The problem of a life saving dress which shall be what its name implies is one that has often been attempted, but in one point or other is as yet unsolved. A Michigan diver claims, however, to have discovered a solution.

The dress is a combination of a diver's suit and the famous Paul Boynton rig. It differs from the latter in that it is not inflated, and resembles the former in that a helmet with contrivances for seeing and breathing forms part of the outfit. The principal garment resembles a child's nightdress, being wide enough at the neck to admit the body, and possessing arms and legs. The neckband is fastened with a simple contrivance; and it is claimed that by means of a series of overlapping folds in the junction between the headpiece and the lower garment a person incased can breathe freely.

Around the waist is a peculiarly constructed life preserver, capable of supporting ten times the weight of a large man, and at the feet are leaden soles, the object of which is to maintain the wearer in an upright position in the water. It is claimed that a person can rig himself for herself—the garment is fitted for women as well as men—inside of two minutes, and that when once incased sinking is an absolute impossibility. The inventor claims that fully 50 per cent. of people who are supposed to have been drowned are in reality killed by exposure. To obviate this difficulty the rubber suit is constructed with a view to retaining the heat of the human body and at the same time to protect it from the water.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

Bather Stray.

AUCKLAND, Jan. 31.—Advices from Samoa state that the German officials have given notice that all vessels arriving there will be searched for contraband articles of war. They have suppressed the Samoa Times. A passenger on the British steamer Wainui, who visited Mataafa's camp, was placed under arrest, but was subsequently released, in compliance with the demand of the British consul. A proclamation has been issued placing the Apla police force under German control. Mataafa's followers number 6000, and they are strongly intrenched, and other Samoans are rapidly joining them. Upon the arrival of the steamer Richmond she was boarded and searched by the Germans.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—The published statement is made here this afternoon that the Union Iron Works have received a dispatch from Secretary Whitney ordering them to get the new cruiser Carrleton ready for sea within twenty days if possible regardless of extra cost.

A Prince Dead.

VIENNA, Jan. 31.—Prince Rudolph died in bed after a fatiguing day's hunting, of heart disease, the cardiac walls being ruptured. The body of the Crown Prince arrived on a special royal train from Baden this afternoon. The large crowds at the station and along the route to Hofberg doffed their hats and showed every mark of the deepest respect. The coffin was draped in velvet, embroidered with a gold cross. The bier was drawn by six horses and followed by Prince Hohenlohe, Selingfurst, grand master of the imperial household, the court chaplain other officers, with guards on each side. The remains are at home in the apartment of deceased, in Hofberg. The papers all print mourning editions and extol the dead prince's virtues.

Not So Here.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—The celebration of the Chinese New Year's has so far been exceedingly quiet. The Chinese of this city object to being forced to receive visits from the unwelcome whites, and many of them have closed and barred their doors to keep out intruders.

A Famine.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 21.—Word comes from China to-day by steamer that very considerable distress prevails. The fact is that many hundreds of thousands of the inhabitants are in a condition bordering on starvation. So great is the need of the sufferers that the Chinese authorities have been unable to cope with it alone, and have found themselves under the necessity of appealing to the charitable assistance, not only of their own countrymen, but of foreigners as well.

Idaho's Legislature.

BOISE CITY, Idaho, Jan. 31.—This is the fifty-third legislative day. The house passed unanimously a memorial to congress demanding statehood for Idaho, and measures defining the boundaries of Idaho county, and relating to licenses. A memorial demanding settlement of the Indian war claims, and a bill dividing Alturas county were considered in committee of the whole but without action.

He Resisted.

DUBLIN, Jan. 31.—William O'Brien was lodged in the Clonmel jail to-day, to undergo his four months sentence. He refused to remove his clothing and don the prison garb and the wardens did it by force, after a fierce struggle. His beard was shaved off in the same way. The struggle so exhausted that the wardens thought he was going to die and summoned a priest.

Even in Montana.

HELENA, Mon., Jan. 31.—There have been a good many remarkable winters in Montana, but the present one takes the blue ribbon over all its predecessors. There have not been to exceed a dozen days that could be called cold days since the fall season closed.

GOLDEN RULE BAZAAR.

Cash Goes a Long Ways at Julius Gradwohl's

I have made arrangements for buying goods direct from the factories in Europe and will sell at wholesale or retail, cheaper than any where else on the Pacific Coast. The following are some of my cash retail prices:

1/2 dozen unhandled tea cups and saucers, 35 cts.
1/2 dozen unhandled coffee cups and saucers, 45 cts.
1/2 dozen handled coffee cups and saucers, 50 cts.
1/2 dozen seven inch dinner plates, 45 cts.

These goods are all iron stone China and not a cheaper grade of goods. I have also added a good stock of groceries, which I ask people to call and examine and judge for themselves as to quality and prices.
