 and by him brought to this State. The French coach horse has been attracting great attention throughout the Eastern States the past few years and are being imported from France in great numbers.
 Venditor is a fine representative of this famous breed of horses, standing 17½ hands high and weighing 1600 lbs. He has taken premiums over Cleveland bays wherever shown. This stallion represents the general pure-bred stock much needed
