

LOCAL RECORD.

THE ALASKAN CREW.—Last night a special train arrived from Yaquina Bay with E. A. Calson, M. McLean, Jas. Murray, Ed. Winsel, M. Kelcher, Geo. H. Ross, E. Burns, Jas. Hewley and Ed. Sharples, survivors of the wrecked Alaskan. After being rescued at Florence with two others they were taken to the Bay on the Mis- chief by Capt. Winant and thence to this city, from where they went on the noon train to Portland. During their stay here they put up at the Russ House. There were forty-seven on board at the time of the wreck; the bodies of several have been found, but eighteen shipped in one of the life boats remains unaccounted for, and it is thought they have been drowned by this time. The men give graphic accounts of their trip of three days in the life boat with nothing to eat but nine cans of peaches and salt water to drink.

WILL PUSH MATTERS.—A meeting of the directors of the Albany Mining and Milling Company was held last evening, when Mr. Calhoun, an experienced miner, was appointed Superintendent, and employed to take charge of and develop the Company's Santiam mines. An outfit is being purchased, and Mr. Calhoun, with a force of men, will begin operations, and work in to a paying ledge if possible. At least it is proposed to know what there is in the mines. Several of the stockholders, already mentioned, have started for the mines to assist in the arrangements for the summer campaign, and now look out for gold and silver dust.

CROOK COUNTY.—On Thursday Judge Bird sentenced Ed Harbin, convicted on two indictments of horse stealing, and with yet two indictments on which he had not been tried, to only five years in the penitentiary—two and one-half years on each charge. Rain began falling about 9 o'clock Tuesday evening and continued to pour down steadily for 24 hours. The rain is supposed to have been general all over the county, and if so, has been of inestimable value to the country. After being out about 30 hours the jury in the case of the State against Curl was unable to agree and was discharged, the case being continued until next term.—Ochoco Review.

ATTRACTIONS.—Among other features on the 4th will be horse races and bicycle races. Two teams will be entered in the former from Albany, one from Lebanon, a letter having been received yesterday to that effect, and probably one from Corvallis. A meeting of bicyclists will be held to-night to arrange for contests. It is proposed to get a quarter mile track if possible and have the races hub and hub. Besides several general races there will be a safety bicycle race.

HORTICULTURAL BOARD.—The new Horticultural Board convened in Salem yesterday. J. R. Caldwell, of Portland, is President and Commissioner of the state at large; E. W. Allen, of Portland, Secretary and R. S. Wallace, of Salem, Treasurer. Marion, Polk, Linn, Benton and Lane counties constitute the 2nd of five districts, and R. S. Wallace is Commissioner of the district.

AWAY FROM HOME.—An Iroquois Indian is in the city selling beaded goods. He presents a familiar appearance to Eastern people; but it seems like taking cold to Newcastle for an Indian to come West, yet the Pacific Coast red man is a manufacturer of little besides baskets, so that there is a market here for his wares.

YUM, YUM.—Another quart box of strawberries from the fine gardens of Mr. William Peacock contains just twelve, all round, plump, clean berries, solid to the core and full of strawberry essence. They are the kind that speak for Albany as a strawberry market.

A BIG CLIP.—A letter from Dr. J. L. Hill's herdsman in Crook county says that he has taken the fleeces from the Dr's sheep and that he would start the 20th inst with six four-horse teams to bring the wool to this place. There are 13,000 pounds of it. It will be brought over the W. V. & C. M. wagon road.

ANOTHER IMPLEMENT HOUSE.—Mr. J. E. Knox has charge of Z. T. Wright's branch house at this city, and is located at the corner of First and Baker Streets. He will sell the Advance threshers and engines, and a first-class mower.

PHOTOGRAPHS.—Do you want your photos taken? We will take your photo any size from cabinet up. I do you the best class of work to be had in Albany, all work finished before paid for. Call and see our fine display at the C. & N. W. photo tent.

