They Pay For Fun.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The receipts of some of the principal theaters of this city for the season thus far shown as follows: In a run of twenty weeks "The Old Homestead" has been witnessed by 446,000 persons in exchange for $280,000; the Coquelin Heading people in three weeks gathered in $116,000; Mary Anderson's engagement footed up $79,000 an average of over $13,000 per week; Mrs. Potter's first six performances of "Cleopatra" cleared $9000; Joseph Jefferson in two weeks took in $11,500; Booth and Barrett in eight weeks played to the tune of $104,000; Nady in 150 nights earned over $175,000 and at the same house Gilbert and Sullivan's "Yeomen of the Guard" drew $1100 nightly for fifty nights. Thus far at 10 per cent of the gross receipts, Mrs. Frances Hodgson Burnett has realized $6000 from "Little Lord Fauntleroy."

Wanted to Lynch Them.

FORT WORTH, Texas, Jan. 20.—A dispatch received late last night says that Sheriff Richardson, of this county, received a telephone message at midnight from Graham, in Young county, to the effect that at about 10 o'clock last night, while the deputy United States marshal, with a posse of Graham citizens, was escorting the four Marlow brothers, Buck Hart and another man named Pierce Parker to the county jail at Weatherford, the prisoners being indicted for four murders and eight cases of horse theft, a mob of thirty citizens attempted to lynch them.

Left for Samoa.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—At 4 o'clock this afternoon the United States man-of-war Vandalia left Mare Island navy yard, in this harbor, bound for the Samoan islands, to be present at the seat of warlike disturbances.

Foul Murder.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.—The Republic's Brookfield, Mo., special says: At 10:30 last night the house of Mrs. Minnie Hall, a young widow with four children, four miles south of here burned, and when the neighbors gathered they found the charred remains of its occupants. The oldest child was nine years and the youngest about two. There being fresh snow on the ground it was discovered that they had been placed under the house and fire set to it.

An English Opinion.

LONDON, Jan. 20.—The Times says: "The Americans have no lack of excuse for strengthening their immigration laws. A good extradition treaty would probably banish from America more ruffians than a stringent immigration act would keep out of the country. It is impossible not to feel that things are to be made harder for the immigrant, chiefly to maintain the high rate of wages of American workmen."

Returned.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—Thomas B. Merry of Portland, one of the United States commissioners to the Melbourne exposition, will, with Mrs. Merry, leave to-morrow for Portland.

Had to Resign.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—General Thomas E. Moore has been succeeded in the command of the Salvation Army of America by Colonel Holtz. Serious charges of a financial nature were made against the general, and he was requested to resign by those who were dissatisfied with his rule.
