THE WAY IT WILL BE DONE.

The Washington Post says:

"In regard to the policy which President Harrison will pursue in the matter of federal appointments, 'The president has passed the word around that he will not act as arbitrator in any factional quarrels, and that he will not lend himself to either side in such quarrels. He tells all the senators and representatives who call upon him that it will be greatly to their advantage and facilitate his labors if they will settle their dissensions among themselves, and not present more than one candidate from the same state for any one office. If the various candidates will make up slates for the various offices within their states and give them unanimous indorsement, he will act promptly, but all the appointments over which there is any dispute will be deferred. Most of the states are doing this, and are endeavoring to relieve the president as much as possible.' This will make every applicant for an office subservient to the senators and representatives in congress in his state. He will be placed under such obligations when appointed that he becomes virtually their slave and not the servant of the public. This scheme puts vast power in the hands of senators which they will use to build up their own political fortunes on the blasted hopes of every other republican who seeks senatorial honors. This policy is just what killed Conkling. He insisted that senators should be consulted when making appointments. This policy instead of strengthening the republican organization will eventually disintegrate it. No free people will long submit to the rule of such an aristocracy."

More Happy Men.
WASHINGTON, March 12.—The president has sent the following nominations to the senate: Arthur C. Milette, of Watertown, Dak., to be governor of Dakota; Luther B. Richardson, of Grand Fork, Dak., to be secretary of Dakota; Cornelius H. Hanford, of Washington territory, to be chief justice of the supreme court of the territory of Washington; George W. Irvin, of Montana, to be United States marshal for Montana; George S. Batchelor, of New York, to be assistant secretary of the treasury; Albert G. Porter, of Indiana, to be consular general to Denmark; Shirely H. Chambers, to be United States attorney for Indiana.

We Can Whip Them.
WASHINGTON, March 12.—Admiral Porter, who has made a very careful study of the Samoan situation from a naval standpoint, ever since the existing complications arose, is quoted by the Evening Star as having said recently: "I have carefully investigated the stories about the Nipsaic. It looks as if they were put out at the instigation of Bismarck to test the sentiment of his own and our people. He has never been a friend of the United States. He will find out very promptly the temper of the American people. Of course, we are weak at present on the ocean," he continued, "but there is a plan which will meet the emergency and will badly cripple Germany while we are getting ready. No one supposes that the American people would give up the contest until Germany has received a sound drubbing."

Why Delayed.
SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Rain fell in torrents on the Oregon division of the Southern Pacific system this morning, causing serious damage to the track and obstructing the passage of trains. The north-bound train which left this city at 7 A. M. yesterday was detained several hours at Smithsden, a small station above Redding, because of a landslide which covered the track there. A work train being near at hand, the labor of removing the debris was accomplished as quickly as possible and the train moved on, but it did not go far before another obstacle was encountered in the shape of an extensive slide near Welsh's spur. This detained the train a much longer time, and it was not moving up to the time of the last telegraphic report from the north.

Cash Goes a Long Way.—Julius Gradwohl's

I have made arrangements for buying goods direct from the factories in Europe and will sell at wholesale or retail, cheaper than any where else on the Pacific Coast. The following are some of my cash retail prices: 1/2 dozen unhandled tea cups and saucers, 35 cts. 1/2 dozen unhandled coffee cups and saucers, 45 cts. 1/2 dozen handled coffee cups and saucers, 50 cts. 1/2 dozen seven inch dinner plates, 45 cts.

These goods are all iron stone China and not a cheaper grade of goods. I have also added good stock of groceries, which I ask people to call and examine and judge for themselves as to quality and prices.
