LOCAL RECORD.

COMING TO STAY.—Mr Barker, the baggage agent of the S P at this city, is authority on the amount of immigration to this city. He reports it quite large, and of a class that have come to stay, as a majority of those stopping off here do not again leave the city and the baggage checks consequently are accumulating.

DIDN'T RUN.—A writer in St. Nicholas for March brings evidence to prove that Washington was a great athlete. He threw the champion wrestler of his neighborhood when a young man, and was the best horseman and the best runner of his time.

PLASTERED.—About a week ago a fellow came here from Eugene and opened up a barber shop on State street. He gave his name as J H Plaster. A few days ago he sold out suddenly to Mr Sedgwick and at once left the city.

THREE DRUNKS.—A man with too much essence of tarantula on board was navigating First Street this afternoon, taking the whole sidewalk, when he was taken in tow by Policeman Miller and piloted after a desperate, but rather good natured resistance into the calaboose.

WHAT'S IN A NAME.—A man by the name of Apple is justice of the peace up in Union county, and all the papers have been trying to work up cute little plays on his name, such as to wonder whether he was sound, or mellow, green or sour, or rotten, and how he could be square and yet round, etc.

STREET RAILWAY.—It was intended to begin grading Lyon Street just north of the depot this morning for the street car line, but the matter was delayed until tomorrow morning, when it is expected business will begin. Martin & Co has the sub-contract for the grading.

STRAWBERRIES, ETC.—On Friday, May 17th, at the W C T U Hall from 5 to 9 o'clock p. m. the ladies of the U P Church will give a floral and strawberry social and lunch, which promises to be a nice affair.

THE ALUMNI.—At a meeting of the Alumni of the Albany College held last evening it was decided not to hold a public entertainment at Commencement as heretofore announced, but instead to give a private supper at the St Charles Hotel, with a short program in the parlor.

A COW TOWN.—At Corvallis yesterday Dr J B Lee was elected President, Z H Davis, J C Taylor and M S Neugass, Aldermen; Recorder, Johnson Porter; Marshal, Jas Dunn; Treasurer, Ed Bier. On the cow question the vote was: For cows ruling at large, 174; against, 130. Majority for cows, 41. Poor Corvallis.

VOL. II, No. 1.—This is the first number of the second volume of the DAILY DEMOCRAT. We do not need to tell our readers that our success is enormous and that we are chuck full of purposes for another and many more years of the DAILY DEMOCRAT.

The lowest bid on a brick block to be built at the corner of Commercial and Chusketta streets in Salem was $34.195.

The Lane county poor farm, consisting of 160 acres, located near Eugene is to be sold at auction on Thursday.

Money can't buy better boots and shoes than McIlwain is selling, because better goods are not manufactured.

It will be worth farmers' time to come around and see C H Dodd & Co's twine, while they are looking for twine.

The Dynamite buggy whip is esakin lined and gut center loop and warranted to give satisfaction. For sale by Thompson & Overman.

Several Jefferson men are in the city with a petition for a bridge at Jefferson, which will be presented to the County Court tomorrow.

Col Ekelson, chief engineer of the O P railroad, is busily engaged in building a bridge across the Deschutes river.—Harvey Items.

Harrisburg is receiving the boom that is affecting the Valley generally. Three or four new families have just located there, and a number new residences are going up.

To-day Hon R A Irvine purchased of Mr. Joab Powell his farm, consisting of 160 acres, seven miles from this city, paying $6400 for the same, or $40 an acre.

A large number of seats have been reserved for "Diamond Mystery" to be presented Monday by the Chicago Comedy Company House. There will be an immense house.

Mr Shannon brought in his first strawberries to-day and left them at Brownell & Staurids. Fine looking berries, only 25 cents a box, and cheap at that, on the start.

The Chicago Comedy Co scored a great success at the opera house last evening. The house was packed to the doors. The play was "The Diamond Mystery," a straight out comedy.—Salem Statesman.

"Take the advertisement out, have sold the animal," says an advertiser, an old subscriber having seen the ad, and answered it. The DEMOCRAT nearly always strikes the center as an advertising medium.

The examination of W E Hawkins at Salem for the murder of J H Ogles was completed yesterday evening. Hawkins was held to await the action of the grand jury without bail.

Recently the young ladies of Buena Vista formed a hammer brigade, and repaired the sidewalks. In Albany the young ladies stub their toes against nails and—well, there are not nearly as many nails up as there used to be.

The Roseburg postoffice is the largest distributing office in the state. This may seem a bold statement but it is true nevertheless. This office distributes to 38 different offices in the state, making a large amount of care and work necessary to keep everything in order.—Review.

John Conroy, aged 12, was standing at the blackboard, copying figures from his slate, at school in Shenandoah, last Thursday, when suddenly a loud report was heard, and four of the boy's fingers fell in different parts of the room, while fragments of his slate flew about the room, striking a number of the scholars. Young Conroy was thrown to the floor and the blood spurting in streams from his shattered hand. A powerful explosive cap on the end of a slate pencil did it.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs Riggs, President of the Stato W C T U went South to-day.

Mr J W Boies, of San Francisco, is in the city, the guest of his former Eastern friend, Prof Lee.

Mr S P Barger, of the Brownville furniture store is in the city and reports Brownville on the upgrade.

