ARRESTED.—Yesterday the United States grand jury, in session at Portland, found indictments against Sheriff Smallman and his Deputy, D S Smith, for contempt of Court, in allowing W R McDaniel, a U S prisoner, the liberty of the city of Albany.

GO BAREFOOTED.—A day or two ago we mentioned the fact that an eastern man did not locate a boot and shoe store here on account of there being no room and that he left for some place with plenty of vacant stores, probably Salem.

DOUBLED HIS MONEY.—Last evening Mr Hub Bryant sold to Mrs I N Woodlee ten acres adjoining the city for $7000. This is the property Mr Bryant about two months ago purchased of Jay Blain, paying $3500 for it, and for which Mr Blain paid $2000 a year or two previous.

JUDGE DENNY.—News from Asia is to the effect that Judge O N Denny, adviser to the Korean King, has received from Li Hung Chang $30,000 in coin and will return to Oregon.

PROBATE MATTERS.—Week ending April 17th. In the matter of the estate of Rebecca Cooper. Inventory filed, and order made to sell personal property.

WILL BE A TREAT.—Ida K Hines next Monday evening at the Presbyterian church. This promises to be one of the finest elocutionary treats ever offered in Albany.

ALUMNI MEETING.—There will be a meeting of the members of the alumni of the Albany Collegiate Institute on Thursday of next week, to make arrangements for commencement exercises.

SIZE OF LINN COUNTY.—Oklahoma, the famous land to be opened to settlers on the 26th instant, is almost exactly the size of Linn county, and there are estimated to be nearly 50,000 people hovering around it to take it up.

THOS. KAY.—"Square Farrar yesterday received a letter from Thos Kay, the proprietor of the Salem woolen mills, who is now rustling around among the mills of North Andover, Worcester and Lawrence, Massachusetts, looking up the looms and other machinery needed for the mill here."

A CHINESE PHEASANT.—This afternoon a Chinese pheasant wandered into the city and took refuge in C H Dodd & Co's warehouse on Ferry Street.

THE DEED DELIVERED.—This morning the deed for the ground where the woolen mill is to be located was duly executed to the Woolen Mill Company, and all the preliminary steps are being taken as rapidly as possible preparatory to beginning active work on this great enterprise.

$150 A FOOT.—Messrs John Isom and E J Lanning have bought of Mr Harper Cranor 110 feet front at the corner of First and Lyon streets, paying $16,500 for the same.

Thompson & Overman keep the best harnesses.

APPORTIONMENT OF SCHOOL FUNDS.

The following tabular statement shows the number of school districts together with the number of pupils in each and the amount of public funds drawn by each as apportioned by County School Superintendent Curl.

Table with columns: No. of Schs., No. of Pupils, Co. Fund, Dist. Schol., Appor'd. Lists 49 districts and their respective pupil counts and fund allocations.

M. E. Entertainment.

Following is the program to be given by the Young Folks Home Missionary Society at the M. E. Church, Friday evening, April 19th:

- Song—"Open the Door for the Children," by Society. Prayer. Recitation—"Charity," by Edna Miller. Duet—"Angry Words," by Edith Chiswell and Maud Hulbert.

CRAYON PORTRAITS.—It might not be out of place to suggest that parties who contemplate having crayon portraits made await Mrs Blum's arrival.

SEAL ROCK VIEW.—This fine property, located eight miles from Newport near the famous Seal Rocks, is very popular and is going rapidly.

WANTED AT ONCE.—Highest market price paid for five thousand pounds of bleached dried apples by G. W. Simpson, Albany, Or.

HOME AND ABROAD.

Wheat, 66 1/2 cents. Town Talk. McKanlass ministers to-night. New style jewelry at French's.

Rev Harris, of Salem, was reported no better last evening. Finest line of rugs in the city just received at Formisler & Irving.

A Japanese novelty store is to be opened in the Redfield block in a few weeks. A horse thief stole a horse at Aurora a few nights ago, and the country is aroused.

Mr Johnson is contemplating the opening of a meat market on East First Street. An elegant line of side table spreads, in beautiful designs, just received at Formisler & Irving.

Just received at H Ewert's a fine line of ladies and gentlemen watches and jewelry. A fine lot of diamonds in stock.

Last evening, Mr A H Marshall, though not in favor of cuts generally, cut one of his fingers nearly off while splitting wood. Useful souvenirs to the big folks of both sexes and "carter cards" for the children tomorrow at Blum's. Given away just for fun.

Get your baking powder at Bardue & Underwood's. With every can of White Cross you get a fine piece of China ware. Try some of it.

A few days ago while shearing a sheep Mr C P Burkhardt sheared one of his fingers nearly off and now carries his hand in a multitude of bandages.

Messrs T L Saches & Son, recently of Chicago, have bought out Mr Fischers tailoring establishment, just north of the DEMOCRAT office, and will open with a $3000 lot of suitings.

Messrs Geo O Henderson and R H Shultz have opened a real estate office at the St Charles hotel, Willamette Valley Land Agency is the name they will operate under.

A fine line of agricultural implements, such as plows, rakes, drags, etc, at Mitchell & Lewis Co's, opposite Schmeer's stable, as well as wagons, buggies, etc, of all styles. You can get the best goods of them at bottom prices.

This morning Mr Chas Metzger was arrested on complaint of Mr Earl Race for running a hotel without a license. The case was set for 2 o'clock before Recorder Henton, and on trial the decision was reserved until 9 o'clock to-morrow.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

A dance will be given at the opera house to-morrow evening. Morotto Bros furnishing the music.

