HARRISBURG PICNIC.—The picnic at Harrisburg yesterday was a grand success. Dr J F Hendricks was President of the day and O T Porter, of Albany, orator. Just at the close of his remarks he received a despatch from Senator Mitchell that his appointment as Marshal of Alaska was confirmed, which many of Mr Porter's friends will rejoice with him over. The program for the day was carried out to the letter, and the most laughable part of which was the free for all women's foot race, three to enter and at least two to start. Mrs Williams and Mrs Sherrill were the contestants. Much interest was manifested by the spectators, judging from the way money changed hands over the result. The Glee club rendered some fine music, also by the band from Junction, which have made great improvement, and our people should feel proud over the grand strides they have made in music. The exercises concluded and many remained to participate in the light fantastic until the wee hours of the morning when all went away happy.

AN ADVANCE AGENT.—Last evening Geo R Lee was arrested at Tangent by Marshal Hoffman, on the charge of larceny and false representations. It seems that he had represented himself as advance agent of the Walleck Comedy Company, hired the Opera House for two nights, boarded at the St Charles a day or two, and borrowed $5 of Fred Merrill, whom he had appointed agent for the company. Then he left towards the South. A valise owned by Merrill is mixed up in the case in an uncertain manner. As the evidence against Lee was not strong enough to hold him he was discharged. He evidently is not what he represents himself to be, and there is something peculiar about the affair anyway.

SCHOOL TEACHERS.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of District No 5 last evening the following faculty was elected for the public schools of Albany the coming year: G A Walker, Principal; Misses Lillie Robertson, Jane Morris, Margery Brink, Belle Gray, Kate Aiken, Abbie Wright and Mrs E Thrall, Assistants. Miss Sue Harper, Supernumerary. Mr John Medin was re-elected janitor.

TWO LOANS.—At the meeting of the Building and Loan Association last evening two loans were made aggregating $1400, one to Mr Al Saylor of $400 at 5% months interest in advance, and the other to Mrs M Warren at 5% months interest in advance. The association has obtained a good start and has the confidence of all connected with it.

EASTWARD.—Negotiations are pending at Corvallis for the letting of contracts for the extension of the Oregon Pacific, and it is reported on good authority that work will be pushed eastward faster than ever before. Railroad men in this city have already begun preparations for going to the front. It is to be hoped there will be no cessation hereafter until Boise City is reached.

THAT R. R.—The Dallas correspondent of to-day's Oregonian says: "The railroad from Yaquina via Luckiamute Falls, Dallas, Spring Valley and Salem to a point on the present Narrow Gauge is now an assured fact. This will be a blessing to the country through which it is intended to run, as it will traverse some of the finest wheat growing sections of the state and pass through some of the best timber belts in the Coast range."

INCORPORATED.—The Albany & Astoria Railroad Company filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state yesterday; capital stock, $1,000,000; object, to build and operate a railroad from Astoria to Albany; place of business, Albany; incorporators, James I. Cowan, E J Lanning, Charles Pfeiffer, John Schmeer and W B Barr.

SHE COULDN'T SEE IT.—"Not much," says she, "you don't catch me cooking this hot weather, when I can get these delicious, luscious goods, such as chipped beef, soured plums, spiced sardines, deviled ham cream cheese and all those nice eatables at the Willamette Packing Co's store."

A TUMBLE.—Mr John Usher was putting a new rope in the DEMOCRAT'S flag pole to-day when the pole took a tumble to the ground and Mr Usher slid down the roof and hung by his chin to the eaves for a moment, but succeeded in escaping without injury.

STRUCK OIL.—At $1.25 per 5 gallon can best Standard oil, at the Willamette Packing Co's store.

BIGGEST YET.—10,000 rolls of wall paper, latest varieties, finest decorations just received at Fortmiller & Irving's.

FIRE AT VANCOUVER.
Special to DEMOCRAT.
VANCOUVER, W. T. 3 p. m.—Fire at Vancouver completely destroyed twenty-nine buildings. Total loss about $75,000. Small insurance. The fire was the work of an incendiary. It is now under control.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.
A woman has been in the city canvassing for a couple books. She is decidedly a success as a canvasser, and displays that pushing and enterprising characteristic of the boom and enterprises of this great Northwest. She "gets there," to use a slang expression, just like the live cities and the live business men of this unparalleled country. She attacks the enemy from in front, and at the same time is ready for flank movements. Sixteen subscribers the first day speaks for her success. If she had done like this she wouldn't have gotten one: "Will you subscribe for my book?" "Oh, I don't believe I want it." "Well, never mind, good day."

FANCHON.—The Georgie Woodthrope troupe presented "Fanchon the Cricket" last evening to a large and delighted audience. Miss Woodthrope is at her best as Fanchon displaying her great talent to advantage in this part. She was well sustained. The Company are giving a week of fine entertainments and deserve the good patronage they receive. To-night, their best play the "Two Orphans" will be presented, and the house promises to be packed. "Caprice" was given this afternoon in fine shape.

SOUVENIR.—Mr A B Seal has shown us a piece of electric wire which he picked up on the ocean beach at Coos Bay, having been washed ashore with the wreckage from the wrecked steamer Alaskan.

NO WATER.—There will be no water in any of the mains to-morrow, govern yourselves accordingly. It is expected to have water running regularly by Monday.

A Mr Fry, of near your city, was here Tuesday in search of desirable residence property. He seems very well pleased with the location of our town and thinks he will invest and move here soon.
Scott Ward and Johnny Isom passed through here last week on their way to the hot springs of the McKenzie.

