LOCAL RECORD.

BURIED HERE.—The body of H. B. Morgan, who died of delirium tremens, was buried yesterday afternoon with appropriate ceremony, quite a number following it to the grave.

PUBLIC SALE OF CATTLE.—34 first-class short horn, will be sold at Domestic and fat stock pavilion, Portland, Oregon, on Thursday, May 23rd, 1889.

OLD FASHIONED.—The Bellevue, Idaho, Herald says: "A novel team stopped in front of our office this morning. It was composed of four cows and was hitched to a wagon taking a mover and his outfit to Washington territory."

A SUGGESTION.—Residences on several streets in Albany are badly in need of drainage, water standing even under the houses, no doubt breeding disease.

CENTENIAL.—To-morrow the grand centennial of the inauguration of Washington will occur with imposing ceremonies all over the United States.

A NEW TOWN.—A new town in Washington Territory is Mondovi, 22 miles from Spokane Falls, on the R. R., and it is already getting quite a start.

ANKLE SPRAINED.—This noon at the depot in getting off his omnibus Mr Chas Pfeiffer, of the Revere house, stepped on a stone in such a way as to sprain one of his ankles in a very serious manner.

THE BEST NOW.—With two four story brick hotels Albany ought to boom with a tremendous boom. Already travellers almost universally say that Albany has the best kept hotels between Portland and Red Bluff.

ALL THE RAGE.—An Illinois church is about to have a fair, in which one of the features will be the pigs in clover, with real pigs. A large fac-simile of the toy will be built in the hall, and a prize given to the man who pens the pigkers.

Coll Van Cleve has rented Dr Negus' residence on 7th street and will make Albany his home. Since leaving Albany about seven years ago about four have been added to Coll's family, and a brighter lot of youngsters is not often picked up.

7 Oils cures rheumatism, neuralgia and toothache. Foshy & Mason, Agents.

A PECULIAR ACCIDENT.

A Team Tramples on a Prominent Farmer.

Last Saturday Mr. William Riles, better known as Bill Riles, was plowing on his farm, across the river, when a storm came up. In order to shield himself from the rain he crawled in front of his team. Just then a thunder clap pealed through the sky. The horses were frightened and sprang forward trampling Mr. Riles under their feet.

AFTER THEM.—Several citizens at Jefferson recently paid $50 for two fine fox hounds, and already they have captured eight coyotes, by the assistance of a club of twenty-five gentlemen. In order to effect the complete extermination of coyotes each member of the club agreed to pay $1 to the member killing a coyote for each animal killed.

A BETTER THING.—Four years ago Sheriff Hogan, of Roseburg, was an applicant for U. S. Marshal of Oregon under the Cleveland administration. He failed to secure the office and went to Spokane Falls and located. He bought four lots 60x100 feet for $1,000 each.

SCHOOL REPORT.—Following is a monthly report of School District No. 18, beginning April 1st, closing April 26th: No scholars enrolled, 39; No days present, 748; No days absent, 32; No times tardy, 7. Those neither absent nor tardy, Jessie Trites, Annie Cox, Clara Bond, Pauline Zuhlsdorf, Nella Marshall, Amelia Zuhlsdorf, Lucy Marshall, Prince Zuhlsdorf, John Knight, Tom Freeman, Louis Cox, Charles Gearhart, Ralph McCashney, Clay Trites.

GENERAL ORDER No. 19.—All officers and members of F. Co. 2d Reg't O. N. G. will assemble at their armory on Monday April 29th, 1889, at 7:30 p. m. in uniform for inspection and drill.

LET THE CAT OUT.—In the "World Against Her" the part of "Ned" it will be remembered was taken by a girl. If this was not proven by appearances it was by a little experience at Salem. A rat ran on the stage directly at the feet of Ned, and the way she took on established the fact completely that she was not a real boy.

ANOTHER BRICK.—Mr J A Bilyeu, of Scio, informs us that he will very likely put up a brick in that town 25 by 60 feet and two stories high. This and the brick to be erected by Mr E Goins will make our sister town quite lively this season.

Albany boys are crazy over marbles and do some tall gambling with the little spheres. Wonder what they mean by taws, and benches and dabs and such like expressions.

Kid Gloves! Kid Gloves! I have just received a full line of kid gloves branded Our Own. This is a genuine kid glove. I buy direct from importers in New York and consider them the best value of any glove I ever sold for this price.

To accommodate those wishing to visit Portland to attend the centennial celebration on April 30, a special train will be run on April 30 leaving Eugene at 4 A. M. and keeping 15 minutes ahead of the schedule time of the overland train.

