LOCAL RECORD.

RETURNED.—The whirligig of time rarely evolves so fast that some day or other it does not bring to Albany again some of the old timers of the days when a quarter was nothing to speak of. Jim Hogan about eight years ago left the city and went out into the wide, wide world. Since then visionary stories have been told of his being shanghaied and taken around the world, hanged up in Montana and numerous other sensational episodes, mostly without foundation. But Mr. Hogan, we are glad to know, is still in the land of the living. Yesterday he was in Albany and put up at the callhouse again for imbibing too much lemon juice, a little matter that was satisfactorily settled by the payment of the customary fine and fees. Hogan's face will be a familiar one to residents of 1880 and for many years previous. Albany is a different city now from then, yet Recorder Henton was the one to adjudicate in Jim's last case before leaving and first on returning.

A WET EXPERIENCE.—Riding bicycles is not all poetry, and the boys of the city often meet with experiences not down in the catalogue of extras. One such occurred last evening. Mr. Ed Cusick, bookkeeper of the Linn Co. bank, after a ride on his silent steed reined the apparatus in near his home on Lyon Street, where the far famed Santiam Ditch goes blubbling past. In dismounting his bicycle went off the sidewalk at the very bank of the ditch. There was a stumble and a splash and Mr. Cusick and his bicycle went head first into the water, the feet of the rider only remaining on the bank, while his head went under the water. He succeeded in getting himself and bicycle out and was soon in dry clothes.

STORE ROBBER.—Saturday night two men entered the store of J. W. Stewart, at Springfield, Lane county, and robbed the safe of $50 or $60 in money, of which there were fourteen or fifteen one dollar gold pieces and two 25 cent gold pieces. One of the dollars had a hole in it. There was also a gold ring with a set taken. It was shown that two men did it; but the only thing ascertained about them was that one of them wore a No. 7 boot. Marshal Hoffman was notified of the above facts and requested to keep a look out. Any one in the city seeing any suspicious dollar gold pieces, which are rather rare, should report to him at once.

Now.—In a double leader the Salem Statesman says: "Now that the building of the woolen mill is assured, Salem must not rest on her laurels already won, and expect this alone to make her great. This is the best investment the capital city has ever made, and the benefits to accrue from it many, great and lasting, but a railroad to the sea will also be one of the most potent stimulators of the city's growth that is within the range of present possibilities." That is sound advice for any city, even Albany. What will Albany make move this year.

THE GEORGIA MINSTRELS.—A little the best minstrel show ever given in Albany was that of the Georgia Minstrels last evening. The character of their program was of a high order and their artists are the head in their profession. There is only one Billy Kersands in the world. He is a several hosts all by himself, and the support all through is first-class. Such big mouths, such mouth organ playing, such many new jokes, such quartet singing, such wrymen, such a French orchestra leader and bass drummer, such speeches, etc., are rarely seen in Albany. Four hundred very enthusiastic people were present.

BRIDGES WANTED.—Hon. Alex. Downing, of Linn county, opposite Dayton, is in the city with a petition for a bridge across the Linn river at that place to be built jointly by Marion and Linn counties. About four hundred have already signed the petition. This section of the county is building up very rapidly and a bridge is said to be needed very badly. Linn county must be liberal in its appropriations for bridges, and should erect one at Waterloo.

Low.—Considerable fun is poked at the Willamette for being low. Here is one from the Astorian: "The Willamette river is very low, being confined to its bed, yesterday's showers may revive it a little. Down here where the great tides go thrumming seaward we never notice the weather affecting the height of water. The mistress of the tides, makes twice dry, the water six to nine feet higher and wet."

A SALE.—Mr. Tryon has purchased of R. A. W. Gordon his home property consisting of a residence and three lots. Consideration $1750. Mr. Gordon and family have moved on to his farm. Mr. Tryon's brother will move into the city and reside in the new home.

SCHOOL MEETING.

