OUR STREET CARS.—Last evening the Albany Street R R Co. let the contract for building two street cars to A J Anslin, of this city, at $950 a car. The cars will be 15 feet long, with 12 feet standing room, and will be built in the most improved fashion, with as fine finish as any of eastern manufacture. When finished they will speak for Albany in loud terms, and the letting of such an important contract to an Albany firm shows that our citizens propose to support home industries, a fact that goes a long way toward building up a community. Mr Anslin has had experience in this line of work and understands the business thoroughly. The cars will be as good as any in Oregon.

THE MISSING BOAT.—Harrison Bristol returned from a trip to Florence Wednesday. He reports that a life boat of the wrecked steamer Alaskan was found on the beach, south of Florence, with three holes stove in her. It is probably the missing boat as the current would have carried the north that was abandoned at Cape Perpetua north instead of south. It proves to be the missing boat, the steamer who left the Alaskan in her have found a watery grave. Wreckage was coming ashore near Florence. One party picked up a bureau intact, and several doors had been secured.—Eugene Guard.

GALL.—"Albany does not lack gall," says the Guard of Eugene. "She is anxious to secure the attendance of the Eugene military company at her Fourth of July celebration, and one of the Albany papers suggests that an order from the commander of the 2d regiment would compel them to attend. A few months of a boom has made the average Albany resident think there is no other place. Eugene is used to prosperity, and does not insist on having but her share of the regiment, and that at least consists of her home company."

A GOOD SECTION.—"Immigrants and homeseekers, who come to Albany and other thoroughfares on the main line are not informed of the wonderful resources along the Calipoola, Santiam and Hamilton creek, or else they would crowd in and take advantage of these golden opportunities before they pass away forever," says a correspondent of the Lebanon paper. Now as a matter of fact our real estate men work for all sections of the county wherever they have farms for sale. Certainly no part of the county deserves more consideration than that mentioned.

PRIVING.—The Southern Pacific railroad company has for more than a week had a boat at the Latona landing twice a day to count the number of passengers that arrive on her from Portland or depart. The boy is provided with blanks by the railroad company, and will pursue his avocation for 30 days at $1 a day. The object in view is to calculate whether the travel by steamer is sufficiently numerous to warrant the expense of a special train.—Oregon City Courier.

AN INSANE LINGUIST.—"J S White, who was brought up from Portland and committed to the asylum for insane yesterday, has command of seven or eight languages, and is the author of a work on etymology and is otherwise a highly educated man. It is supposed that his disease was brought about from a fall on his head he once had in San Francisco."—Salem Journal.

A SHOOTING MATCH.—The shooting job between G W Smith and Zeph Job on the flat near the bridge yesterday resulted in a victory for the former by two birds. The score stood, Smith sixteen and Job fourteen out of twenty. This contest was for a silver cup.—Corvallis Gazette.

PRIVATE AFFAIRS.—The DEMOCRAT doesn't intend to mix up with private affairs; but there are some in Albany that are being made altogether too public, and we have several sticks of space reserved for some of them if there is not a quietus put to the "racket."

FOR THIRTY DAYS.—All goods bought at Ida M Brush's will be discounted at 10 per cent. She has an immense stock and all the latest Parisian styles. Special bargains. Call early while stock is complete.

ELECTED.—6000 rolls of wall paper in an immense number of patterns at Fortmiller & Irving's, the finest line in the central Willamette Valley. It is an art gallery to see it all.

TO NEW COMERS.—We would say that we have no baits to give you, but we do guarantee good values for your money, and we kindly solicit your patronage.
BROWNELL & STANARD.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.—For the 12 hours beginning at 12 o'clock, noon.
Fair, warmer.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

There is nothing like competition in this world. He has been working in the picture line in this city, and now $2 will get you a cabinet photo. That beats anything back East the new comer always beats about, and even the old maids of the city who should be afraid of breaking the cameras have been out to front and have their shadow captured in black and white.

