ocrat, who wrote a letter to Mr Tanner resigning his office as special Examiner, giving 16s eaton that he served in the war for the union, that he is a democrat, and that since bis is republican administration, he believes it will be incompatible, with the politics of the administration to retain bim iv office. We are old that Tanner replied to Shank's letter stat ing that he, Tanner, was not there to remove democrats from office etc. This is a little scheme gotten up, doubtless, by the cabinet of Harrison to manufacture a little cheap capital and reputation for the administration. But the public are not so easily deceived. That democrats all over the country are being removed daily by the scores and hundreds from federal positions for no other reason than that they are democrats, to make room for other persons for no other reasons than that the latter are republi cans, can not admit of a doubt. The old soldier go as quickly as others. Almost the first posmaster removed in Oregon was an old soldier. No charges of unfitness or incompetency were alleged against him, but he was a democrat and

Montana Democratics

HELEKA, Mont., May 14.-The democrats have carried the election for delegates to the have carried the election for delegales to the constitutional convenion beyond a doubt. Every district in Be, went democratic and other districts which the reproductions were confident of carrying. A heavy snow storm all over the territory operated against anything like a full vote. This victory of the democrats will give them the pow rin the constitutional convention to re-district the pre-ent legislative districts, whe chy of course, in a great advantage as it will probably result in the election of two United States senaions of their poli ical persuasion. The returns grow more five able for the democrats as they were in later.

LOUISVILLE, May 14 .- A big cowd was drawn to the Churchill Downs for the races today by the contest be ween Proctor Knott and Spokane. There were few here from the West to back the Washington territory horse. The defect of Knott in the Derby had slinken the confidence in him comewhat yet the odds could not be shoved to such figures as to induce the backing of the supposed small chance that he would be leaten. Knott took the lead, but Spokane passed him at the finish, coming in two lengths about.