TO NEW COMERS.—We would say that we have no baits to give you, but we do guarantee good values for your money, and we kindly solicit your patronage. BROWNELL & STANARD.

A FESTIVAL.—Samaritan Lodge No. 316 L. O. G. T. will give a strawberry and ice cream festival at Smiths Hall in Harrisburg on June 1, 1889. Mrs. Nettie Hendes, Clara Drisko, Chas. Howell, Committee.

BROWNSVILLE.

Mrs. R. H. Coshow is visiting relatives here. The number of strange faces to be seen on our streets is daily increasing. W. F. Byers returned Saturday from a journey to the Blue river and Calipoolia mines, where he took Messrs. Adams and Van Hagan. Four colored men, calling themselves "The Big 4 Minstrels," gave us a minstrel show Monday that was well patronized and much enjoyed. A neat pamphlet, descriptive of Portland and her business houses, is at hand and causes us to long for Col. Alley's pamphlet of this county. Mr. Sylvester Cochran has sold his farm near Crawfordville to Mr. Abrams, late of Ellensburg, Wt. Messrs. W. T. Cochran and F. J. Rice left Saturday morning for Willow creek. Mr. Cochran will bring some horses back with him. Arrangements have been completed for the establishment of a newspaper at this place by Messrs. McDonald and Cavender, of Woodburn. Our town is to be congratulated on this addition and in securing two young men who are possessed with energy and enterprise and bear good reputations. Mrs. Hugh Fields, who has been confined most of the time since last fall, died last Friday morning. Her death was unexpected as her health had been up to two or three days before her demise than it had been through the winter. Mr. Fields is in Eastern Oregon, but was telegraphed for. The funeral occurred Sunday. A large number of people followed the remains to their last resting place. Rev. J. R. Kirkpatrick officiated at the funeral. Some two weeks ago Mr. Moyer sold to Finley McRea for $130 the piece of land just south of the Calipoolia bridge and east of the sidewalk, containing 6 1/2 acres. Mr. McRea now has a standing offer of $700 for this same piece of property. This has the appearance somewhat of our town being dead and all moving to Albany. Strangers are seen here every day inquiring for homes and none come but what are pleased with our location and prospects. Verily we soon will boom. Friday evening the ladies of the M. E. church gave a strawberry and ice cream festival at the city hall. The berries were wild and were gathered the day before on the adjoining lines, and a more luscious refreshment could not have been served. Quite a large number were waited upon and several dollars were realized which will be used in improving the M. E. church. An entertainment of singing, declamations, etc., was rendered during the evening. Our churches seem imbued with the spirit of progress and improvement that is now pushing all parts of our valley right along.

SPICER. "Your attention please" while I tell you who got left. John Leedy went to Portland on business last week. John Miller, of The Dalles, is visiting his sister, Mrs. J. W. Bell. The rains have caused some wheat in this vicinity to fall down. Misses Hattie and Adda Simpson went to Portland last Saturday. Ball & Dobkins are getting their steam saw nearly ready to cut wood. They expect to commence this week. Link Coucy has gone into the poultry business. Any one having chickens to sell will do well to see him. A series of meetings conducted by Rev. I. P. Martin and others closed last evening. It resulted in two conversions and six additions to the church. We have always heard to be successful in courtship one must agree with the father in politics, the mother in religion and the young lady herself in the fashion. It's not that way at Spicer. To meet with the greatest success here one must have a good team and buggy. A few days ago a tramp was seen wandering around here in a bewildered sort of way, as if he had lost something and was looking for it. On being asked what it was, he said he had heard that the Narrow Gauge railroad ran near this place, but so far he had been unable to find it. He was told that if he would look where the grass and weeds grew the tallest and thickest he might be more successful in his search. He was then seen looking as he had been directed, and after a close examination found the object of his search way down in the grass and weeds and went on his way rejoicing, saying as he went that the company had better get a few thousand sheep to summer follow the road if they still wished him to patronize it.
