Skimmed milk is not a generous sort of exclusive diet, but a year of it is said to have saved General Schenck's life. He was wasted and almost dying from what was pronounced Bright's disease, and encouraged by the success of others, he tried the skim milk plan. He is now in fairly good health, living in Washington.

A smooth sea never made a skillful mariner, neither do uninterrupted prosperity and success qualify for usefulness and happiness. The storms of adversity, like those of the ocean, rouse the faculties and excite the invention, prudence, skill and fortitude of the voyager.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS

They Lynched Them.
 JOHNSTOWN, Penn., June 2.—At 8:30 o'clock this morning an old railroad car, who had walked from Sang Hollow, stepped up to a number of men who were congregated on the platform of the station at Saturnville and said: "Gentlemen, had I a shotgun with me half an hour ago I would now be a murderer, yet with no fear of ever having to suffer for my crime. Two miles below here I watched three men going along the banks stealing jewels from the bodies of the dead wives and daughters of men who have been robbed of all they held dear on earth." He had no sooner finished the last sentence than five burly men were on their way to the scene of the plunder, one with a coil of rope and another with a revolver. In twenty minutes they had overtaken two of their victims, who were then in the act of cutting pieces from the ears and fingers from the hands of two dead women. With the revolver leveled at the scoundrels, the leader of the posse shouted: "I throw up your hands or I'll blow your heads off." With blanched faces and trembling forms they obeyed the order and begged for money. They were searched and as their pockets were emptied of their ghastly finds the indignations of the crowd intensified and when the bloody finger of an infant child, with two tiny gold rings was found among the plunder in the leaders pocket, the cry went up, "Lynch them! lynch them!" Without a moment's delay ropes were thrown about their necks and they were dangling to the limbs of trees in the branches which an hour before was entangled the bodies of a dead father and son.

Over Six Hundred Drowned.
 JOHNSTOWN, Pa., June 2.—The situation here has not changed, and yesterday's estimates of the loss do not seem to be exaggerated. Six hundred bodies are now lying in Johnstown, and a large number have already been buried. Four immense relief trains arrived last night and the survivors are being well cared for. The warning given the stricken city was sent from South Fork village by Freight Agent Dechert. When the great wall that held the body of water began to crumble at the top, he sent a message begging the people of Johnstown for God's sake to take the hills. He reports no serious accidents at South Fork.

Highest Known.
 HARRISBURG, June 2.—The great flood is over, the river having reached its maximum height at 6:30 this morning and made its best record. The great flood of 1865 touched thirty-four feet eleven inches above low water mark, while this one went twenty-six inches beyond. The water is now subsiding and the people are beginning to realize the enormous damage that will take many weeks to repair.

This preparation has done more for suffering humanity than any other medicine in the market. Sold by Foshay & Mason.
