LOCAL RECORD.

WATER SUPPLY.—Chief Engineer Stewart has just made a careful measurement of the water in the city's cisterns and finds following to be the result. Firemen please examine the same and govern themselves accordingly in case of a fire: First and Ferry, Odd Fellow Temple corner, inexhaustible; First and Washington, St. Charles, only 5 feet; Fourth and Washington, near Hearst's residence, 4 feet; Fourth and Ellsworth, at northeast corner of school house block, 5 feet 8 inches; Fourth and Montgomery, near residence of F. S. Crosby, 3 feet 6 inches; Second and Baker, at residence of E. B. Purdin, 4 feet 8 inches; Second and Broadway, at the corner, water clear up to the top of cistern and practically inexhaustible; First and Ellsworth, Reverse corner, connected with flume and practically inexhaustible.

WHIPPING SCHOOL CHILDREN.—In his address before the state teachers' association at Salem, Prof. Walker, of this city, made the following emphatic remarks on school government: "Corporal punishment should never enter the school room. Paying taxes does not license a man's children to deprive another man's children from receiving instruction. A teacher's duty is to teach; not to whip. Whipping seldom does any good. One whipping begets another. Children come to us to be taught. It is our duty to preserve order, to provoke disorder. When the teacher fails to command his listeners' attention, does he get down and fog them? Let teachers; not thrashing machines, be child-masters; not punishment, but it is more the teacher's place to whip every child's mother and lazy husband."

CROOK COUNTY.—Several Crook county growers talk of shipping their wool Albany, the wool market having been better there this season than at The Dalles. If they did not meet with buyers in Albany, they would get better shipping over the Oregon Pacific than they get from The Dalles. J. N. Duncan family will move to the Willamette valley the latter part of next week. Mr. Duncan will return in four or five weeks, brighten up his business affairs. Several showers of rain have fallen in this city during the week, and from reports learn the rains were general throughout the county. Primeville papers.

OGT LECTURE.—Rev W. G. Simpson, M. E. Pastor of The Dalles, and Grand Secretary of the I. O. G. T. Grand Lodge of Oregon, will deliver a lecture in the White Church, Harrisburg, Wednesday evening, 7th, at 7:30 p. m. sharp. All are daily invited to attend, and judging from Mr. Simpson's reputation as a speaker, think every one will be well repaid for time spent in listening to his remarks. Know that just now is a very busy time for farmers, but we would like to have attend that possibly can.

RAILROAD WORK.—Antonielle & Doe begin their Oregon Pacific contract today morning. They have secured a day hired some men and will begin active operations at that time, increasing their force as fast as possible.

WEATHER ITEMS.—Keep cool. The refrigerators in the market at Stewart & Sox's. Buy one now.

ICE CREAM.—The finest line of ice cream in the city at Stewart & Sox's. Purchase one and manufacture this delicious dish at home.

NOTICE.—Mr. Myers, of the delivery wagon firm desires to give notice to people of the city that no wagons will be on July 4. Let everyone govern themselves accordingly.

YET.—10,000 rolls of wall paper, latest varieties, finest decorations just received at Fortmiller & Irving's.

WOMEN WRAPS.—Novelties in wadded stockinet jackets just received. SAMUEL E. YOUNG.

Death of Mrs. Jane Medsker.

Died at her home in Harrisburg, June 22nd, 1889, of consumption, aged 32 years. Mrs. Medsker has been a devoted and loving wife, and a kind and affectionate mother. Three years ago she joined the Methodist Church and from that time up to her death lived a constant and true member. She bore her afflictions with Christian fortitude, and died as she had lived, an example of true devotion to her Heavenly Master. Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. She leaves a husband and two small children to mourn her loss, but not as those having no hope. She fell asleep in Jesus to wait till the Life Giver comes.

Faith lifts the veil before our eyes,
And bids us view a happier clime,
Where verdant fields in beauty rise,
Beyond the withering blasts of time,
And brings the blissful moment near,
When we in glory shall appear.

Then let us hope 'tis not in vain,
Though moistened by our grief the soil.
The harvest brings us joy for pain,
The rest repays the weary toil;
For they shall reap, who sow in tears,
Rich gladness through eternal years.

BROWNVILLE.

Miss Lenora Kay returned from an extended visit to relatives in McMinnville Sunday evening.

H. B. Mover spent several days of last week attending business in Oregon's metropolis.

Mrs. C. H. Cable and E. E. Cable went to Portland last week. Mrs. Cable is under the medical care of Dr. Mrs. Warren.

