottom and with hot water and a sponge wash the cane work so that it may be thoroughly soaked. Should it be dirty use a little soap. Let it dry in the air, and it will be as tight and firm as when new.

Jo. Simon, president of the senate, and general boss and manager of the republican party, plainly shows his extreme party bias by giving the democrats one member out of five on the Judiciary, Public Lands, Roads and Highways and Assessment committees. This is very ungenerous to say the least. The Willamette Valley has no representation on the railroad committee. Was this the result of design? Dawson of Linn gets no chairmanship at all, although this is his second session in the senate. Quite a number of republican senators elected last June for the first time have chairmanships. The granger stands no show where Joe Simon rules.