The annual school meeting was held last evening, and so complete is the confidence of the public in the Directors and Clerk, that only about a half dozen of our citizens were present. The Clerk, C. G. Burkhardt read the following report, which was adopted:

Total number scholars between 4 and 20 years of age.....909
Males.....459
Females.....450
No. enrolled in public school.....445
Males.....219
Females.....226

Amount paid out for other purposes.....709.45

Total.....$9,155.45
Balance on hand.....914.67

Total.....$10,070.12

The report of the Directors was as follows, the same also being adopted:

Cash in Clerk's hands first of the year.....$402.32
Cash received from various sources.....9,667.80

Total.....$10,070.12
Total amount paid out.....9155.45

Balance cash on hand.....$914.67

The estimated expenses for the ensuing year are:

Wages of eight teachers nine months.....$4150.00
Fuel.....200.00
Janitor's wages.....225.00
Incidental repairs.....700.00
Interest on bonds.....600.00

Total.....$5,875.00

To meet the expenses there will be the following available funds:

Cash on hand.....$914.67
State and county funds estimated.....5,000.00
Total.....$914.67

We would therefore recommend that there be no tax levied this year, as there will be sufficient funds to meet all purposes.

The above shows the district to be in a prosperous condition.

The New President.

Mr. Benj. Harrison now has hold of the helm. He began yesterday noon after a very imposing inaugural ceremony, carried out according to program. The crowd in Washington is said to have been enormous. A rainstorm dampened matters some; but only exteriorly. The ship of State that has been sailing so serenely during the past four years, no doubt will continue to sail serenely. It will take a hurricane to get it out of its course. Ravenous office seekers and such do not interfere with the course of the national ship. On she goes, and we are under obligations to H. H. Warner for the following picture of the man a majority of the electoral college have put at the helm for four years.

If this man doesn't behave himself the DEMOCRAT will be on hand to let the people know about it.

A SIDE SHOW.—There was a side show to the minstrel entertainment not advertised in the bills, and only attended by a part of the audience; but it was racy. Among the audience, on the south side, was a young couple from Squedunk. They had their eyes on each other, and soon became entirely oblivious to surroundings. During the entertainment they went through the customary parlor form of courtship, such as proposing, squeezing each others hands, semi-embraces, lopping of heads on the others shoulders, and a cooing that would astonish an adept. "I don't believe you love me as I love you," he said. "But, I do," she murmured soft enough to be heard across the room. Then they talked of how happy they would be, etc., etc. A great many of us have had our love affairs; but it is not often that you meet a couple who seem to think a theater is the proper place to enact such scenes.

WOOLEN MILL.—Mr. Kay has been informed of the completion of the bonus and will leave shortly for London, where he will make the purchase of the latest improved machinery. Before leaving, however, he will see that construction of the buildings is well under way, so that by the time of the arrival of the looms, jacks, etc., the factory will be ready to receive them.—Journal.

CARPETS.—Finest line of carpets ever brought to Albany just received at A. B. McIlwain's. His Brussels and velvet Brussels attract great attention, being superb patterns.

H. Ewert, practical watchmaker and jeweler.

J. L. Fuller, Special Insurance Agent is now in the city. The DEMOCRAT acknowledges a call.

Mr. Julius Gradwohl carries a fine stock of standard groceries, a fact our citizens should remember when buying.

The Wizard Oil troupe is in Corvallis this week selling a song book for a dollar and throwing in their oil.

Of the fifty three applicants for teachers' certificates in Marion county, all but eighteen were successful.

J. H. Scott, Mrs. J. H. Scott, M. H. Wilds, N. F. Payne and Mrs. Payne have been appointed delegates to the State Grange.

Just a little added to Mr. makes a great deal of difference. Mr. Sanders of course was the one who brought the mules here.

Mr. Bruce McKnight and family have moved to Corvallis to spend the season. Mr. McKnight has Altago with him and will make his headquarters at that city.

Yesterday E. L. Bryan was elected director of Tangent school district and A. Barnes clerk. On account of the large number of pupils attending another story is to be added to the school building.

CURRENCY.

That is a good showing made by the clerk and directors of school district 5.

No school tax this year. Put that in your head and take your hands off of your pockets.

The people of Albany are under deep obligations to the Georgia minstrels for not bringing in that old mother-in-law joke. W. admire the courage that can induce a minstrel troupe to cause such an innovation.