Many of our townsmen are now preparing to take their vacation, most of them heading towards the mountains.
The meeting called for last Wednesday evening in order to advise about forming a company for putting in water works here proved a failure. Our citizens will continue to neglect this until a fire has swept the town out of existence, then it will be "I told you so."

Sunday Mrs Blakely and Mrs Nashorick were buried at the same hour in Kirk's cemetery. Both these ladies were early pioneers and in every respect estimable ladies. This reminds us that our brave pioneers are fast passing away. One by one they cross over the river, their ranks growing thinner every year.

The Central Association of Baptist churches of this state convened at the First Baptist church of this place Thursday the 13th inst., with Moderator Crawford in the chair. Prof Brownson being absent Prof Sutherland, of Scio, was chosen clerk in his stead. After devotional exercises the business of the association was commenced and the usual topics discussed in their regular order. At 11 o'clock Friday the annual sermon was preached by Rev Trumbull, of your city. His sermon was a masterly effort and was well received. Leave was granted during the session to several churches to withdraw with a purpose in view of forming another association. The regular session closed Saturday evening, most of the delegates remaining, however, until Monday. Most all of the churches in the association were represented and all seem satisfied with the work done and the hospitality received.

In the death of Mrs Blakely which occurred Friday morning, the 14th inst., this community lost one of its noblest persons and one of its oldest inhabitants. Mrs Blakely was born in Jefferson county, Tennessee, Nov 24, 1815, and was 73 years, 6 months and 20 days old. She was married to Capt James Blakely, who survives her, in 1834. Four years after their marriage the young couple started west. They came as far as Missouri where they lived for eight years, the fore part of which was a hard struggle for livelihood. In 1846 they moved to the then almost unknown Oregon and cast their lot with those brave pioneers who faced the great difficulties of crossing the barren plains through the country in entire possession of the savages. On their arrival they settled on the claim which Capt Blakely still owns and on which Mrs Blakely died. She was the mother of 12 children, 10 of whom still live. Her remains were buried the Sunday following her death and the largest procession of the kind ever seen here followed her remains to the cemetery, such being the esteem in which she was held in this vicinity. Mrs Blakely was converted to Christ in her 17th year and has lived a pure and consistent Christian life ever since. Though the mother of so large a family, by her prudence, thrift and household economy, did her full share in helping her worthy and industrious husband in supporting well so large a family and still having something to keep them in their old days. Mrs Blakely will long be remembered in this community on account of her good example, her timely and always good advice, her hearty hospitality and the aid always extended in time of need. This entire community mourns her departure, but are consoled with the knowledge of a reward awaiting her over the river. The bereaved family have the sympathy of this neighborhood in their bereavement. Her aged companion is especially remembered in our sympathies. Though we cannot feel the sorrow, the unutterable loneliness felt by the one who lost the one that has been his constant and loving companion for more than half a century, yet we can point him to the consoling fact that only a little time and he shall clasp her to his bosom in the land where sickness and sorrow never come and partings are no more.

TEMPERANCE COLUMN.
Edited by Albany W. C. T. U.

Steps are being taken to call Mrs E B Greene, National Supt. of Kindergarten, into this State. She will probably come about Sept. 1st, and the W C T U hope to make arrangements whereby she may hold several institutes, and instruct a number of our women in the art of kindergarten. We need such a school in every city and village in our State. It is astonishing how much little tots of children can be taught, and that too in a way that is neither fatiguing, nor irksome. They are taught to amuse themselves, and at the same time receive valuable instruction, which lays a foundation for their broader education.

Miss Willard's new book, "Glimpses of Fifty Years" is being delivered in town by a local agent. The book is an autobiography of Miss Willard, written by the request of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union. It is dedicated to her mother on her eighty-fifth birthday. The introduction is written by Hannah Whitball

Smith, one of the grandest pioneers in the temperance reform. The frontispiece is an excellent steel-engraving of Miss Willard. The frequent illustrations in lithograph are arranged beautifully, and display the taste and skill of the Woman's Temperance Publishing Co. The book must be read to be appreciated. It is written in Miss Willard's most happy style, abounding in pleasant incidents and intensely interesting from cover to cover.

Dr. N. S. Davis, of Chicago, President of the recent International Medical Congress says: "I have prescribed no form of alcoholic drink, fermented or distilled, for internal use in the treatment of diseases for forty years, and find no need for any."

Mrs Elliott F. Shepard, a daughter of Wm H Vanderbilt is erecting a woman's lodging house for the Young Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of New York City.

Within a few weeks twelve boys have been admitted into the insane asylum of Napa, Cal., crazed by excessive cigarette smoking.

The Damon Liquor Bill of Michigan fixes the license on manufacturing spirituous liquors at $1,000; brewers' license, $65; for wholesale liquor selling, $500; and a uniform tax for selling both beer and whisky at retail, $500. A board of excise commissioners is to be established in every village, town and city, to whom alone is given power to grant and revoke licenses. In cities of over one thousand inhabitants this board is to be appointed by the Governor; in smaller towns, by the village council or town board. No screens are to be allowed in saloons; no saloon shall be located within four hundred feet of a public school, and the number of licenses shall not exceed one for every seventy five voters, not an unreasonable restriction, one would think. No liquor shall be sold to any one who has ever been convicted of felony, nor a license granted to anyone who has not paid for his last year's license.
