

LOCAL RECORD.

REV. D. L. MOODY'S OPINION.—Rev. Moody on the last morning of his services in Salem said that he had been asked to endorse the work of Maj. Hilton. He said that Maj. Hilton had been sent out by Frances E. Willard and needed no endorsement from him, as her word was all that was necessary to assure the people of the genuine worth of the man. He would say, however, that he believed Maj. Hilton was a grand worker in his line, he went at his work in the right way, recognizing that the power of God was the only successful lever to be used in the temperance reform. He knew that he did good wherever he went, and he would advise the ministers to cooperate with him heartily, and felt sure if they did, good results would follow.

STOCK-HOLDERS MEETING.—There will be a meeting of Stock-holders of the Albany Building and Loan Association, on Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock, Feb. 12th, 1889, at the store of Stewart & Sox, for the purpose of organizing and electing a Board of Directors for the ensuing year. A sufficient number of shares having been subscribed. It is hoped all share-holders will be present, and all those desiring to take stock in the first "series," will do so at once or at the meeting, as the first series will then be closed. By order of Committee.

IT WAS A HOAX.—The LaGrande post-office is being deluged with letters addressed to Miss Innaba Williams, the reported cattle queen of Wallowa county, who has gained considerable notoriety in the press in the last few months. No such person is in existence, the entire story being the fertile production of a San Francisco reporter, who had a chance to write against space in the Examiner. Innaba with her dollars and no husband, is a myth but anything will do to fill up and raise a little excitement or sensation.

PICNIC OVER.—The citizens of Albany and the O. P. company are having a picnic. The citizens want to extend the corporate limits of the city to include, among other property, the Oregon Pacific grounds. To this Mr. Hoag objects.—Times. The picnic is over now, and everything is serene. The head office will be brought to this city, and located in the second story of the Senders & Sternburg corner, to be built for the occasion. Albany appreciates what the Oregon Pacific has done for it and Linn county, and is willing to overlook a few faults, and we all have a few specks on us.

A GYPSY WEDDING.—Gaudy in a variety of flashy, blushing, fly colors, a gypsy bride-elect attracted general attention this afternoon as she marched into Marx Baumgart's and drank to the health of her future husband, Geo. Humphrey, Esq., was asked to tie the knot, but being Catholics they demanded certain religious rites not down in Justice H's code. The last heard of them by the DEMOCRAT they were making for Father Metayer's chapel on the Ditch.

LONG FELT WANT.—Just received a fine assortment of genuine French candy from San Francisco of the following celebrated varieties: Esperanza bonbons, French Marcellines, Opera Caramels, Cream Marshmallows, Apricot Panache, Palenno dips, Angel food, Peerless chocolate creams, and an endless variety of creams at Willamette Packing Co.

FRESH SEEDS.—Wallace & Thompson have just received a large supply of choice fresh garden, flower and lawn grass seeds from the celebrated seed house of A B Cleveland & Co, which are sold at bed-rock prices. Most liberal discounts to gardeners and others who buy in quantities.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.—Last evening a very fine birthday party was tendered Miss Mildred Burnster by a large number of her friends. Seventeen are the figures, and may they be multiplied by five.

A CARD OF THANKS.—We tender our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for their kind assistance in the late illness and death of our friend, A. D. Springer. MR. AND MRS. G. R. MILLER SUICIDE.—A Miss Shelton committed suicide at Mehama on Thursday of last week. She was tired of life though only twenty years of age.

WALL PAPER.—The finest line of wall paper in the valley in forty or fifty varieties, elegant designs and prices down, at Portmiller & Irvine's. It will pay to see them.

We will sell you groceries cheaper than any one else. BROWNELL & STANARD.

A financial cyclone is said to have struck the bay, leaving things in a depressed condition.

Baby carriage at Stewart & Sox's.

SETTLED.

The adjourned meeting of the City Council was held last evening at the Council Chambers. Present, Mayor, Marshal and Councilmen Gradwohl, Parker, Burkhardt, Tabler and French. Councilman Parker acted as Recorder. Mr. Gradwohl, offered the following resolution, and moved its adoption. It was seconded by French and was passed unanimously:

WHEREAS, The City Council of Albany did on the 11th day of January, 1889, draft amendments which are now incorporated in a bill before the legislature to amend the city charter, and

WHEREAS, We have deemed the measure just, wise and conservative, and tending to the advancement and improvement of our city, we are yet mindful that it is our duty to carefully consider all private and corporate interests affecting the general good, and since the O. P. R. R. management, whose lands are named to be in the city limits, object to being included therein for reasons that appear worthy of our attention, and for the further reason that the O. P. R. R. Co. and the people may work together in harmony for the full benefit of our city, we deem it wise under the present circumstances to ask our Senators and Representatives to so amend the bill now in their hands as to exclude all lands proposed in the W. V. & C. R. R. Co. and to Egenton Hogg.