Scott Ward, of Plainview, returned today from Salem, where he bought a fine Norman stallion.

Mr J A Gross has just returned from Shovel Creek, Cal, a new resort, and reports himself as much improved in health. Had a fine time.

Mr J R Stewart and family leave Albany in a few days for Eldorado, Kan, on a visit of several months. They will be within a few miles of the famous Oklahoma country.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our heavenly father on Jan 27, 1889 to remove from our midst our esteemed and beloved sister, Annie E Swank, from a life of toil and care to one of peace and rest.

Resolved, That while we deeply mourn her death we will strive to emulate her virtues, that we cherish her memory because a faithful sister has fallen, the grange has lost a faithful counselor, the community a true friend.

Resolved, That as a grange we extend to the bereaved husband and parents our deepest sympathy.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon our minutes as a small testimonial of our appreciation of Sister Swank; also that a copy of the same be presented to the family of the deceased and to the county papers for publication.

R A IRVINE, H R ROWELL, Mrs M BARDWELL.

WILL OPEN TO-MORROW.—Mr Blum's store will be open for business to-morrow. He has shown his enterprise in fitting up a very shabby house much better than justified. We venture to say that he will always be found liberal and energetic not only in his business but upon all questions of public policy and the common welfare.

A LIVELY PROGRAM.—Woolen mills, 110x60 feet and out buildings, ice works, street car lines, four story brick hotel at First and Lyon, Masonic temple and several bricks being planned is a part of the program for this year.

THIS WEEK ONLY.—For cash we will sell 5 cans of Crawford peaches for $1. WALLACE & THOMPSON.

HALSEY.

We can shake hands with other cities since we have a new charter.

Our Marshal arrested a young man last Saturday night for disturbing the peace. Monday he was taken before Recorder Stewart, who, after examining the case declared him not guilty.

Mr. Sox, son-in-law of Dr. B. F. Fuller, was badly kicked one day last week while caring for his stallion. A fractured leg was the result.

Foot ball is all the rage. Even the old married men, merchants, ticket agent, school teacher, in fact everyone plays who can kick.

There are 54 pupils enrolled in the public school, G F Russell at the helm.

Messrs. Brandon and Pearl have bought a fine Clyde horse to go with their Percheron. The Clyde is only 5 years old and weighs 1800 pounds and is about as nice a horse as we have had the pleasure of looking at.

The colt show here a few days ago was good, some of them weighing 960 pounds. We notice quite a number of improvements in town already this spring. Mr. Pagle has had his corner store refitted and painted.

Here is a leaf from the Halsey directory: Koontz & Lame, general merchandise; H Godley, hardware and stoves; C. Grant, drugs; O Howell, confectionery; Bassett Bros, groceries; L Stewart, harness and saddles; C Dwyer, painter; H Binding, barber; H B Keniston, general merchandise; Major Smith, drugs; P Patton, butcher; A Laubner, hotel keeper; W D Smith, painter; J R Bone, livery and feed stable; Standish & Worth, blacksmiths; B Renshaw, wagonmaker; T J Black, farm implements; Geary & Smith, M D's; S N Davidson, confectionery; Lame & Ericsson, carpenters; B F Fuller, M D; W J Stewart, Notary Public. We have three churches, an I O G T, an I O O F and an A F & A M societies and a fine public school building. And we hope while Albany is having her boom it may boom in a quiet way.

LYONSVILLE.

A May party is talked of here. Considering the weather, the party given in Lyonsville Friday evening was a success.

Judges Thayer and Strahan passed up the road Friday, returning the same day. C P Morden, representing Akein, Selling & Co, was in town Tuesday.

Mr D D Coffey, of Gatesville, has been engaged to wield the birch in this district, commencing to-day.

Twenty-five head of horses, belonging to Hennis Bros, passed through here for Rock Creek, Thursday.

A "special" with General Manager Hoag and party came to this place yesterday, returning from here.

Another rain and hail storm passed over to-day, lasting but a short time.

A petition is being circulated, praying that a license may be granted for the selling of spirituous liquors in less quantities than a quart, in this precinct. A remonstrance is being circulated against it with even chances of success.

A party of several men leaves here this week going up near Mt Jefferson with a view to taking up timber lands. Only a short time will elapse until the Cascades on the line of the O P will be a lumber yard.

We will sell you groceries cheaper than any one else. BROWNE & STANARD.

SALMON.—A nice lot of fresh Chinook salmon received daily at Schultz Bros, City Market.

SOUTH ALBANY.

A most desirable and beautiful location for suburban residences, owing to its natural advantages and nearness to the center of business. Compare the size, location, view and access to and from these lots, and you will be convinced of their merits. Call early and secure a home before the advance in price. Apply to TWEEDALE & REDFIELD, Agents. First door south of Post Office.

JUST RECEIVED.—F L Kenton has just received by last steamer a good supply of very fine California full cream cheese which will be sold cheap. Also received a new barrel of choice mixed pickles. He keeps a first-class stock of groceries and confectionery, and when in need of anything in his line you will do well to give him a call.

RESULTS OF WAR.—A war with Germany would increase the value of the Oregon wheat crop, but it would not increase the price of millinery at the new store of Mrs Marie Davis & Co. These ladies are doing a remarkable business at remarkable prices. Call and see the new styles and latest novelties. Everything new and of latest design.

NEW COMERS.—To our city will find it to their advantage to price our goods before buying in their outfit of groceries and provisions.
