

THE 4TH AT ALBANY.
The glorious 4th has come and gone. The eagle screamed in Albany. So far as the crowd was concerned it was a success here. So far as carrying out the program was concerned it was a circus. Somewhere near ten thousand people were in the city, coming from both directions on the S P and O P and from the country at large. Albany was splendidly attired for the occasion, and there was a harvest for stands, hotels, eating rooms and saloons. The day was salubrious.
At 9:30 the procession formed in good shape, and presented a nice spectacle as it marched to Hackleman's grove, followed by an immense crowd of teams and people. Six or seven stands and a whirligig furnished refreshments and fun for the crowd. Rev H P Webb, of this city, read the declaration of Independence and Hon M C George delivered the oration, which did credit to the celebration. It was full of historical and classical reference and patriotic thoughts.
Mr. George said substantially: The instinctive love of home and country is almost universal. America is the chosen home of people of all nationalities. These old oaks were standing here long before our fathers framed the Constitution, some of them when the "Mayflower" landed at Plymouth Rock, and perhaps when Columbus landed on our shores. They were the contemporaries of Washington, Adams and Jefferson. The moral and heroic deeds of the soldiers of the Revolution is unparalleled. The one great event of the Revolution that decided the fate of America was the battle of Saratoga. The greatest decisive battle of history was the battle of Marathon that decided the fate of Greece. Others were Arabelle, Chillon, Teuce, Hastings, Orleans, Blenheim, but America had her Saratoga. From that day the U. S. has gradually increased in power until now it eclipses all other nations on the face of the globe. The star of our destiny is not memory, it is hope. The hope of our nation lies in our people. Our danger can only come from within. Assyria, Rome and Sparta departed from the principles of their foundation and fell. The United States must remember the spirit of the Revolution and grow in strength. While other nations have had their great men it was reserved for America to have her Washington.
The speaker closed with an eloquent peroration showing the decay of the greatest of nations, and, yet, notwithstanding this, we hope for the future of America, which has had no parallel in history.
None of the contests or baby shows advertised came off, there seeming to be no one at the grove to take charge of them.
Dinner.
The sham battle was announced for 2 o'clock; but a long and tedious delay of nearly two hours followed, and half of the crowd got disgusted and left. When it did come off it was a pretty fair sham battle; but the delay spoiled the effects of it. B Co. of Salem, E Co. of Corvallis, F Co. of Albany, I Co. of Whiteaker and the MacCleay Co. who discharged their Captain in order to come participated.
The base ball game did not come off, a dispute arising about a curve pitcher, imported by the Knox Butte Club, from Waterloo.
The glass ball shoot did not come off, there being no glass balls.
The bicycle races did not come off, there being no track.
The three legged and other like races did not come off.
Between five and six o'clock the horse races began on First street, and were somewhat exciting: Corvallis won first money, $60 and Lebanon second money, $15. One block to hydrant. Following was the time: Albany, none; Corvallis, 37 1/2 seconds; Lebanon, 41 1/2 seconds; Scio, 45 seconds.
A tender race resulted as follows, one block: Albany, 18 1/2 seconds; Salem, 18 1/2 seconds. Albany getting the broom.
A 100 yard foot race was won by Bert Logan, of Scio. Mr Clipper, of Lebanon, entered, but did not start.
A steamer contest between No. 1's new steamer, Clapp & Jones, 4th class, and Capital's of Salem, LeFrance, 3rd class, was won by the latter, which threw 259 feet; Albany's, 238 feet 8 1/2 inches.
Mattie Vickers at the Opera House, some fire works and a well attended ball given by F Co closed the 4th at Albany.

