LOCAL RECORD.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—This forenoon a delivery team, being driven by a driver from the stable, was in the vicinity of the circus elephants when the horses became frightened and ran away.

LEG BROKEN.—Hon A Condra, who lives about six or seven miles S W from here, near the Center school house, while coming to town Wednesday met with a very serious accident.

THE N. W. INS. CO.—The loss of the Northwest insurance company by the Seattle fire is now stated to be about $20,000, though about $100,000 was carried in the city.

WHO WILL ANSWER?—J O Carter, a subscriber to the DEMOCRAT living at Starbuck, Washington territory, writes as follows: "I would like to ask the fruit growers of the Willamette valley to inform me through the columns of the DEMOCRAT what will kill lice on prune trees."

TRAVELING IN STYLE.—At the depot yesterday afternoon was a special car brought over from the West Side and taken on the overland last night.

NARROW ESCAPE.—There is a great deal said about the Narrow Escape railroad. People are getting afraid of it. It seems like riding in a balloon to navigate it.

WAS ARRESTED.—Two or three days ago the DEMOCRAT published the statement of M Schlosser, in answer to a previous one in the DEMOCRAT, that he was not arrested.

MAY BLOSSOM.—The Georgie Woodthorpe troupe presented "May Blossom" last evening to a large and enthusiastic audience. Some remarkably clever acting was done.

THE CIRCUS.—A large crowd has been in the city to-day attending the circus. The parade was large and the best yet given here.

BIGGEST YET.—10,000 rolls of wall paper, latest varieties, finest decorations just received at Fortmiller & Irving's.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.—For the 12 hours beginning at 12 o'clock, noon. Fair weather clear.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

J Fred Yates, of Portland, was in the county over Sunday.

LYONSVILLE.

The "cille" has been taken from the name of our town, and now it is simply Lyons, and so recorded.

Choups are playing havoc among a band of sheep belonging to David Scott.

Al Carell, of Mill City, passed through town to-day on his way home from Yaquina Bay.

Rust has made its appearance on grain in this vicinity, while spring sown grain is sadly in need of rain.

Rev F Dillard Holman, of McMinnville, preached at Mehama, Friday evening, to a fair and appreciative audience.

Quite a number of Salem's prominent citizens with their families are registered at Mehama, among whom are E M Waite, Williams, Ireland and others.

A camp meeting is now in progress at Mehama, conducted by Revs Jones and Harburt, which will probably continue for two weeks.

The long expected water tank here is now in course of erection, and when completed will be second to none on the line, being eighteen feet in diameter.

From reliable authority we learn that the postoffice department has now under consideration the advisability of establishing a tri-weekly mail route between Scio and Mehama.

Two parties of our citizens went to the mountains last week, bent on hunting and fishing, but owing to the condition of the trail, returned in disgust.

A pleasant party was given at the residence of C M Cook, Saturday evening, it being the birthday of Mrs Cook. Mrs C being the recipient of a handsome gold watch from her husband added much to the features of the evening.

Orders have been received from the P O department to discontinue the Fox Valley P O on June 30. This was probably due to the fact of the present incumbent resigning some time since and failing to name or recommend his successor.

Married.—At the residence of G M Cook, by Justice Lyons, Lloyd McGruder and Miss Emily Adcock. The happy couple will leave at once for Idaho which will be their future home.

THE WATER COMPANY.

HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.—On Saturday, June 29th, at 1 p. m., the Benton County Horticultural Society will hold its regular quarterly meeting in the Court House at Corvallis. On this occasion Hon R S Wallace of Salem will address the meeting. It will be remembered that he is the member from this district on the State Board of Horticulture. His subject will be the State Board of Horticulture and its workings. This is a subject of no small importance to both general farmers and fruit growers and it will be an excellent opportunity for those specially interested in horticulture to learn what this board is doing and what it expects to do. To those persons who are members of similar organizations does this society extend a cordial invitation to be present at this meeting. E R LAKE, Sec'y.

TO NEW COMERS.—We would say that we have no baits to give you, but we do guarantee good values for your money, and we kindly solicit your patronage. BROWNELL & STANARD.
