THE WOOLEN MILLS.—Messrs. J. M. Meyer, J. P. Galbraith, F. F. Craft and John Waters, of the new Woolen Mill Company are in the city and this morning began laying off the grounds for the buildings for the mills, the plans and specifications having arrived from the East. They are assisted by Surveyor Warner and Architect Snell. The main building is to be of brick two stories high, 55x120 in dimension. Adjoining it will be another brick, one story high, 55x35 feet, and among other out buildings one of frame, 100x25 feet, and another 55x80 feet, the whole covering a large area of space. The company will superintend the construction of the buildings and propose having them ready for business by about Nov. 1st. Already wool is being purchased for the winter run. The construction of the mills will give employment to a large number of men during the coming several months.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.—This morning about three o'clock feeling a draft coming up from his basement department Mr. B. F. Tabler went down stairs in his residence at the corner of Ferry and Eleventh Streets, where in the dining room he found a window open and a candle burning on the table, having been burned almost to the table cloth. The outside screen had been pulled off and the sash pried out and placed on the inside. A dish of strawberries, a pie, some onions, a salt dish and a few other things were taken, but none left, the silverware remaining untouched, and no other effort seemingly having been made to rob the house. Outside foot marks of one man were found leading from, and towards the railroad track. The fellow, whoever he was, did the job in a very quiet gentlemanly manner, and has Mr. Tabler's thanks for disturbing things so little.

A HOME INDUSTRY.—Quite an industry in Albany is Mr. John Hoffman's concrete works, at the corner of First and Railroad streets. A larger variety of work is being done than is generally appreciated. Besides filling of all sizes Mr. Hoffman is now manufacturing several lines of curbing for cemetery lots, noticeable for their evenness of construction and great durability. One has just been erected around the lots of Mr. John Parker in the Masonic cemetery and speaks for this style of work. Also concrete chimneys, well walls, etc. A home industry, it deserves the patronage of our citizens. Parties desiring anything in these lines should call and examine the large stock on hand.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—At the regular meeting of Safety Lodge, No. 13, A. O. U. W., held Monday evening the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: R. B. Vank, P. M. W.; W. E. Kelly, M. W.; A. J. Anslyn, Foreman; John Chiswell, Over-see; T. J. Siles, Recorder; A. Saylor, Receiver; E. A. Parker, Financier; C. G. Burkhardt, Guide; Wm. Myer, I. W.; A. D. Barker, O. W.; O. G. Awbrey, Trustee; Drs. J. L. Hill and G. W. Mason, Medical Examiners.

THE PRINCE OF ORATORS.—Col. L. F. Copeland, the orator who will lecture here Thursday and Friday evenings on "Whats to Hinder" and "The Future of the Republic," has lectured in the ill-fated Johnston, Penn., on four different occasions. Wherever he lectures once he is wanted again. Our citizens who heard him a year ago should again attend and advise all their neighbors to go. Reserved seats without extra charge at Blackman's.

PROBABLY CRAZY.—The attention of the officials of Benton county is called to the following: Yesterday afternoon at a little landing opposite the Red Crown mills a man entirely nude, accompanied by a woman, spent an hour sitting on the bank, in full view of the city on this side, presenting a very demoralized spectacle for those who witnessed the sight. It is to be regretted that Albany has no authority over the Benton county side of the river at this city.

A HALSEY ITEM.—Word comes to the Democrat office of quite a disturbance at the residence of Mr. Joe Tyler, at Halsey, Monday morning, June 3rd, 1889. A stranger appeared at the house and made things lively for awhile; but was finally gotten under control and weighed the scales marking just 12 pounds. Being a girl Mr. and Mrs. Tyler concluded to keep the stranger, and all is now serene.

HAS ARRIVED.—The Scio Press, Mr. Coll VanCleve's new paper, is at hand. It is a seven column folio, and displays in a marked manner Coll's great genius. Not only his home made type but the trenchant style of his wri-teups commend the paper to the public. Scio is fortunate in securing Mr. VanCleve for its editor.

AN ORDER.—The S. P. R. Co. to-day at this city issued an order requiring all hotel runners to solicit passengers from the side of the track opposite to the platform.

A GOOD HARBOR.