If our citizens "really and truly" would like to get rid of the tramp, so many of whom are now infesting the city and begging for something just to fill up with, they can easily do it without lifting a finger. Just simply turn the glass upside down; that is, do not feed any of them, even if they do touch your heart a little. So long as the lazy fellows are fed at the back doors the city police at the front doors are powerless to do anything. A united effort in the right direction and not a solitary tramp would be loitering around our streets.

"Why should not Corvallis have a boom? We do not mean an artificial stimulating boom, but a sure-enough, genuine awakening to the opportunities before her," says the Leader. Sure enough why don't your citizens get in and do something. Well located, with good railroad facilities, Corvallis ought to amount to something. We wouldn't mind seeing the places like Minneapolis and St. Paul. Let's try it together. There is nothing mean about us.

According to Billy Kersands girls are Cake and wine And everything fine.

Boys: Rice and spice And everything nice.
Men: Beer and fight And stay out all night.
Old maids: Rags and tags, And old paper bags.

BROWNELL & STANARD.

MILL CITY.

Since the editors of the DAILY DEMOCRAT have published the few news that I sent a few weeks ago, I shall send some more weekly, and those that receive the valuable paper, in the vicinity of Mill City and on east to end of O. P. track, should by all means tell their neighbors to at once secure the paper to find out particulars that I may be able to secure from time to time.

A few days ago I received a letter from the east (Penn.) stating that it was very rough and cold there. If the eastern people would know how beautiful a climate we have here at the foot of the Cascade mountains, in a year's time Mill City would have thousands of people. I am going to tell my friends, every one in Mill City should do so, and the result would compel the O. P. to run extra passenger trains by next spring to accommodate the passengers.

James Collins, who is at present working at Albany, spent last Sunday at his home at Gatesville. It seems the valley agrees with him to perfection.

Cutting railroad wood for the O. P. seems to be a good occupation up in our country. Hundreds of cords are piled up along the track and lots more is cut daily.

Mr. Ed Wolf, at Gatesville, moved into Mr. Pat Reilly's house this week. Mr. R. is kept quite busy now to transact his business.

Ed Crabtree, of Gatesville, was in town Saturday and he said the dance that occurred there the night before was like they generally are—very nice.

J. H. McDonald, roadmaster on the O. P., passed over the road last Tuesday on his velocipede and with paint pot taking up railroad wood.

Some of our young people were spending part of last Sunday in boat riding. They all seem to have enjoyed it very well, except the rower (Jim) he could not exactly see the point.

Miss Mary Coats, who is staying at Rock Creek, spent last Sunday with her parents at this place.

Gatesville people had a dance last Monday evening at the residence of Ed Wolf. It so happened that the Mill City people knew nothing of it until the morning following. A very nice time was the result, we understand.

Lincoln Henniss, of Gatesville, when to Dayton the fore part of the week on business. He made a short stop in our burg when returning home.

Mrs. Geo. Cox, who was staying with her husband at Camp 2 for the last three weeks, returned to Gatesville, last Tuesday.

Last Monday while J. D. Stewart and Joseph Kline were working at J. L. Berry's new house the scaffold upon which they were working gave away and they fell to the ground. The distance they fell was not very great which saved Mr. Stewart from being hurt, and Mr. Kline was jammed up but slightly.

This district is making preparations to build a school house. Mr. Rice has donated them an acre of land and the citizens of Mill City are clearing the ground. A school house will be erected in the near future.

The Santiam Mill Co. received their new goods last Wednesday. They carry all kinds of goods now and the people of Mill City need not go to Albany every time they need something.

Quite a number of our town people and Gatesville folks were at Albany this week, among whom was Lee Brown with five car loads of lumber that the Santiam Lumbering Co. sawed. Its booming up here.

The Mises Foster, who have been staying with their brother at Gatesville for the last few months, returned to their home in Benton county last Wednesday.

A sociable dance was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Heoye last Wednesday evening. The amusement was immense until about half past 12 o'clock when nearly all left for their homes.

Miss Maggie Coats went to Gatesville yesterday where she intends to make her future home.

Thomas Sims is at present in Portland on business. He went yesterday and will be absent about a week.

We will sell you groceries cheaper than any one else.
