OUR SALEM LETTER.

Feb. 6th, 1889.

Editors Democrat:

AN ARTISTIC WINDOW.—The finest artistic work ever displayed in a show window in Albany is that at the Willamette Packing Company's store. It takes the first premium. A rice driveway, with cube sugar curbing, with a surrounding of teas, a sago fountain, numerous flower beds with blooming roses, etc., etc., fill the window with beauty and at least imaginary fragrance. Mueller & Garrett are displaying great enterprise in the manner in which they are pushing business.

ELECTRICITY.—Mr. Walter Holman, who recently resigned the management of the electric light works here, will go to Seattle, where he has a more lucrative position. He intended to do so some time ago; but has been waiting until some one could be obtained to take his place. Mr. Allen gave him a good testimonial as an act of appreciation for his excellent management of the works. Mr. Goff will be associated with Mr. Allen hereafter in the works.

MAJOR HILTON.—To-morrow afternoon Major Hilton will hold a Bible reading at the W. C. T. U. Hall, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. All christian people and friends of christianity are invited to be present. He will begin the temperance revival at the Hall in the evening at 7:30 o'clock, and Saturday and Sunday nights the meetings will be held at the Opera House, and everybody is invited.

RATHER DISGRACEFUL.—For a wedding party the gypsies yesterday behaved themselves in a very disgraceful manner. Even a boy just toddling was as drunk as a toper and the bride couldn't walk straight. They returned to their camp on the Samitan, where they are said to have sixteen bears. Living cheaply they have accumulated quite a little money. The whole crowd intends taking steamer for San Francisco.

AN OFFER.—Mr. B. Mahanna, the gentleman who told the McMinnville newspaper man that there isn't enough spirit in Albany to stuff an old saddle, we are informed, now offers to establish his creamery here for a bonus of $1000.

MARRIED.—In Eugene City, February 2, 1889, Mr. Charles Hall, of Linn county, and Miss Ora Greno, of Lane county, Rev. E. P. Henderson officiating.

DIED.—The infant child of William Hammer, in this city, on Wednesday, Jan. 6th, 1889, aged three months.

After the 4th of March President Cleveland will become a member of the law firm of Bangs, Stetson, Tracy and Mac Veagh of New York City.

CARPETS.—Finest line of carpets ever brought to Albany just received at A. B. McIlwain's. His Brussels and velvet Brussels attract great attention, being superb patterns.

SEASONABLE. That most seasonable over coats, coats, a large and fine stock of which has just been received at L. E. Blain's. Call early as the over-coats have begun going.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.—For the 24 hours beginning at 12 o'clock, noon. Clear, followed by rain.

The largest, finest and best assorted stock of groceries in town can be found at Brownell & Stanard's.

Rev. J. M. Dick, who will take the place of the P. E. on Sunday morning and evening, in the Evangelical church, is a very forcible and logical speaker, and it is hoped good congregations will greet him. He will remain and assist the pastor the greater part of the week following.

The fourth quarterly meeting for this conference year will be held at the Evangelical church next Saturday and Sunday. Rev. J. M. Dick, of Salem, will fill the pulpit Saturday evening and Sunday morning and evening. The above announcement was made prior to the announcement of Major Hilton's appearance in this city on the 8, 9 and 10, and can not be recalled, it being the regular quarterly meeting of the church, and some people from a distance, and from the country, are expected to be present.