The Government Survey Just Completed—A Flattering Result.

The Democrat is informed in reference to the completion by the United States government of the annual survey of the bar at the mouth of Yaquina Bay, in order to show the result of the jetty work being done there. The survey was made by Gunn Lisle, chief engineer, and his assistant, J. S. Poincius, a three days' job, and the result is now on record in the office of the government at the Bay. The Democrat gives it for the first time to the public. According to the surveys, the least depth for a year at mean high tide was 20 feet, which would make the depth at ordinary high tide 21 to 22 feet. This shows an increase over previous surveys and indicates that the jetty work is having a marked effect on the efficiency of the Bay as a harbor. The channel into the Bay is a remarkably straight one, and with honest seamanship the largest steamer that paws the deep can enter the Bay in safety. Work on the south jetty is being pushed, rock being piled along the jetty increasing its height and length. The tramway and track on the north side are built to nearly the place for beginning the jetty proper; by the middle of the month the active work of emptying rocks into the sea will begin. As the work proceeds the depth of the water will increase and there is now absolutely no question as to the final result. Yaquina Bay will make a good and safe harbor.

THE CIRCUS.—We have had the circus. It is one of the wonders of the country. The great popular educator, the magnet that attracts and gives delight to all, old and young, Sells Bros. and Barrett's combination is unsurpassed. The zoological exhibition opens everybody's eyes. People who live in comparative isolation and who have never traveled or seen the collections of wild animals in large cities of the world are enlightened with the contents of these traveling cages. The stock of horses is creditable to the management. All look sleek, fresh and well developed. The performers were all in perfect condition. Women admired the handsome forms of the men and men admired the beautiful forms of the women—physical beauty at its height of development. Among the animals presented were two large hippopotami and four fine ostriches, also a number of large elephants, one of which "Sid" surprised all with his wonderful feats. The tent was very large. There were probably 3,000 people present and there was evidently room for 3,000 more. Two eyes and two sets of performers kept all busy, and a third space was used by the trapeze players and the wonderfully skilful riders on the bicycles. The vaulting, tumbling and general work of the acrobats was wonderful. The bareback performances of the riders was in every way equal to anything we have ever witnessed here or in any other part of the world. The whole show is good and worthy of a liberal patronage.—Gilroy Advertiser, April 27th.

"THE LOTTERY OF LIFE"—A Good sized audience greeted the Chicago Comedy Company last evening on their return engagement. "The Lottery of Life" was well presented and elicited great applause from beginning to end. As usual Jas. A. Devlin carried the house with him. He was immense as Jerry the Swell. The Innans, Mr. Patterson, the Snows, Mr. Love, Mr. Renway, all in their respective parts, do well, giving an even enjoyable entertainment which pleases in every act. To-night "Erin-a-choire" will be presented, no doubt to a full house.

OBSTREPEROUS.—They were respectively a postmaster and an ex-postmaster. They were trying to "break" in a bicycle and make him tote as other gentle horses do. The ex-postmaster was riding and the postmaster was "holding" the horse, but the horse was obstreperous. He licked and backed, metaphorically speaking, and as a result of his cavortings left the postmaster lying sprawling in the street and placed the "ex" hors de combat.

DON'T WANT IT.—The postmaster here has notified the publisher of the West Shore that a number of persons to whom was addressed the Corvallis supplements of that magazine, have refused to take them from the office. There will be trouble about it, but we would not be surprised if Mr. Samuel's had written the orders for them in such a way as to hold the subscribers to their subscriptions.—Leader.

NO IT'S OFFICERS.—At their annual meeting last evening the members of Albany Engine Co. No. 1, elected the following officers for the ensuing year: O. A. Archibald, President; W. H. Warner, Secretary; H. L. Croner, Financial Secretary; Vm. M. Parler, Treasurer; J. W. Walker, Foreman; Burr Sloan, 1st Ass't; Walter East, 2nd Ass't.

ELECTED.—6000 rolls of wall paper in an immense number of patterns at Fortmiller & Irving's, the finest line in the central Willamette Valley. It is an art gallery to see it all.