Mr John Geisendorfer has just returned from the Washington Territory in the interest of the Albany F. & M. Insurance Co.

In Portland. The following Albany people registered at the Portland hotels on Monday: J H Rainey, J K Weatherford.

Mrs W B Rice left with her little children Tuesday evening for Glendale, and will visit friends at Salem, Albany, Eugene and Portland before returning to Ashland.—Tidings.

A farewell party was given last evening at the residence of Mrs Hand, in honor of W E Gillet, who leaves in a few days for Sitka, Alaska, which he proposes making his home. Mr Gillet will leave many warm friends behind him in Albany.

Mr McLaughlin, the tailor, who intends leaving Albany for Chico, Cal., informs us that he resided there once before, and so does not go among strangers. Mack is a good tailor, a genial, steady man, and has made many friends in Albany who will regret seeing him leave.

W H Brank, who has been superintendent of the Indian school at the Warm Springs Agency for the last four years, has come to Ashland, with his family, with the intention of making his home here, he being interested with H S Evans in the paint and oil business.—Tidings.

Mr M B Stanford, of Minneapolis, is in the city for the purpose of organizing a building and loan association. He will call upon our business and professional men to take stock in the Guaranty B & L Association of that city. Its workings are good, and as an investment few things surpass it.

CURRENCY.

This is the season of the year, when for years and years for a short period there is either too much rain or not enough, and everything is going to the dogs cross 'round; but the harvest has always come in good shape with hardly an exception. Sometimes the wheat gets too big and becomes lodged, sometimes the stalks get yellow a little, and so forth, but along in the fall there is always a big demand for threshers. Keep cool, the weather is not set to order, and it takes just about so much rain during the 365 days to keep things running.

Satin shoes, says an eastern paper, are not worn out. Albany merchants should immediately order a stock as that is the kind we have been hunting for. Common calf and crocodile and kangaroo and dog skin shoes vanish altogether too rapidly for flat pocket books.

The Earl of Chesterfield was recently in Portland, Chesterfield, ah, the chap who wrote those elegant letters to his son about good manners. We would like to see some Chesterfield huddle to a thoroughbred Pacific coast hoodlum on the subject.

A Portland meat market advertises 3 pounds good round steak for 25 cents, 1 sirloin steak 10 cents, 1 tenderloin 12 1/2 cents, prime roast 12 1/2 cents per pound. This is put down as a big cut in prices. People like to see meat cut well, hence the item is of interest.

Some of our eastern exchanges are publishing an item like this: "Parnell is ahead of the Times." The writer remembers hearing him speak once on a time just from a common carriage in the middle of the street, and now he is a great man, his name sounding along every wire and he has a monstrous slender suit on his hands. It is thus that merit eventually obtains its just reward. Really there is lots of fine material in this man Parnell, none greater among Irishmen since O'Connell.

CROOK COUNTY.—Ed Schmeer returned yesterday from Albany, at which place he spent the past month. He says his first day's work in Albany was to ride a wild horse in the streets, which disgraced the which so excited the quiet denizens of that city that he was called on to donate $15 to the sidewalk fund. Ed tells us he will immediately begin gathering his horses and will drive them to Linn county during the summer.... Last Sunday A Hackleman arrived here with three fine stallions—two draft horses and one trotter—which combined are as fine a stable of horses as ever were brought to the county.... Wm Yantis, of Shedd's, Linn county, made us a pleasant call last Tuesday. Mr Yantis is here visiting his brother-in-law, Judge Summer.... Ed Curl arrived here on Tuesday's stage from Anaconda, Montana, in charge of Deputy Sheriff Helm. Mr Curl is accused of having stolen a horse from Hon J N Williamson.... J N Duncan and family contemplate removing from Prineville sometime this summer or fall. We much regret losing Mr and Mrs Duncan from our business and social circles.—Review.

CRACK IT.—The following from a Corvallis paper is not much of an item, but we give it just for the fun to see if any one in Albany can crack the nut: "A gentleman came and asked us for some copies of the Leader to send to a person back east who had written for a local paper. We gave them to him."

A FEATHERY ITEM.—The following have been flying north ward.

Tangent.

Tangent is not quite dead yet, there is not an empty house in town. Albert Bryan sold his farm at Tangent for $50 per acre and paid $15 per acre for 100 acres about 1 1/2 miles from this place. We have a good school here taught by Prof Robb.

Warren Hubbard is doing well in the meat market. He is also running a beef wagon business.

Tangent was well supplied with tramp s. Last Friday night there was not less than seven in an empty box car waiting for the night train. They say they can't make a living in Oregon; but it is their own fault, for I know of plenty of men that started with nothing, but a good honest resolution and a determination to let whiskey alone. Here is Johnny Soavan; been among us for years and has saved money enough to buy a farm of 125 acres, paying nearly $4000 for it, besides being at deaths door at times with breaks and bruises, that cost him a large amount of money and lost time; but spent no money for whiskey. He has gone on a visit now to his old home in New York, and we look for some excitement in the shape of a wedding when he gets back. Well, the girl that catches Johnny on her hook has caught something worth her while.

Mr. Barons is shipping considerable wheat from Tangent warehouse.

Prof Sibbitt has not moved away yet and we hope he has given up moving at present.