Under the circumstances this was the best thing that could be done, as it was the only thing the Railroad would consent to. Albany and the Oregon Pacific should continue to work together as in the past. The establishment of the machine shops here will be worth more than woolen mills, and it would be poor policy to antagonize the road in this respect; nor was anything of the kind intended when the amendments were introduced.

Now that this is disposed of our Legislators should be urged to secure the passage of the amendments as thus changed, and otherwise as provided by the Council. As a progressive city they simply provide for measures we need.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

Tuesday, Jan. 5th.

Several house bills were read in the Senate and referred. About the first bill to pass both houses was the one changing the name of Bully to Alder Creek. Among bills introduced were: Referring to fish ladders, regulating voluntary sending of newspapers, establishing State Board of Horticulture, and amending Corvallis' charter. Joint resolution providing for constitutional amendment that no county shall incur debt exceeding five per cent of taxable property, was adopted. Petition for taxation of church property was presented in house and referred. Layman's high license bill was discussed. It raises the license to $500 through the State. Short's resolution for constitutional amendment changing pay of legislators to $5 day was lost. Numerous reports were received from committees and will be acted on in due time.

READ THIS.—Mr. W H Greenwood has purchased the gallery formerly occupied by Mr. L V Clark. He is now prepared to do all styles of photographic work from a locket to life size and can finish in oil, water color, India ink and crayon. Mr. Greenwood is just from the east and is thoroughly acquainted with first-class work. He has come here to make this his home and cordially invites the public generally to call and get acquainted. He comes highly recommended as a first-class artist.

BABIES.—The finest line of baby carriages in the Valley just received at Stewart & Sox's. Prices are remarkably cheap considering the superior quality of the carriages.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.—For the 2 hours beginning at 12 o'clock, noon. Clear, followed by rain.

PURE MILK.—Mr. Henry Stewart has established a milk route in this city and asks for the patronage of our citizens. Tickets for sale at Brownell & Stanard's CARPETS.—Finest line of carpets ever brought to Albany just received at A. B. McIlwain's. His Brussels and velvet Brussels attract great attention, being superb patterns.

SEASONABLE That means seasonable over coats, a large and fine stock of which has just been received at L. E. Blain's. Call early as the over-coats have begun going

The largest, finest and best assorted stock of groceries in town can be found at Brownell & Stanard's.

NEW COMERS.—To our city will find it to their advantage to price our goods before buying in their outfit of groceries and provisions.

BROWNELL & STANARD.

Teachers' Examination.

Notice is hereby given that the regular public quarterly examination of teachers for Linn county, will take place at the court house, in Albany, commencing at noon, Wednesday, February 27, 1889. All teachers desiring examination will please be present at the beginning.

L. M. CURL, County School Superintendent.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.

Hall of Albany Engine Co., No. 1, Albany, Feb. 5, 1889.

WHEREAS, The hand of death has again fallen in our midst and taken one of our esteemed members, John Saltmarsh.

Resolved, That in the death of our brother the company sustained a loss of one who always possessed the open heart and ready hand of a true fireman.

Resolved, That it is with heartfelt sorrow that this company receives the news of the death of our departed brother.

Resolved, That we truly sympathize with the bereaved mother and relatives of the deceased whom it has pleased Divine Providence to thus afflict, and commend them to him who orders all things for the best, and whose chastisements are meant in mercy.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the company, and that a copy thereof be furnished the city papers for publication.

WALTER PARKER, HARPER CRANOR, FRED BLOUNT, Committee.

BORN.

OHLING.—On Wednesday morning, Jan 6, 1889, to the wife of Ralph Ohling—a boy. Weigh, too much for the scales.

A KNOCK DOWN ARGUMENT.

That is the kind of argument we are using. We propose to make the lowest prices made in this town and we will discount the best figures that any other merchant can or will make.

This Knocks Down Competition

and gives us an undisputed precedence in our field of business. We want to convince every one that they can be best served in our store and we propose to

by our low prices until the fact is universally recognized that for high grade goods and the lowest living prices no one can touch