WE HAVE NO COMERS.—We would say that to have no balls to give you, but we do guarantee good values for your money, and we kindly solicit your patronage. BROWNELL & STANARD.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.—For the 12 hours beginning at 12 o'clock, noon. Fair, nearly stationary.

Speaking of the right kind of a wife for an editor the Astoria Transcript says: "An Astoria editor is the possessor of a wife, that is a whole town, and a town the old man could hold over time he gets full. If you don't believe it, examine our head. That's the kind of wife for an editor."

CROP WEATHER BULLETIN N. 13.

Oregon State Weather Bureau in cooperation with U. S. Signal Service, Central office, Portland, Or. For week ending June 1st, 1889.

The temperature was decidedly above the average. The rainfall has been below the average, except in Union, Umatilla and adjoining counties, where, owing to storms on the 29th, it was above the average. The sunshine has been above the average and very warm. In Western Oregon, except a few drops, no rain fell. The effect of these conditions on crops of all kinds has been excellent. Damage was done in parts of Umatilla county on the 29th by the "cloud burst" and in the neighborhood of LaGrande, Union county, by the thunder storm and hail on the same date. The cloud burst in Umatilla county caused streams to overflow, and in one instance washed away a house and drowned a lady; of the same storm heavy rain and hail fell at LaGrande. The hail was as large as small hen eggs and in five hours 1.77 inches of rain fell. The railroad track was blocked by land slides. The hail did some damage to crops; but it is thought that the benefit from the rain will outweigh the damage. Prospects for everything continue to be excellent. A small amount of smut is noticed in the oat crop in Benton county. The strawberry and cherry crop are yielding enormously in all parts of the State. Barley is being harvested and the hay harvest has commenced in many parts. Pruning of fruit trees continue. The trees are so heavily laden that if they were not considerably pruned injury to them would result. In Western Oregon the condition and crop prospects are all that could be desired. In Eastern Oregon promising reports are given in all sections. In Morrow county the land crop has been extra ordinary. Thousands of acres of high bunch grass, land has been sown to wheat and will yield good crops. The temperature in the State ranged from 46 to 95 degrees. A continuation of the favorable condition is all that is needed to make this year a most prosperous one for the tiller of the soil.

B. S. PAGUE, Observer U. S. Signal Service. ABOUT BRIDGES.

HAMILTON CREEK, JUNE 1, 1889. I wish to answer a few facts that I saw in the Daily Herald of Thursday, May 30, from Santiam, by an old resident. His facts from Nos. 1 to 4 inclusive are first-class, but in No. 5 he seems to try to carry the idea that a bridge at Waterloo would be a rare convenience. Now there are at least fifty families that will get their mail at Waterloo instead of at Lebanon just as soon as the bridge is done.

In the 6th and 7th facts he speaks about enhancing the value of land and thinks that enhancing the land lying up the narrow valley of McDowell creek and the strip of land on Mark's ridge would far outstrip the enhancing of the broad valley of Hamilton creek and her beautiful sloping foot hills covered with the choicest timber, which comprises an area ten times that of McDowell creek, and all of her fern clad hills and rocky bluffs.

The 8th fact I am not posted on in regard to the county road at both ends of the bridge, but I have always been informed that we have a county road. This I do know, that when John Burnett, of Mark's ridge circulated a road petition for a county road from the mouth of McDowell creek to Waterloo, and carried it up to the county court with forty names of good citizens signed to it he met a lawyer who had been retained to fight the petition and to kill it if he could.

In the 9th he says the people of Hamilton creek have never asked for a bridge at Waterloo. There never has been a petition for a bridge at Waterloo gone before the county court without nearly all of the residents of the creek signing it, and what is more the gentleman will find if he will examine some of the old petitions some of the names of the best citizens on McDowell creek and Mark's ridge also. Now it is a fact that it would be very convenient to have a bridge at both Waterloo and the mouth of McDowell creek, and they are both very necessary for direct communication and I trust that we will soon hear the glad news to that effect as Liberty precinct is divided by the raging Santiam as well as Waterloo precinct and they must have a hard time to meet at the polls at times, for I know for a fact that we have lots of trouble at Waterloo, as the water is very swift at this place on account of the falls. And by the way it is a fact that we have the finest water power at Waterloo there is in the county of Linn.
