MORE MAD ITALIANS.—Yesterday six or seven more Italians arrived from the front, and of course wanted their pay from Searle & Dean, and when it was not forthcoming took matters into their own hands and began running the city. They were about to abduct Mr. Dean, but not being very many in numbers did not succeed in doing so. This morning their checks were bought up for 20 per cent discount and they are now scarce. The Italians, of course ought to be paid, and so had anyone else, whether Searle & Dean owe them or John Doe; but we do not know as they are entitled to greater privileges here than other people. Searle & Dean are solvent so far as is known and should be treated like other solvent men. The firm owe some white men. Instead of collecting by force they go to an Attorneys office. That is the difference between an American and an Italian. There are other people in Albany who owe for labor done; but we object most strenuously to the money being collected by mob violence. Civilized countries do not do things that way. Searle & Dean should be treated like other debtors until fraud is proven, which has not even been accused yet. The indications are that their creditors will be paid when the estimates on their work have been completed. As this seems to be a public matter it may be said that the mistake in the matter lay in giving checks where there was no money to meet them.

A PIECE OF HEMP.—Today Mr. W. L. Jester, S. P. Agent, exhibited to a DEMOCRAT man a strand from a piece of hemp rope, about three inches long. It has an interesting history. About three weeks ago at the mining town of Gilman, in W. T., a fiend, in revenge for a pretended injury, blew up a house with 50 lbs of dynamite, in which he supposed a man and his wife were sleeping. Two miners, instead, were in the bed, and were blown to atoms. The man was taken before Justice W. E. Vaughn, a brother of Mrs. Jester, for examination. A committee of men, though, took charge of him, and strung him up without any trial. The piece of rope received by Mr. Jester was one of the strands next to the man's neck, and it only took five inches of rope to reach around it so tight was it drawn. Gazing at this rope was the closest the DEMOCRAT ever got to Judge Lynch.

ANOTHER HON.—In its pen pictures the Salem Journal speaks of one of our Linn county Representatives as follows: "Mr. B. R. Morelock is a native of Tennessee and came to Oregon in '73 and was so well pleased with his change, that he forever made good-bye to his native home. He was born in Morristown, Tenn., in 1848, and was in that State when the war broke out. In politics Mr. Morelock is a democrat and was elected as a Representative from Linn county by his democratic friends. He is now located at Brownsville, Or., and is engaged in the milling business. This is his first public office, and he seems to be filling it very successfully."

QUARTERLY MEETINGS.—Rev. J. W. Craig will hold quarterly meetings as follows: Harrisburg, Feb. 2nd and 3rd; Liberty church, Feb. 9th and 10th; Junction, Feb. 16th and 17th; Center school house, Feb. 19th; Albany, Feb. 23rd and 24th.

PROSPECTING.—Mr. Shaftman, a Portland merchant, is in the city with a view opening a general merchandise store, providing he can rent a store. He has his eyes on the Senders & Sternburg corner. Several others are in the city talking of going into business.

CARPETS.—Finest line of carpets ever brought to Albany just received at A. B. Brownell's. His Brussels and velvet patterns attract great attention, being superb patterns.

Baby carriage at Stewart & Sox's.

OUR SALEM LETTER.

SALEM, Jan. 23rd, 1889.

Editors Democrat:

This is the tamest Legislature that Oregon has ever convened, that is at its present stage of development. Some say there were not candidates enough for U. S. Senator; others that the parties are not divided properly, etc. But the real cause is apparent that more attention will be given to making Governors and other State officers than to the merits of bills as they come up, unless it is to swamp them on the economy plan. There are several bills that will receive attention from this on, and their merits pointed out. The Railroad Commission bill will receive an amendment to enable the Legislature to appoint the Commissioners, and will probably make three Commissioners instead of two, with a provision that will make one of different politics from the others. This is talked of and it may pass. Much has been said of the school-book monopoly, but it looks as if it was all going to be thrown into the waste basket. The people generally do not understand it, and is there not a Caesar to explain it. We look for some interesting work next week. President of the Senate, Simons, and Speaker Smith are popular officers and seem to have prepared themselves for the labor before them. Mr. Simons, when this term shall have passed will have served twelve years in the State Senate. Multnomah makes a great many voted Republicans, but does not succeed in destroying any. The candidate for Governor and other officers are alive to the interest of their constituents. This is commendable and it will be appreciated by them, and envied only by rivals. Sojourner.

STATE LEGISLATURE

Thursday, Jan. 24th.

Some of the bills introduced: For a fish commission, appropriating navigable streams for logs, aiding Jackson county in construction of railroad from Jacksonville to Medford, establishing a home for fallen women. Several local bills were passed, such as changing name of Lincoln, Tillamook county to Lillamook, etc. The Senate adjourned until next Monday, at 2 o'clock.

BAY ITEMS.—The largest city in Oregon will eventually be built on Yaquina Bay, and in less than ten years time. [Sounds big anyway.]... Ala Harris is going to move to San Francisco, where he will locate. He will be missed from the Bay.... R. F. Baker, the real estate man of Newport, last week sold to a number of Portland men 211 lots in Phelps' addition to Newport. It is said to be one of the largest real estate transactions ever made in Newport.... A gentleman of means from New York is expected here shortly to look over the ground for the location of a first-class hotel.—Republican.