HOME AND ABROAD
The gross receipts at the W C T U hall yesterday were about $300.
The Farmers' & Merchants' insurance company, of this city, carried about $5000 in risks in Ellensburg; but will only lose about $1500.
Several tons of ice were shipped here from Albany last week and the atmosphere became cooler at once.—Eugene Register.
Rev I P Martin will preach Sunday morning and evening at St Paul's M E church South. All are invited to come.
In the foot race at McMinnville yesterday between Cameron, of Corvallis, and Miller, of Salem, Cameron won with ease.
There were no arrests in Albany yesterday and no accidents. Remarkably good order for the glorious 4th was kept.
Mr A H Marsh received a dispatch from his son-in-law, D O Woodworth, that Ellensburg was in ashes; but they were safe.
Everybody pronounced the ice cream sold by F H Pfeiffer yesterday the finest ever made in Albany. France did a rushing business.
The great Sullivan-Kilrain fight is to occur next Monday if the authorities do not very properly put a stop to it, as they assert they will.
Biggest crowd yesterday ever in Albany, and so far as accommodations were concerned it was well taken care of. No one went hungry nor necessarily without sleep.
Ninety-five percent of the fire losses in the Northwest during the past year or two have occurred in Washington territory. Perhaps sometime Oregon will get its share.
Mr Geo S Rovee has sold his interest in the job office of Royce & Hibler to Mr S W Paisley. Mr Paisley is an experienced job printer, and the new firm, like the old one will probably do a rushing business.
Music was furnished yesterday for the celebration by the Mechanic's band, of this city, the Tanager band, who appeared in their fine new uniforms and the Chemawa Indian band, the two former doing most of the playing.
This morning the street railway men began from the Revere House to work westward and First street will now be torn up for several days, when the line will be completed. Cars will probably be running before the first of September.
Mr and Mrs Jeff Davis, who have been employed as attendants at the asylum for the past few years, leave to day for their home in the East. They were presented with a silver tea set and received the good wishes of their many friends.—Salem Journal.
Governor Penoyer, Hon J H Mitchell and Senator Norvel, of Union and Walla-wa counties were conspicuous figures on the grand stand at the grove yesterday. Mayor Cowan, President of the day introduced the former two; but no speeches were made. Hand shaking was in order.
The closing struggle in the sham battle yesterday which resulted in the capture of the cannon, was done in pretty good shape, and if it had occurred on time would have received some praise; but the crowd had waited too long, and was not in the praising business.
The boom at Kearney, Neb., is on to such a degree that even the ministers have caught the real estate fever. Recently a Kearney minister announced that he would take his text from Lot 7, Block 5, St. John's second addition and no one noticed it except a man who never owned a dollar's worth of real estate in his life.
A small fire in the roof of the old cooper shop near the Magnolia mill this forenoon caused a fire alarm, responded to by the apparatus being taken east along First street. The fire was put out with buckets. Every alarm costs the city $30 or $40. It seems like an unnecessary expense for every hose cart to be hauled to fires by day teams, and we understand the council proposes to adopt a rule in reference to the practice.

DAIRYING.—There is a gentleman residing not far from Eugene who has demonstrated that the dairy business will pay in this country. He informed us the other day that he is keeping twelve milch cows, and that they have yielded him an income of not less than $60 per month. It pays to look to something besides wheat raising for a living now days.—Register.
THANKS.—Linn Engine Co. No. 2 desire to return their thanks to Miss Ora Dubrulle, daughter of Mr J J Dubrulle for the part so handsomely taken in the 4th of July celebration in riding on their decorated horse cart in the procession. By order of the Foreman.
PASSED THROUGH.—The Lilly Clay Galey Co. passed through Albany to day. It is composed mostly of flashy young ladies, and the exhibition given is said to be noticeable for different colored tights, different from the 4th of July tights.

For sale by Will & Stark, dealers in fine watches, jewelry, etc.

LOCAL RECORD.
YAQUINA BAY.—The wreck of the Yaquina Bay should be removed. If the owners will not do it the government should cause it to be blown up. A hard gale from the northwest is liable to drive the hull through the jetty and do much damage. As it is now the wreck is neither a thing of profit or beauty. From the point where the north jetty now is it will be constructed about eight hundred feet in a straight line, thence it will make a curve to the west and run six or eight hundred feet parallel and one thousand feet from the south jetty. Mr T D H Brown, of Douglas, Wyoming, was a caller yesterday. He is out looking up the prospects of Yaquina Bay. Mr Brown says the people in his section keep well posted on events on this way and that it is no secret that the Chicago & Northwestern railroad will make Yaquina Bay its Pacific coast terminus.—Republican.

WATER.—Last evening during the trial test by the Albany and Salem steamers a full stream of water was purposely turned on the spectators along the side of the street on one occasion, knocking over one or two, and on another ten or fifteen women were well drenched. The acts were said to be entirely unnecessary, and we are informed the matter will be investigated, charges having already been presented to the Chief Engineer against some of the parties to blame.

Accident at Lyons.
Special to Democrat.
LYONS, OR., July 5th.—Yesterday evening about 6 o'clock while several children were playing with a road cart at the residence of James Berry the cart was tipped backward, falling on Patrick, the four year old son of J C Lyons, breaking his leg near the thigh. Dr Wyatt was immediately summoned and the little sufferer is now resting easy.

A HAND OFF.—Last Thursday a millman named Jesse Mason, in trying to remove a stick from behind a saw in Parker's mill at Oneatta, had his sleeve caught in the saw teeth. His hand was caught and ripped into ribbons. He was taken to Yaquina and the lacerated hand was cut off at the wrist. At last reports he was getting along comfortably. Mr Mason has a wife and four children to support by his labor and the loss of his hand is a great hardship.—Yaquina Republican.

AT YAQUINA.—The celebration at Yaquina City yesterday was attended by a large crowd of people and a big time was had, everything in the program being carried out. Tom Buford's yacht, with Lewis at the helm, won the boat race; Cain won the foot race, beating Jacobs and two others. Mr Ed Ford, of the O. P., informs us that the calibore was full and the fines amounted to $300. Probably one of his jokes.