Mrs. Croft, of Portland is visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. F. F. Croft. The former will soon leave for the Belknap springs where she intends spending the summer.

Last Monday F. F. Croft left for a trip on the Sound. After taking in all the places of interest on the Sound he will probably go to Alaska before returning.

Editor McDonald, of the Times, spent several days of last week down the valley. He returned and brought with him another printer. Our printing office, owing to so much job work, has had more than it could do necessitating an addition in the type setting department.

Mrs. Judge Blackburn returned to Albany last Thursday, after spending a week with relatives here.

Harvey Summerville was here Thursday and Friday of last week.

Joe Crooks and family, of Crook county, are here. Mr. Crooks confirms the reports concerning the dryness of that portion of our state and the total failure of crops.

Chas. H. Younger, of your city, paid his recent home a visit, staying over last Sunday with his friends here.

Thursday some of the running gear of the planing mill gave way causing a halt in that industry for a few days.

Thursday of last week Mr. Chas. Smith and Miss Cynthia Ann Balch loaded themselves into a buggy and went to our county seat and had themselves united in the holy bonds of matrimony. We extend congratulations.

Thursday evening at the residence of the bride's parents, one mile south of our town, Mr. I. D. Boyer, secretary of the Eagle Woolen Mills Co., of this place, and Miss Hattie Long were married. Miss Long for the past three years has very successfully managed the primary department of the North Brownsville graded school. She carries into her new life the good wishes of all her former pupils and the patron of our school. May prosperity and happiness be theirs through all the vicissitudes of life.

Thursday of last week Mr. Wm. Washburn captured a large rattlesnake near his residence three miles north of town. The snake was seven rattles and was over three feet long and large in proportion. Mr. Washburn carried the snake to some lover of curiosities at Corvallis.

F. L. Kenton has a supply of fine mixed pickles put up in pure cider vinegar. Try them.

The St. Charles Hotel is supplied with an excellent charcoal filter where the guest will always find pure cold water.

Mr. W. E. Carl has sold his residence property on Third Street to Mr. O. Moore, of Luzerne, New York. Consideration, $1400.

The County Court, in session this afternoon, will adjourn until Friday, when the business of the session will be completed.

Wheat is up a notch, being quoted at 60 cents, with few sales, not over 1000 bushels having been sold in a month at the warehouse.

Mattie Vickers and Company went through the city to Corvallis this noon, and will play there to-night. To-morrow night they will give F. Company a benefit.

F. L. Kenton will be prepared to serve ice cream, lemonade, candies, nuts, fruits, etc., etc., at his store, near the Postoffice, to-morrow. Don't fail to give him a call.

Bob Johnson, of the Corvallis Times, will probably not celebrate in Albany to-morrow, as some low lived scoundrel stole $11.80 from him, his hard earned savings for several months.

Contracts for supplies for the insane asylum at Salem have been let. The lowest bids were: Meats, $4.90 per 100 pounds; flour, $3.65 per barrel; vinegar, 14 cents per gallon.

The Whiteaker Co. arrived this afternoon by way of the O. P., the Salem and Madray Co's will come tonight. Corvallis in the morning and Hon. J. H. Mitchell, H. M. C. George and Gov. Penney to-night.

A Mr. Bruce in shooting at some birds near Turner Tuesday evening hit two little children of Mr. Wagner, filling their bodies with fine bird shot, seriously though, probably not dangerously wounding them. It seems to have been a case of carelessness.

If you have any job work to do call on G. W. Smith who is prepared to do it with neatness and dispatch, and as cheap as anyone.

MARRIED.

BROWN-ST. JOHN.—At Oakville, on Wednesday morning, July 3, 1889, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. Charles Browne and Miss Ella St. John—both of Oakville.

LYONSVILLE.

The work of surfacing track east of Gates will begin to-morrow.

E. M. Wharton returned from Columbia City Tuesday, where he has been on business.

The gentle rain caused a grin to overspread the granger's face likened unto that of a laughing philosopher.

Wm. M. Hoag and party passed up the road Friday and now we may look for work to be resumed at an early date.

The mountains east of Gates are full of people in quest of blackberries, and those returning report them as plentiful.

Mr. T. C. Sloper has just received a 30 horse power engine for his saw mill. Judging from the machinery coming to this section Santiam will soon be one lumbering camp.

Twenty-six cars of lumber passed down the road last week for Albany, the largest shipment in one week for this extension, aggregating about 130,000 feet.

To lessen our stock of canned goods we will sell during this time at remarkably low prices.

BROWNELL & STANARD.