SAD CASE.—Special Deputy Kennedy brought down from Union to the asylum yesterday Armina Gardner, a poor girl with a pitiful history. She is only sixteen years old, born and raised in Baker county, and has been a cripple all her life, having no strength in her lower limbs. About two years ago a fiend by the name of Wiggins accomplished her ruin by force and is now serving a ten years' sentence in the penitentiary for the crime, but even this will be poor recompense to the poor creature, whose reason is dethroned for life.

STOCK INCREASED.—Supplemental articles of incorporation were filed in the clerk's office to-day, as well as in the secretary of state's office, increasing the capital stock of the Brownsville Woolen Mill Co. from $25,000 to $50,000, divided into 100 shares of $500 each. J M Moyer, F F Craft and J P Galbraith are the incorporators.

AN ALARM.—Some ashes thrown in the rear of the Star Brewery this morning caused some wood to catch on fire. An alarm was given, but the fire was easily put out without the aid of the apparatus.

DIDN'T RISE.—The cream didn't rise last night at the creamery meeting, and the prospects are that it will not in Albany. Our citizens do not seem inclined to invest in the matter.

SHAKE.—It does one good to see two friends meet and have a hearty shake. The two gents that met yesterday on First street, shook so long that a bystander asked them what was up. They replied that they were congratulating each other on having found the cheapest place to buy groceries at the Willamette Packing Co.'s store.

NEW LINE.—Of delicacies to tickle your palate, garlic, Swiss cheese, Milchner herring, mackerel, chow chow in bulk sold in quantities to suit, at the Willamette Packing Co.'s store.

CURIOSITIES.—Some very fine persimmons, Japanese oranges and sugar cane at F. H Pfeiffer's. Try them. It will cost you nothing to see them.

PURE MILK.—Mr. Henry Stewart has established a milk route in this city and asks for the patronage of our citizens. Tickets for sale at Brownell & Stanard's.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.—For the 24 hours beginning at 12 o'clock, noon. Clear.

BROWNESVILLE.

January 22, 1889.

Dr. I W Starr and wife visited Albany Tuesday.
Wm Cochran, of San Jose, was in our town several days of last week.
Mrs. S Carpenter, of Salem, spent a week visiting with her brother, O P Coshow, who is still confined to his room by malaria and rheumatic troubles.
Thos Kay goes to Salem the latter part of this week. The people there are still desirous of obtaining him to build them a woolen mill.
Hon. J B R Morelock, accompanied by Hon. A W Waters, spent the recess of the legislature at this place.
We are having revival meeting all around here. Rev. Robe and Rev. Elworthy have been conducting meetings in their respective churches on the south side. Rev. A Leroy, of Astoria, is conducting meetings in the Baptist church. Much interest is manifest in all the meetings.
With the exception of a few cases people are enjoying good health in this locality. Mrs Hugh Fields is still quite sick, and Mrs Florence is very low from consumption.
Wednesday all hands finished work at woolen mills. For the first time in sixteen years the mills are empty of every thing except machinery. However we are consoled with the thought that the new company will soon have the spindle buzzing again and that our main industry is merely taking a rest. The new company is already at work on needed repairs, procuring new machinery, etc, and it will not be long before our mills will be running with renewed vigor.

SCIO.

January, 23, 1889.

Messrs Henry Ramsey and Wid Bilyeu are engaged in getting out ties for the Narrow Gauge R R. They are working about twenty-four hands. Mr. Ramsey is an expert at the tie business and Mr. Bilyeu is "up and coming."
Rev. S T Miller and Rev. Steers held a two days debate at the Cole school house. Question debated was, "Is the soul conscious between death and the resurrection and did Christ set up a kingdom on this earth?" Rev. Miller affirmed, Rev. Steers denied. Both sides claimed the victory, but the general opinion is in favor of Mr. Miller.
The Good Templars, of this place, debated last night, whether prohibition or high license is the best method to treat the whisky business.
Mr. Henry Kinzer and Miss Emma Compton were united in marriage last Sabbath, at the residence of the bride's parents, Rev. Sperry, of Brownsville, officiating.
Rev. B T Moody, who has been holding a series of meetings in Salem and Eugene has returned to this place.

Mr. Archie Peery, of Dayton, has been visiting his brother, J H Peery.

A FINE BOOK.—Probably no book that has ever been introduced in Albany is of more real value than Cram's Family Atlas of the World. Besides a geography of the world in splendidly gotten up maps are departments devoted to history, political events, comparative debts, wealth, religious denominations, etc., in well gotten up and compact tables. Going with the work is the Geographical News, a paper giving the latest geographical events of the world. A young gentleman is now canvassing the city for this work, which deserves a good patronage.

WANTED.—A girl to do general house work. Good wages will be paid to a competent person. Inquire of Dr. G. W. Maston.

DR. W. H. DAVIS, Physician and Surgeon.

Office up stairs in Strahan's Block. May be found at his office day and night.

DR. G. WATSON MASTON Physician and Surgeon.
