TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Negro Troubles.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 16.—A Times-Democrat special from Jackson, Miss., says: Private information has been received by Governor Lowry that the mob law continues to exist in the Southern part of Noxubee and the Northern part of Kemper counties, and that the negro's cabins are being burned and destroyed. The present lawlessness grew out of Wahalak troubles. The governor is informed that the avengers are still wreaking vengeance upon the negroes. Governor Lowry writes to the sheriff to call out a sufficient force to put down the lawlessness and arrest all guilty persons promptly. Over forty negro families have been run out of the counties and their cabins burned.

S. F. to be Afflicted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—Frank Hall, who has managed a number of walking matches in different parts of the country, has arrived here from the East with several pedestrians to arrange for a six days go as you please contest, to commence at the Mechanics' Pavilion in this city February 21. The pedestrians who accompanied Hall are Robert Vint, Thomas Howarth and E. C. Moore. Among the other celebrities who will take part in the contest are Albert Hart, Noremac, Herty and Guerrero. It is expected that fully 100 men will start. Hart expresses confidence in his ability to beat Littlewood's record.

Another Cabinet Officer.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Chairman Hatch, of the house committee on agriculture and a member of the conference committee having in charge the bill creating a cabinet office out of the bureau of agriculture says that the bill will become a law, and there is a probability of General Harrison having another cabinet officer to select.

Trouble Feared.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Adamson, United States consul general at Panama on the 22 inst. received a communication from the general department of Panama, stating that, although the local government would do all in its power to preserve peace and order, it feared that disturbances of the public peace might follow the suspension of work on the Panama canal, which suspension is expected.

Very Bold.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 16.—The Villeparil Bank at Hull, across the river was robbed of $7600 yesterday by a man whose confederate was a little girl. They called the cashier away momentarily by saying that a priest outside wanted to see him. There is no clue to either the man or the girl.

Striking Them.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 16.—The Northwest is experiencing severe weather. Heavy snow has fallen throughout Dakota and Minnesota, and strong winds to-night are drifting it badly. There will be bad delays in all kinds of transportation. Grand Forks reports a blizzard, with snow a foot deep. The thermometer is at zero as Watertown and going lower.

Change in Business.

All parties knowing themselves indebted to the firm of Thompson & Waters, either by note or account, must come forward and settle the same within thirty days, as there is going to be a change in their business. Brownsville, Or., Jan. 1st, 1889.
