

LOCAL RECORD.

YOU NEED IT.—The Albany DEMOCRAT has the street car line of this city running "from the bridge across the mill race at the north end of Commercial street clear to New York." No, thank you; not quite, but if it keeps stretching out as it has done the past few months, it will soon be to Turner on the one hand and Geryals on the other—in fact the company may conclude in a little while to build into Albany and give to the benefit of its civilizing influence. —Salesman. But really Salem is showing lots of the kind of snap that makes the mare go, and we do hope our Capital will continue to be a good city. It speaks for the whole state in a measure.

THE LANCASTER LASS.—A larger audience greeted the Chicago Comedy Co. last evening. The company has made quite a hit in this city, and more enthusiastic audiences have never been congregated in Albany. The Lancaster Lass is a lively drama, chuck full of fun. James Devlin as Johnnie caps the climax, and Miss Inman as the lass is full of a pleasing life that charms the audience. Every part is well filled; there are no drones in the business. Each night seems to be an improvement, if possible, and larger houses will be the rule, though fully four hundred were present last evening. To-night, "Clear Gift." You will go.

BANNO.—There has been considerable speculation as to what course James Bannon, the Lebanon bank robber, took, after leaving Albany Monday night. It is now learned that Tuesday morning he took breakfast with Mr. Jesse Parrish, near Soladville, and also wrote a note to a friend at Lebanon. In the evening of the same day he again appeared at Mr. Parrish's and was given his supper. Whether Mr. Parrish knew him otherwise than from description he is not informed.

A B. & L. ASSOCIATION.—A branch of the Guaranty Building & Loan Association was organized at Chas. E. Wolverton's office Wednesday evening, with the following officers: D. R. N. Blackburn, president; Isaac Blum, secretary; J. L. Cowan, treasurer; Chas. E. Wolverton, attorney. Directors: D. R. N. Blackburn, T. Wallace, E. L. Thompson, J. L. Cowan, Isaac Blum, L. E. Blain, Chas. E. Wolverton.

A HALSEY PICNIC.—On June 1st next the Band of Halsey will give a grand picnic at Powell's grove. A large number of prizes will be offered, such as for a fat man's race, lean men and heavily women; there will be a base ball and foot ball game and in the evening an ice cream social at Bones Opera House.

CARD OF THANKS.—At a regular meeting of Co. E 2nd Regiment O N G, held May 4th, 1889, at their armory, a unanimous vote of thanks was given to Co. F 2nd Regiment O N G for their assistance at the funeral exercises of our late comrade, Frank S. Mattoon. Albany papers please copy.—Corvallis paper.

CHANGE OF VENUE.—At Dallas yesterday O P Beardsley was indicted of murder in the first degree. On motion of his attorneys, Richard Williams and J. J. Daly, he was given a change of venue to Salem and will be tried in June. District Attorney Hewitt arrived home from there today.

THE COWS.—At the next meeting of the common council a cow ordinance will be introduced and passed just as fast as the law will allow. We make this statement in order to ease any fears that may exist that Albany will continue to be a cow pasture any longer than necessary. Hereafter we are a city.

BETTER GO.—There will be plenty of strawberries, nice cream and ice cream at the U P social and festival at the W C T U Hall to-morrow night. This promises to be a very nice affair, and everybody is advised to go.

BOARD OF TRADE.—There will be a meeting of the board of trade at the G A R hall to-night at 8 o'clock. Important business will come up and a full attendance is desired.

HERE.—The Chicago & Northwestern has reached Albany. That is the name of a photograph company that have pitched a tent adjoining the DEMOCRAT office.

MARRIED.—On Wednesday, May 15th, 1889, in Millers by George Humphrey, Esq., Mr. N. C. Newman and Miss Louisa Farlow. The happy couple have the DEMOCRAT's best wishes for prosperity and happiness.

ATTENTION, LADIES.—A new invention for dress-cutting taught in half hour for $5, including scale. The agent for instruction of this system invites the ladies of Albany and vicinity to call and get a perfect fit. Mrs. S. W. Gilbert,oyer Golden Rule Bazaar, Albany, Or.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.—For the 12 hours beginning at 12 o'clock, noon. Rain, nearly stationary temperature.

BOON.—In Albany, on May 14th, to the wife of Mr. W. S. Denham—a girl.
