LOCAL RECORD.

CAPTURED THE FORT.—Last evening the members of Valley Lodge K. of P. were given a pleasant surprise by a number of members from Laurel Lodge of Albany. They came in on the Knights of this city very unexpected, just as they were about to open lodge, and the surprise was so great that the boys of Valley Lodge hardly knew whether they were on 'foot or horseback.' But they finally regained their balance and the visiting brethren were given a hearty welcome.

ELI HERE.—Eli Perkins is spending the afternoon in Albany, having come from Corvallis on the noon train. A Democrat man found him at the Revere House. Eli is remarkably well pleased with our beautiful valley and pronounces it the finest in the world, it lies so well. Now that Perkins is not to lecture in Albany this time we will remark that it is a mistake that he is the biggest liar in the world. This is simply an advertising dodge. Mr Perkins is really a very truthful, square toed kind of a fellow, a good man and citizen, and if there is any more desirable place in the world for a residence than this very spot of the world Eli Perkins has never seen it. Speaking of lectures Col. Copeland is to be at the Opera House to-morrow evening and Friday evening. Nervous seats at Blackman's.

SALEM TO MEHAMA.—The people of Salem are having their hopes raised in reference to railroad connection with the Oregon Pacific at Mehama. Mr Koehler has been investigating the matter, and well it would be a good thing for the capital. The road though would run from Turner, and it would only take fourteen miles of rails. Salem is ten miles from Turner; but they figure the terminus out at that place, which would probably be the case so far as the running of local trains is concerned. But will it be built?

THE GAME LAW.—The new game law passed at the last Legislature provides that it shall be unlawful to hunt, pursue or kill any deer or elk between November 1 and August 1, thus leaving only the months of August, September and October in which deer can be killed, and they cannot be killed at any time for their hides. Unless the law is enforced there will soon be no deer to kill.

KNOW MORE.—The older you grow the more you know. Says the old proverb: This is another of those fallacious sayings that time exposes. Just think how little the old men of to-day know as compared with the young ones. Old and young, though, in Albany universally agree that a good place to buy is at Conner's Produce and crockery ware is at Groceries. There you get first-class treatment.

YAQUINA LOTS.—Mr Schmidt, of the Yaquina Hotel, has been at Albany and Corvallis selling lots in a thirty-five acre tract recently bought by him. The fact that several O. P. employees at Corvallis invested speaks in reference to railroad prospects at least.

REJECTED.—Bids for building the Masonic temple were opened by the committee this afternoon, three bids being filed. The committee thinking all too high rejected all of them and will advertise again. The bidders were W. C. Cassell, I. F. Conn and Geo. Patterson.

A HARBOR.—Not only have several Johnstown people located in Salem, going there before the terrible disaster; but a family recently settled there, coming from Kansas, where their old home has since been blown into kindling wood by a cyclone.

BORN.—On June 4th, in Albany, to the wife of John Pardon, a son.

TO NEW COMERS.—We would say that we have no baits to give you, but we do guarantee good values for your money, and we kindly solicit your patronage. BROWNELL & STANARD.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.—For the 12 hours beginning at 12 o'clock, noon. Fair, warmer.

SUMMER WRAPS.—Novelties in beaded and stockinet jackets just received. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

ERIN-A-CHORA.—A good house greeted the Chicago Comedy Comedy last evening. Erin-A-Chora was presented with good effect and enthusiastically received. Belle Inman made a fine Kathleen and Jas Devlin as Terence O'Moore was a rousing Irishman. Val Love makes a good villain; but the man who acts the villain, the better he fills the position the more the audience would like to knock him out on the first round. Charles Patterson comes to the front in fine shape as Billy Buttoncup. Miss Virginia Snow in her favorite part does good work, and while it is not a part that attracts as much as some it has to be filled well, and this Miss Snow does in a glistering manner. The entertainment closed with a short farce entitled 'To Oblige Benson.' To-night 'Ticket of Leave Man,' to be followed by a social dance with the popular Mr Hayes at the piano.

LYONSVILLE.

LYONSVILLE, June 3rd, 1889.

Mrs. Caples left this morning for her home at Columbia City.

Real estate is changing hands in this section in a manner that indicates we are receiving our quota of immigrants.

A new dwelling is soon to be erected in town by J. C. Lyons, in which, we understand he intends to live.

A school exhibition is to be given in the Fox Valley school house Saturday evening next, which promises to be a pleasant affair.

From a private telegram we learn that party of S. P. officials will arrive at Mehama to-day (Monday) in the interest of the Salem & Mehama R. R.

Friday evening, some one with less principle than judgment, set fire to some railroad wood belonging to E. Schneider. The fire was extinguished with little damage, and the wood is now being guarded.

Some inquiry is being made by residents on the Santiam as to whether we are to have a special train for the 4th. In the judgment of your correspondent, such a train would more than pay the company, and add much to help swell the multitude that is sure to participate.
