Quinine has come down in price to the level of an every day case of fever and ague. Shake.

The human body has about nine miles of perspirative ducts, anatomists say. With this as a basis of calculation, a correct notion of the long distance sweating now being done by some thousands of office seekers can be got.

The Philadelphia Times says: Fifty years ago the daughter of James Martin, a well to do farmer, purchased an expensive dress against his wishes, and she sent him a comic valentine representing a miser. He has not spoken to her since. Last week he died and left $15,000 to each of his children but this daughter, for whom he left a sealed envelope, which when opened had her old valentine inside.

It is every day growing more evident that the rise in wages that our republican orators talked about in case of republican victory was the wages of congressmen. The wages of the laboring man are being steadily reduced. As the increase, if there had been one, would have been credited to the change, will our friends, the enemy, assume the decrease and not murmur?

From our regular correspondent.
WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 1st, 1889.

Have Harrison and Blaine any influence with the republican Senate? If so, how much? Since the Senate, by the very decisive vote of 25 to 19, rejected the nomination of Murat Halstead, editor of the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette, to be minister to Germany, these questions have been asked on every hand and many answers have been given. It is well known here that Harrison and Blaine took occasion to inform every republican Senator that they were very deeply interested in Halstead's confirmation and yet the Senate voted against his confirmation, only nineteen favoring it, and two of them were democrats—Messrs Blackburn and Call. Therefore the inference is that Harrison and Blaine have no very great amount of influence with the Senators of their party. This rejection of Halstead by republican votes is a very queer thing, and is likely to make trouble for some of the parties for a long time to come. That the democrats should have voted against his confirmation was to be expected, but what puzzles people hereabouts is why such a rampant bloody shirt waver as Ingalls should have joined them. Halstead's opinion of those republicans who voted against him will make mighty interesting reading.

"Corporal" Tanner says no clerks will be removed in the Pension office except for cause. We shall see.

"If Whitelaw Reid does not return to this country in disgrace I shall be greatly surprised," said a well known republican to me to-day. Upon my asking his reason for thinking so, he said: "Reid is heavily interested in a corporation that is nothing more nor less than a business fake. One end of it rests in Washington, where it is looked after by one of the shrewdest as well as most unscrupulous men in the country. Both Reid and this man, who by the way is now in Europe, were roped into this scheme and have now got many thousands of dollars tied up in it. They have long ago agreed that the best thing to do was to unload the whole thing on European capitalists, and for that purpose the Washington member of the affair went to Europe about ten days ago, and is now awaiting Reid's arrival. Of course Reid will endorse the Washington man, and his official position as U. S. Minister to France will cause his endorsement to have great weight with European financiers, and the probabilities are that the unloading of the fake will be a success. It will not take long for the purchasers to discover that they have been robbed, and that Reid's endorsement did it. Then?"

General Black, ex-Commissioner of Pensions, has gone to Chicago, where he will resume the practice of law.

It is said that Gen Joseph E Johnson, Commissioner of Railroads, will not be removed by the new administration, owing to a request from Gen Sherman asking for his retention.

Cash Goes Long Ways at Julius Gradwohl's

I have made arrangements for buying goods direct from the factories in Europe and will sell at wholesale or retail, cheaper than any where else on the Pacific Coast. The following are some of my cash retail prices:

- 1/2 dozen unhandled tea cups and saucers, 35 cts.
- 1/2 dozen unhandled coffee cups and saucers, 45 cts.
- 1/2 dozen handled coffee cups and saucers, 50 cts.
- 1/2 dozen seven inch dinner plates, 45 cts.

These goods are all iron stone China and not a cheaper grade of goods. I have also added good stock of groceries, which I ask people to call and examine and judge for themselves as to quality and prices.

JULIUS GRADWOHL.

It is announced in a Washington despatch that Corporal Tanner, now in charge of the Pension Department, proposes to make a clean sweep. He will turn out his experienced bureau chiefs and clerks at once and fill their places with men who will be entirely subservient to his wishes. It would seem to be poor policy for the Corporal to fill up his department with people who know no more about the business than he does himself, but the Corporal is out for the surplus and the offices. If he can pension everybody in the United States he may be able to make a race for the Presidency himself.

It is somewhat difficult to get the soil in an orchard too rich. And many fail to secure profitable crops of fruit for no other reason than that the soil is deficient in plant food that is available for the use of the growing trees.

NEW COMERS—To our city will find it to their advantage to price our goods before buying in their outfit of groceries and provisions.