TOWN TALK.—An immense shipment of Town Talk Savon soap received at Wallace & Thompson's, made especially for their trade. They knew it would cause the town to talk when the price, $1 a box, was known, so they gave that name. The quality also is unsurpassed. It will slip away at a terrific rate at $1 a box.

ELECTED.—6000 rolls of wall paper in an immense number of patterns at Fortmiller & Irving's, the finest line in the central Willamette Valley. It is an art gallery to see it all.

If you have any job work to do call on G W Smith who is prepared to do it with neatness and dispatch and as cheap as anyone.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.—For the 12 hours beginning at 12 o'clock, noon. Fair, nearly stationary.

List your lands and city property for sale at the Willamette Valley Land Agencies Office, in St. Charles Hotel block, Albany, Or.

The government boat Willamette was in the city to-day on its way from Corvallis down to the Luckiamute, where there is a large accumulation of snags. To day L E Blain is shipping from his store two thousand shoe boxes that have accumulated at his store, preparatory to a general improvement of the store.

To-night the annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. will occur at the Hall in this city, the program for which has already been published. The regular weekly meeting will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

In Argentine Republic a thousand dollars in gold is worth $1640. Wouldn't it be worth about the extra amount to spend the money there, which would be necessary as the $1640 is Argentine Republic money.

Salem must be a social city, Saturday's Journal devotes two and-a-half columns to social notes. This though includes theatrical performances and recitals, which hardly come under the head. We admit that Albany doesn't have enough sociability for much of a display, straight out and out parties being rather scarce here, our sociability being confined mostly to church socials.

The Astorian puts it in the following rather rude manner: "Next Tuesday will be a general holiday; there will be services in the churches. Postmaster Bell is authorized to observe the usual holiday hours in the Post-office; everybody in the United States is expected to take a holiday except milkmen, hatters, steamboat men and newspaper men. If they want a rest they can go and die."

Tangent

And again the gentle patter of the rain has come. The farmers are nearly all through with their spring work. The prospect for a good wheat crop this season was never better.

Our school is going right along nicely with P of W A Robb as teacher. Mrs Ida Moses, of the Alsea country, is here for a few days on a visit to her parents, Mr and Mrs L F Smith.

Mr Hawley, from the Alsea country, has purchased a house and lot in Tangent preparatory to making this his home. There is not an empty house in Tangent now.

Mr Johnnie Canovan, of this place, started on the overland train last Wednesday night for an extended trip to his old home in New York. Tangent loses a good young man.

Dame Rumor has it that our former friend, Miss Allie Parkerson, now of Iowa, intends coming back to her old home in Tangent. Her many warm friends will be glad to welcome her back again.

We are informed that Prof Libbitz and family intend moving in a short time to Junction, where he is engaged as instructor for their brass band.

Mr Sam Moses and wife have moved over to Alsea to make that their future home, so we are informed. Rev P A Moses has been holding a revival meeting at Peoria this last week and returned home yesterday.

Warren Hulbert is running a meat wagon daily through the country. Mr A Barnes shipped off five car loads of wheat from the Tangent warehouse and is going to ship more wheat this week.

Sharp Bros, gave a sociable dance here at Beard's dry house on Friday night. Tangent has not experienced the wonderful booms in real estate which has been recorded of other towns and cities of large dimensions; but still we have quite a lift in the way of Terpsichorean parties and jim janes.

The light fantastic heel and toe tap caused the welkin to ring during the large as well as the wee small hours of all last Friday night. The upper floor of the Beard boys' fruit drying establishment was the scene of action. Old Terpsichore presided, and Mrs J J Beard furnished the supper which no doubt was handled with great avidity, as Mrs Beard knows how to cook. The party was pronounced good.

A real case of the delirium tremens or jim jams occurred here yesterday afternoon at this place. On Friday evening a gentleman of rather neat personal appearance, wearing a good grey suit of clothing, and making two short steps to one long step called upon the citizens of Tangent for food, strong drink and shelter, and finding none of these things he referred himself to a good comfortable stable for the night. Saturday morning he came out of his lodging place with improved steps but with an appetite to which cold water only appeared like so much foolishness. He procured a bottle of Jamaica ginger at Smith & Moore's store, and some valerian at the post office, and showed himself on the outside of these mixed contents and sat around places of business appearing very stupid at times and very restless at others till about 4 o'clock in the afternoon and then comes the closing scene. This drug guzzler was sitting in the waiting room at the postoffice with a paper in his hand as though he might be reading when all at once he rose up with one hand raised up above his head, with face turned up as if he were gazing at the sun and in this posture he went round two or three times and fell as though he was dying, with livid skin and jaws distended and breath very labored. He finally rallied and took the first train to find medical aid. "The wages of sin is death. O man will you never learn?"
