Mrs. Folsom, mother of Mrs. Grover Cleveland, has grown very tired of public life. She was pleased with social affairs in Washington at first, but as time has gone by she has become very weary of the duties imposed upon her at the White House. Rose Elizabeth Cleveland, who has gone to an orange plantation in Florida for the Winter, was anxious to have Mrs. Folsom accompany her, but the latter was obliged to remain in Washington for the final social features of the outgoing Administration. She was very desirous of going with Miss Cleveland, and only the urgent appeals of her daughter kept her at the White House.

The principal of a public school in Jackson Township, Ohio, has had his license revoked for striking a pupil with a slingshot because the boy could not define the proper relation of the participle to the other parts of speech. The teacher has been punished none too severely. A slingshot cannot drive grammar into a boy's head, though it may awaken his astronomical enthusiasm by making him see stars.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

A Street Car Line.

VANCOUVER, W. T., Feb. 5.—The city council of Vancouver, at its regular meeting last night, passed an ordinance granting the Columbia Land and Improvement Company the right to operate street cars from the ferry landing along Main street to the west, north and east boundaries of the city. The construction of the railway will be commenced at once, and speedily completed to Vancouver Heights, a beautiful addition being laid out by that company.

A Quarantine.

ASTORIA, Or., Feb. 5.—The steamer Oregon arrived from San Francisco at 3 o'clock this afternoon. Captain Pohlman, on arriving at the dock, notified Health-officer Estes that there was a suspicious case aboard. Steward Nagle took the health officer down in the steerage, and there was found a man with a breaking out of pimples on his face, appearing to be smallpox. The man said he had come from San Bernardino, Cal. He stayed but two days in San Francisco, and felt all right till last night, when he had headache. The feverish eruption appeared this morning.

Somewhat Cold.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 5.—The weather still continues cold throughout the Northwest, although the worst of its undoubtedly passed. To-night the mercury here was five degrees below, at Heron, Dakota, ten below; at St. Vincent, Minnesota, 22 below; and at Minnetosa, Manitoba, twenty-four below. That a warm wave is on the way seems evident from the temperature in Montana. Helena reports thirty-two and Custer thirty-six degrees above.

Must Hang.

HELENA, Mont., Feb. 5.—In the supreme court, in the case of the territory vs. George Godas, the half-breed murderer, the verdict and sentence of the lower court was reaffirmed, and the date for the execution was set for March 8, 1889.

A Little Civil Service.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 5.—Thirty-five applicants for positions as letter carriers in the San Francisco postoffice took the civil service examination this morning. To-morrow morning the examination of applicants for positions as clerks in the postoffice will be held. Forty applications have been received, of which one-half are from women.

Would Like a Boom.

HELENA, Feb. 5.—There are good reasons for asserting the belief—which is founded upon the most reliable information—that the Union Pacific will come to Helena during the summer branching out from Dillon westward through Jefferson county to Gallatin, and from this point paralleling the Northern Pacific to Helena.

Sensational.

SEATTLE, Feb. 5.—When John Welch, a Jackson street highwayman, was arraigned in the circuit court to-day, he nonplussed the judge and crowded courtroom by exclaiming: "I killed him more than a year ago! Is this my trial? My name is not Welch; I've got a better name than that; but I killed him, and I'm glad of it." It was evident from the prisoner's actions, that he was crazy, or feigning insanity, and it was decided to examine him next week. The person he thinks he killed was Nick Hanna, a policeman who shot and captured him one night after a genuine duel with pistols.

GOLDEN RULE BAZAAR.

Cash Goes a Long Way at Jullias & Walvol's

I have made arrangements for buying goods direct from the factories in Europe and will sell at wholesale or retail, cheaper than anywhere else on the Pacific Coast. The following are some of my cash retail prices:

- 15 dozen unhandled tea cups and saucers, 35 cts.
- 1/2 dozen unhandled coffee cups and saucers, 45 cts.
- 1/2 dozen unhandled coffee cups and saucers, 50 cts.
- 1/2 dozen seven inch dinner plates, 45 cts.

These goods are all iron stone China and not a cheaper grade of goods. I have also added a good stock of groceries, which I ask people to call and examine and judge for the best values to equal and prices.

JULIUS GRADWOHL.

Can you imagine a man that will make a good natured person so provol, dissatisfied, ill-tempered and cranky as biliousness?