The Albany hose team are hereby warned by the Man About Town that on the 4th they will have a live competitor in the Lebanon hose team. H H O'dell, one of the fleetest runners in the world, will train the team and make it an efficient one. Corvallis will also have a lightning chaser, so that the hose race alone will be an attraction worth coming seventy seven miles to witness.

The principal mission of the average Albany boy evenings is to see how many cherries he can steal, and he follows the avocation with an assurance that is appalling. When it comes to cherries the Albany youth is a genuine annihilist.

The market price of wheat is now twenty cents, less than in October and November, and if there is anyone who should be kicking himself it is the man who didn't sell, and yet it is always thus. There are men who would wait for five cents more if wheat got up to two dollars a bushel.

STATE GRANGE.—At a meeting of the State Grange a resolution was passed favoring the Australian system of voting, and resolutions relative to a change in the law in regard to exemptions of property, regarding the election of United States Senators, and salary of the lecturer were considered and referred. The subject of assessment and taxation was also discussed and referred to the subordinate granges. A resolution asking that one or more men be appointed upon the Board of Regents of the Agricultural College, was adopted. The committee on Agricultural College, recommending the change in the law so that a majority of the regents must be practical farmers, and that the curriculum of studies shall be only practical studies which will specially aid the work of agriculture and practical mechanics.

LEBANON.—A R Cyrus & Co. sold to Jas. Coffet this week 200 acres of land near Brownsville belonging to the Scotch Co., in consideration of $3000. There was a match game of base ball here last Saturday between the boys and married men, in which the boys came out ahead. On last Wednesday little Hugh, son of Z T Bryant, was accidentally cut on the leg just above the ankle. The cut is not serious, but is very painful for the little fellow. Our hose team has decided to run in Albany on the Fourth, and have begun to make all necessary arrangements. The hose team have made arrangements with Mr Odell to train them for the Fourth.—Express.

A MAN KILLED.—Tuesday evening at the north bound freight was about to leave Drain a man wearing a very fair suit of clothes asked the conductor to let him ride, offering to help wood up whenever necessary. The conductor of course refused to do so. The man was not seen again but when the south bound freight was nearing Drain about two hours later his mangled remains were found upon the track.—Roseburg Review.

LOAD OF WOOL.—Mr R G Smith arrived in the city last evening with 1500 pounds of wool from Dr J L Hill's ranch at Sisters, Crook county. Five double teams will follow in a few days. He reported good traveling. While only 15 cents is paid for wool at The Dalles 18 to 19 cents is paid here. Our superior market will be a great thing for Crook county when the O P is completed.

CHEAP PHOTOGRAPHS.—Photographs $2.00 per dozen or less than they can be secured at the tent during its stay in Albany, at W H Greenwood's. Now is the time to get your picture taken. Only first class work done too.

Mr Frank Ingram arrived in Albany this morning after an absence of six and a half years, spent in all parts of the United States from San Francisco to Boston. Frank is a wanderer and no mistake; but we believe has concluded to settle down this time and make Albany his home. He is considerably surprised at the change in appearance of the city since he left.

A SURPRISE PARTY TRIP.
Last evening ten couples of Albany's liveliest young people left Albany early in the evening in several of the city's finest turn-outs and went to Corvallis, where they tendered Miss Mills, of that city, a surprise party, spending an evening full of unalloyed enjoyment. Games were played and an elegant lunch served. The journey both ways was as full of pleasure as it is possible to imagine a ride by starlight participated in by young people full of the world's social as well as business ambition. A broken bolt or something was the only accident. Not a single broken heart is reported. The following composed the happy company: Jas F Powell, Miss Maud Van Horn, T J Overman, Miss Vesta Mason, Ed Cusick, Miss Jennie Hollenbeck, Mason Brink, Miss Grace Trumbull, Manfred Brink, Miss Grace Carl, Frank I. Kenton, Miss Mills, D C Woodworth, Miss Flora Mason, Geo H Keeney, Miss Minnie Parker, Mr Hart, Miss Rose Trumbull, Mr C A Baldwin and Miss Agusta Brilieford.
